IN THE LOCAL FIELD

—Today is All Fools' Day.

—B. W. Bradford and family are today moving to their new home on Booth street.

—In accordance with requirements of the postal laws, upwards of a score of delinquent subscribers will be dropped from The Times' lists this week.

—An ordinance recently put into effect by council prohibits hotel proprietors or porters, liverymen and carriage drivers going nearer than twenty feet of any passenger train in seeking patronage.

—Magistrate J. W. McElhaney Thursday morning united in marriage Mr. Minor Morris and Miss Edna Harrison, both of Mt. Gilead, N. C.

—Mr. Taft has accepted an invitation to visit Charlotte May 20th, and a large crowd of Fort Mill people will doubtless be on hand to see and hear the president.

—The Times learns with regret that Mr. Ira A. Patterson, a highly esteemed citizen of the Barberville section, has been seriously ill for some days.

—Mr. J. E. Armstrong, was on Tuesday drawn as a juror from Fort Mill to serve the second week of the approaching term of York court.

—A four-team baseball league, consisting of Chester, Camden, Gaffney and Rock Hill, was organized in the latter city the past week. An invitation will be issued to other towns to enter and make it a six-team association.

—The annual spring millinery opening at the store of Meacham & Epps is to be held today (Thursday) beginning at 9 a. m.
All the ladies of the township are invited to visit the store and view the new creations in fashionable dress goods and headwear.

—The musical entertainment in the hall Friday evening by the pupils of Miss Smith's music class was a decided success. A large crowd of people from the town and surrounding country were present and all expressed themselves as well pleased with the evening's entertainment.
Quite a nice little sum of money was realized from seat sales.

Dr. C. L. Clawson Dead.

Dr. C. L. Clawson, a native of Fort Mill township, died Saturday morning at his home at Richburg, Chester county, after an illness of several weeks. Dr.
Clawson was in his 90th year.
He is survived by a son, Mr.
T. W. Clawson, who for a year or more has been engaged in the gold mining business in the upper part of this township. The remains were interred in Evergreen cemetery, Chester.

General Postal Information.

Postmaster B. H. Massey has received from the department a supply of the new edition of the pamphlets of general postal information, and, according to requirement, is supplying each teacher in the public and private schools within the delivery of his office with a copy. The purpose of the pamphlet is that the teachers may be given a more thorough knowledge of the postal laws and requirements and to instruct their pupils along these lines.

A supply of printed cards showing the proper method of addressing letters has also been received, and these, too, are being distributed among the patrons of the office. A great many people, either through ignorance or carelessness, fail to properly address their mail, and as a result more than thirteen million pieces of mail matter were Pleasant Valley.

(S. E. B. in Lancaster News.)

Another landmark is gone—removed by the grim-visaged monster death. On Tuesday morning, March 23, Mr. John Hayne White passed from time into eternity. He was one of the oldest and most respectable citizens of our community, being in his seventy-fifth year at the time of his death. Mr. White was for many years a communicant of the Harrison Methodist church, where his remains were interred Wednesday morning after funeral services conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. S. Hayes of Pineville. He is survived by a wife and two daughters, Mrs.
Wm. Kerr and Mrs. Chas. Han-field.

Miss Mary Culp, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Charlotte sanitarium last week, is gradually improving.

Master James Bailes, son of Mr. J. Z. Bailes, has been seriously ill with pneumonia, but is slightly improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cousart, who moved to Charlotte about a year ago, have returned to their native heath.

Our enterprising and progressive young farmer, Mr. Osmond Barber, has decided to enter the State corn-growing contest. Mr.
Barber has some very fine land, and we feel sure that the one who beats him raising corn will have to go some.

Messrs. O. Barber and J. J.
Bailes are each operating a sawmill plant and we understand that they are finding a ready sale for their fine lumber.

