

DOTS FROM PLEASANT HILL

The health of this community is fine at the present.

The Rev. Kanaday of the Columbia Tabernacle delivered an interesting lecture Sunday afternoon at Pleasant Hill. His text was 1st Timothy 3rd chapter. There were also two deacons installed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Taylor are all smiles because it's a boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Taylor and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Simpson Taylor Sunday.

There will be a Christmas exercise at Pleasant Hill Christmas evening beginning at 1 o'clock. The following program is for the occasion:

Opened with song, "His Blood Was Shed For Me," No. 18.

Prayer by Superintendent.

Song, "O Happy Day," No. 119.

Recitations—"A Merry Christmas," by Juline Romine; "A Christmas Wish," by Victor Hallman; "Christmas Everywhere," by Annie Alewine; Song, "There is Power in the Blood," No. 94.

Recitations—"A Little Child," by Cellus Taylor; "The Sweetest Old Story," by Bessie Taylor; "The Christmas Message," by two girls.

Song, "He came to Save," No. 109.

Recitations—"What Can a Little Girl Do For the Lord," by Agnes Taylor; "The Shepherds Watch Their Flock by Night," by Carol Hallman; "Christmas Like It Used to Be," by Lott Risinger.

Song, "Revive Us Again," No. 117.

Rev. W. C. Wallace of Lexington will make an address on Sunday school at 2 o'clock.

Song, "What a Friend," No. 114.

The next speaker will be Rev. S. R. Taylor of Leesville.

Song, "We'll Work 'Till Jesus Comes," No. 116.

Close with prayer by Rev. W. C. Wallace.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

The whole of Pelion was saddened on the night of November 22, 1921, by the sudden death of Mrs. Elizabeth Wise. She was only sick about 20 or 30 minutes. She went to bed seemingly as well as usual about 9 o'clock and about 10 o'clock her daughter, Mrs. W. I. Bert heard her making a noise and went to her and found her very sick and before only a few of the neighbors could get there she passed away.

Mrs. Wise before her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Myers of St. Matthews, where she was born and reared and when just a girl she joined the old Buck Head Baptist church, one of the oldest in the Charleston Association and remained a member of this church until a few years ago. She moved to Pelion and joined the Baptist church there, of which she was a faithful member at her death. She was indeed a great church worker, ever ready to do anything good, ever rebuking sin and was constantly pleading with those she came in contact with to live a better life and only a week before she passed away, though feeble she was, went on a mission to invite some to attend church services who did not attend. It can truly be said of her, she hath done what she could.

She leaves seven children, viz: Mrs. L. W. Wise, Mrs. W. F. Best and Mrs. R. T. Zenker of Pelion. Mrs. Loula Bates of Columbia, Mrs. Charlie Prickett of St. Matthews, Mrs. Henry Wyche of Richmond, Va. Also one son, Walter Wise of Yemassee. Her husband and one daughter having preceded her to a world above. She also leaves 16 grand children and a host of friends, who will ever cherish her memory, and think of her as one more attraction in heaven, as she was at all times a great inspiration to the writer.

Her funeral was conducted in the Baptist church of St. Matthews, by her pastor, Rev. W. H. Whaley, assisted by Rev. Golphin according to her wishes and her body laid to rest in the cemetery. A large crowd of friends and relatives were present and the flowers were profuse and beautiful. But they could only partly express the love and esteem of those left behind.

Her Pastor.

LYLES ESTATE SUES FOR HUNDRED THOUSAND

A hundred thousand dollar damage suit is being tried in the court of common pleas Tuesday. Pope Williams, administrator of the estate of Feaster Lyles, is bringing action against the Southern railway for Mrs. Carrie Lyles and children. It is alleged that a train operated between Perry and Batesburg killed Mr. Feaster, a pedestrian, between the station of Selvern and the postoffice, on April 3, 1920. The deceased, who was said to be deaf, was walking over a course, the plaintiff alleged, that was generally traversed by pedestrians, which fact was known to the employees of the company. The engineer of the train that struck Mr. Feaster was Jesse Chappelle. The action was brought from Lexington county.—Columbia Record.

Why Mr. Joe Armstrong, Celebrated Dog Trainer, Uses Rat-Snap.

"Noticed rats around my kennels, having hundreds of prize dogs, couldn't take chances. Tried RAT-SNAP: in three weeks every rat disappeared. Noticed that the dogs never went near RAT-SNAP. I tell my friends about RAT-SNAP." Use this sure rodent exterminator, it's safe. Comes in cake form. Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Lexington Pharmacy and Harmon Drug Company.

Mr. Fred White Says, "Don't Idle Because You Only See One Rat."

"I did, pretty soon I found my cellar full. They ate my potatoes. After trying RAT-SNAP I got 5 dead rats. The rest later. They pass up the potatoes to eat RAT-SNAP." If there are rats around your place follow Mr. White's example. Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and Guaranteed by Harmon Drug Co., and Lexington Pharmacy.

FINAL DISCHARGE.

Notice is hereby given that on Monday, the 9th day of January 1922, we will apply to Walter F. Hook, Judge of Probate for Lexington County, for final discharge as executors of the estate of W. H. F. Rast deceased.

L. B. Rast, W. B. Rast, E. H. Varn, James L. Haigler, Executors Estate of W. H. F. Rast deceased. 4t-13

The Price Has a Lot to do With it Even at Christmas Time

The people who buy Christmas gifts are divided into two classes—99 per cent on the side of Value and 1 per cent on the verge of extravagance.

A really fine gift for men and boys can be economically purchased. The most important gift on your list can be made a masterpiece of Value—and you don't have to sacrifice the refinement or gusto to effect this!

A trip to the Hope-Davis Company store this week is all that is necessary and the visit itself—even though you do not purchase is one that you will much enjoy.
