DILLON, S. C. APRIL 6, 1911.

The results of the election shows this to be a pretty good day.

Day current, water and sewerage will make Dillon the ideal residence town of the State.

March is paying back to April some of the weather she borrowed from her last year—with interest.

The intentions of that Charleston "boasting party" are good, but they blundered in not "seeing Dillon first."

If President Kohn wants the press party to enjoy that New York trip he should arrange it about the time the governor takes his annual vacation.

Eighty thousand dollars for water works and sewerage is a high-sounding phrase, but it is mighty pleasing to the ear.

We are looking for great things from the new administration. There are many public improvements to be made during the present year, and a new life and new blood in city council we have every reason to believe that this will be a most breaking year in the history of Dillon. The new board is composed of young men, strong of character, vigorous and energetic, and conservative. We are placing faith in the ability up to the responsibility shoulders. Here's wishing much success, gentlemen, and hoping for you an administration of good results.

The following is from the Lum-Robesonian: "A young man has his name as A. F. White

The union service to-night will be held at the Methodist church, and on Friday night all are invited to the initial service at the warehouse.
Mr. Black will take charge of the meeting, beginning Sunday morning in a great union service, all the congregations repairing to the warehouse at the close of the Sunday school exercises, and all other public services will be suspended at the churches for the successive Sabbaths in the interest of the evangelistic movement.

Throughout the meeting soul-stirring music will be rendered by the united choirs under Mr. Black, aided by other visiting singers, among them Mr. Poole and his sister, and Mr. Black, who is himself a gifted singer.

Under the guidance of the Spirit this is likely to be the greatest evangelistic campaign ever conducted in Dillon. Let all those who and share in the blessing de-ly sound and confidently expected.