Mr. W. R. Bradford went to Chester today to hear the lecture of J. Ogden Murray on the "Immortal Six Hundred," the Confederate prisoners who were placed under the fire of our own guns at Morris Island in 1863.
Mr. Bradford's grandfather, the late Capt. N. G. Bradford, Twenty-Sixth North Carolina Infantry, was a member of the "Six Hundred."—Columbia Record, Thursday.

More Foreigners at Grattan.

(Charlotte Observer, Friday.)

A party of 10 Poles, under the leadership of Anton Varcholik, spent yesterday in the city enroute from New York to Grattan, where they will work for Mr.
S. S. McNinch at the plant of the Charlotte Brick Company.
The strangers, in their uncouth garb, with heavy, ruddy faces and rough, muscular forms, excited considerable comment as they wandered about the streets yesterday. A few could speak English fairly well while others were fresh from the old country.
Their communications were mostly "yea, yea," and "nay, nay," except when they desired to talk with one another. The 12-story Realty Building did not arouse their curiosity in the least. They gazed at it once or twice, passed a few words evidently of comparison with the surrounding structures and they passed on.
In the party aside from Anton Varcholik, were Paul Hodem, John Urbansky, Mike Kolson, Daniel Blousky, Ludwig Placak, Paul Kusmier, Waryl Ladowsky, Mike Spodack and Grbriel Botz.
They went on to Grattan, which is just below Fort Mill, S. C., yesterday afternoon and will commence loading brick in freight cars today.

There are several of the foreigners whom Mr. McNinch secured from New York two years ago still at the brick plant. They are said to make good hands owing to their willingness to work. They are quiet, even tempered and save their money.
The men are strong and the work does not tell on them. These latest recruits will be put to loading brick, which is regarded as about the hardest work about the plant. Few negroes can be secured to do this and hence Mr.
McNinch's importation of help from the North.

Newspapers Doomed to Lose.

The following paragraph from an exchange is too near the truth and too good to be passed over:

"It costs a country newspaper money every time it takes a stand on any question. Almost any citizen besides a newspaper man can do so without injuring his business. If the editor advocates improvements the sore-heads go after him and some times stop their paper. If he opposes improvements the progressive sort gets on him and calls him a back number and a knocker. If he publishes politics the opposition gets into his hair, and if he does not he is charged with being afraid to stand out for his own opinion. If he condemns mail order houses, there are some people who ask him to attend to his own business, as they have a right to trade where they please. If he publishes mail order ads some of the merchants are after his gore.
No country paper can come out squarely without making enemies and losing money, and in the run of a year or more will incur some criticism from nearly everybody. The newspaper that undertakes to please everybody will please nobody; if it is honest and sincere and thoughtful, the public will respect it."

Better Not Get Dyspepsia

If you can help it. Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, by effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion.
But don't trifle with Indigestion.

A great many people who have trifled with indigestion, have been sorry for it—when nervous or chronic dyspepsia resulted, and they have not been able to cure it.
Use Kodol and prevent having Dyspepsia.

Everyone is subject to indigestion. Stomach derangement follows stomach abuse, just as naturally and just as surely as a sound and healthy stomach results upon the taking of Kodol.

When you experience sourness of stomach, belching of gas and nauseating fluid, bloated sensation, gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach, heart burn (so-called), diarrhoea, headaches, dullness or chronic tired feeling—you need Kodol. And then the quicker you take Kodol—the better. Eat what you want, let Kodol digest it.

Ordinary pepsin "dyspepsia tablets," physics, etc., are not likely to be of much benefit to you, in digestive ailments. Pepsin is only a partial digester—and physics are not digesters at all.

Kodol is a perfect digester. If you could see Kodol digesting every particle of food, of all kinds, in the glass test-tubes in our laboratories, you would know this just as well as we do.

Nature and Kodol will always cure a sick stomach—but in order to be cured, the stomach must rest.
That is what Kodol does—rests the stomach, while the stomach gets well. Just as simple as A, B, C.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, ask druggists know that our guarantee is good, and to boot one in a family. The large bottle contains 2 1/2 times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.
