

GAFFNEY PARSON ARRESTED.

Methodist Preacher is Accused of Writing Letter to Young Woman in Atlanta.

Atlanta, Nov. 2.—Rev. W. C. Ferrell a Methodist minister who came here recently from Gaffney, S. C., has been arrested and placed in jail here as a result of having written to a young woman of this city a letter in which he asked to make her acquaintance with a view to "commit matrimony."

When given a hearing in the police court the minister admitted authorship of the letter but the case was dismissed, the judge saying he knew of no law which the minister had violated.

The arrest was made by detectives, who accompanied the young woman to the place designated in the letter as the place of meeting. The minister described himself in the letter as an "English gentleman romantically inclined," but he told the court he had never lived in England.

TILLMAN, JONES AND BLEASE.

All at State Fair, Greeting Friends and Supporters.

Columbia, Nov. 2.—Special: Senator Tillman spent yesterday in Columbia attending the meetings of the Clemson board of trustees and taking in the Fair. He returned home to-day.

The Senator was everywhere greeted by his friends, who were glad to see him looking so well. The politicians on all sides, but if he talked politics at all it was not for publication. When asked concerning the race for Governor, he said that he had said all he was going to say now. To his friends it appeared that he was watching the approaching contest between Governor Blease and Chief Justice Jones, as an experienced prize fighter would watch a contest between two other contestants, in position to pass expert opinion upon the tactics and the movements of both men.

As to his race for re-election and the candidacy of Ex-Congressman Talbert against him, the Senator seemed not at all disturbed. He did not say so, but it was learned that a number of influential men, who in days of factionalism were prominently known as anti-Tillmanites, individually and without concert of action, assured the Senator that he is their choice for the Senate, irrespective of who else may be in the race.

Senator Tillman talked more agriculture than politics, while he was in Columbia. He is deeply interested in his farm. He still walks with a slight limp, but his general health appears to be excellent, and his brain is as quick and incisive in its working as ever.

Chief Justice Jones has been in Columbia throughout the week. While Mr. Jones maintains his attitude of passivity as a candidate as long as he is on the Bench, he is all the time being approached by influential men from all sections of the State, with assurances of support in his race against Governor Blease.

Governor Blease has, of course, been in Columbia during the Fair. He was unable on that account to attend the Conference of Southern Governors held this week at New Orleans. The Governor is always on the job when it comes to looking after his political fences, as everybody in South Carolina knows.

There has been more or less talk among the politicians or other candidates entering the contest for Governor, and several of the men mentioned as possibilities have been in the city, but no announcements have yet been made.

THROUGH TO GEORGETOWN.

The N. and S. C. Connecting With G. and W. at Pee Dee River.

W. C. Freeman, of Hamlet, who has been for some time in Marion county getting rights of way for the extension of the N. and S. C. railroad, spent Tuesday night in Bennettsville with the editor of the Herald. The extension of the road is now nearly completed to Pee Dee river, and the construction of the bridge across the river is under way. The road will be met at the river by the Georgetown and Wagon road, which is being built by the Atlantic Coast Lumber company from Andrews in on the road between Lanes and Georgetown. These two roads are joined at the river, through trains will be run over the N. and S. C. road from Hamlet to Georgetown, via Gibson, Mullins, Olo, Dillon, Mullins and Andrews.

Mr. Freeman has finished securing the rights of way from Mullins to the river, and expects to go now to Georgetown and Sumter counties to get after the branch lines which Mr. Freeman is building to Bishopville, Sumter and Timmons ville. The line from McBee to Hartsville, Parham and Florence is already in operation. The line to Bishopville and Sumter will start from Hartsville and from this line, at Bishopville, there will be a branch going to Timmonsville.

All of these roads are built as feeders for the Seaboard, and go in rich territory which has heretofore been controlled exclusively by the Carolina Line.—Marlboro Democrat.

Local Booster's Creed.

Under the above caption the Impartial Dealer's Bulletin publishes the creed of a loyal-spirited trade booster who gives good reasons why he should support the home merchant. The Bulletin suggests that all readers of the creed should ask their local paper to publish it.

"I buy at home; "I buy of my inter's are here. "I buy of the community that is good enough for me to live in is good enough for me to buy in. "I believe in transacting business with my friends.

"Because I want to see the goods. "Because I want to get what I buy when I pay for it. "Because my home dealer carries me when I run short. "Because every dollar I spend at home stays at home and works for the welfare of my town. "Because the man I buy from stands back of the goods. "Because I sell what I produce here at home. "Because the man I buy from pays his part of the town, county and state taxes. "Because the man I buy from gives value received always. "Because the man I buy from helps support my school, my church, my lodge, my home. "Here I live and here I buy."

New York.—A discovery whereby epidemic spinal meningitis can be entirely cured was announced by Dr. Simon Flexner, director of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, at the closing session of the conference of sanitary officers of New York State here to-day. The control could be established, Dr. Flexner said by injecting serum into the cerebro spinal membrane, thus getting at the seat of the disease.

"It has taken much money and a long time to perfect this cure," said Dr. Flexner. "This is the first time I have announced it, as only very recently have I demonstrated to my own satisfaction that the serum I have prepared will do as I claim.

"Influenza meningitis in the child, which has caused so many deaths and which spreads so rapidly will the application of this new form of treatment be not one half-tenth as dangerous as it was before.

OLD BILL MINER CAUGHT.

Notorious Train Robber Captured in Box Car at St. Clair, Georgia. Comrade Resists Arrest.

Waynesboro, Ga., Nov. 4.—Old Bill Miner, a notorious train robber, who escaped from the Milledgeville jail recently, was captured and Tom Moore, his companion in the escape was shot and killed by a posse at St. Clair, near here, last night.

Miner and Moore were in a box car when they were discovered. A posse quickly assembled and the car was surrounded. The posse called on Miner to come out and give up. This he did. Moore, however, showed fight. He fired one shot and was then shot in the face by one of the posse, the wound proving fatal.

Miner was brought to the Waynesboro jail early this morning. Miner was in the best of spirits and talked as if nothing had happened. He says he will escape again if the opportunity presents itself. When questioned as to where they have been spending their time since their escape from Milledgeville, he said most of the time had been spent in Augusta.

Tom Moore, who was with Miner and was killed while resisting arrest, was sentenced to life in the penitentiary for killing his brother. Moore was a young man about 20 years old and his chances for commutation were good, and he had been a trusty for the past two years. Miner is about 60 years old, a native Kentuckian. He went to California. He is about five feet, nine inches high, weighs about 235 pounds and has gray hair and brown eyes. He will be kept in jail here until the State authorities come after him.
