James, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Young, has been seriously ill for several days at his home on Clebourn street.

Miss Dora Grier returned Friday evening from Lancaster where she attended a house party at the home of Col. and Mrs. Leroy Springs.

The Times is requested to state that the ladies of the v'llage improvement society will give a musical in the town hall Friday evening at 8 o'clock. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged.

The young people of the town were delightfully enterrained Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Link on White street. The social was given in honor of Miss Annie Link, of Hickory, N. C.

Mr. L. P. Wagener, who has been boss weaver at the Spring-stein mills, left for Fort Mill yesterday to accept a similar po-sition. He moved his family to Lando a week ago and they will remain there for a while. - Chester Lantern.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the South Carolina University this week, Mr. Frank Potts was chosen as a teacher of modern languages in the institu-tion. Mr. Potts, who is an alumnus of the college, is a young man of high charreter and brilliant promise. As is well known, he is a native of Lancaster county, being a son of the Hon. O. W. Potts, of Pleasant Valley.—Lancaster News.

The Fort Mill Mfg. Company a few days ago received a ship-ment of two car loads of new looms and now has a force of hands putting the looms in place and "breaking" them in. The new looms, forty in number, are being placed in the "kitchen," taking the place of a like num-ber of old Bridesberg looms which were thrown out. The new looms are of the two-box Crompton type.

Fort Mill Wins 3to 2 Game.

By far the most interesting and closely contested game of the season, and said by many to be the best game ever played here, took place Friday after-noon between the Winnsboro and Fort Mill teams. The grounds were wet and slippy, but notwithstanding the, game was well played by both teams. It would be doing an injustice to mention the excellent work of any particular man, or men, as all did the best in their power. The game resulted in a victory for Fort Mill by the very close score of 3 to 2.

The batteries were DesPortes and Douglass for Winnsboro, and Kizer and Parks for Fort
