

MRS. JOHN T. ALLEN PASSED AWAY SUNDAY.

Death of One of Milledgeville's Best Beloved Women and Wife of Prominent Citizen, Caused Profound Sorrow Throughout the City.

Union Recorder.

Mrs. Hattie Hendrix Allen, wife of Judge John T. Allen, passed away at her home in this city Sunday evening, March 12th, at half-past eight o'clock.

Mrs. Allen had been in ill health for the past several months, and medical skill and tender care failed to restore her to health. Her vitality gradually succumbed and she grew weaker, yielding to death after a brave and patient fight for life.

The news of the death of Mrs. Allen was heard throughout the city with profound sorrow, and the sympathy of all our people went out to the stricken home.

The funeral services were held at the residence Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock by Rev. T. G. Watts and Dr. J. W. Goode, in the presence of a large concourse of people, who gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to one whose life had been spent in this community, and had won the love and esteem of our people.

The floral offerings were large in numbers and beautiful, coming from sympathetic friends in this and other cities.

Mrs. Allen before her marriage was Miss Hattie Hendrix, the second daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hendrix, and was born and reared in this city. In early womanhood, soon after her graduation from the Georgia Military College, she was united in marriage to Judge John T. Allen. Four children blessed their union and her love and affection centered around the home, she giving largely of her time and thought for the comfort and happiness of her loved ones, no sacrifice being too great for her to make.

Mrs. Allen was a member of the Presbyterian church and always manifested interest in its advancement, being connected with the Woman's Missionary Society, faithfully discharging her duties. She was an active worker in the R. E. Lee Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy and the Woman's Club and other civic organizations.

Mrs. Allen was one of Milledgeville's best beloved women and her passing away is a distinct loss to Milledgeville. She will long be remembered by hundreds of friends, who loved her.

She is survived by Judge Allen, a son, Mr. Marion Allen, of Atlanta; three daughters, Miss Isabel Allen, of this city; Mrs. Loyd D. Brown, of Gainesville, and Mrs. W. T. Garrard, Jr., of this city; three sisters, Mrs. H. E. McCombs, of this city; Mrs. Robert J. Rainey, of Kansas City, and Mrs. J. C. Jackson, of New Orleans, and one brother, Mr. Chas. B. Hendrix, of Sandersville.

The sympathy of our entire community has gone out to those who are bereaved.

The late H. Ed. Hendrix, the father of Mrs. Allen, was before and during the Civil War, one of our prominent merchants and business men, a partner of the late Uriah Hendrix, who did considerable business here prior to his going to Milledgeville, Ga. He was a brother of Mr. Joseph E. and J. Sol Hendrix and has considerable number of relatives here who join in deep regret and sorrow the death of Mrs. Allen.

"A JOB FOR MY BUDDY."

Spurred on by the fact that many ex-servicemen are still jobless, the American Legion has launched a nation-wide 30-day employment drive through its 11,000 posts. Employed veterans everywhere in the United States have volunteered to devote their spare time and money for the big job-hunt, in behalf of their less fortunate comrades.

SMALLPOX.

The Department of Commerce, through the Bureau of the Census, announces that there have been very few deaths from smallpox in recent years. Since the beginning of annual compilations in 1900 the highest rate from this cause in the death registration area of the United States was 6.6 per 100,000 population in 1902, while in 1903 it was 4.2 and in 1904, 2.1, since which time the rate for the registration area has never reached 1 per 100,000 population.

Are Your Glasses Time Waisters?

Yes, they are—if you wear them for reading only and have to remove them when you look at distant objects. Think of the wasted time and bother of continually taking them off and putting them on! And it's still worse if you are tied to two pairs.
