CLINTON, S. C. JUNE 12, 1919

12 PAGES

Well, it was great.

Everybody was here for the Jubilee and the program was fine.

The parade was a credit to any city. The entire thanks of the community are due Mr. Ellis and his committee for so successfully having put it across.

Now all together—let's begin planning for next year's celebration.

Clinton threw her gates wide open and maintained her "rep" of doing the entertaining job right.

Congratulations to everybody that helped to make a success of the Jubilee.

We were sorry that we were unable to attend the chautauqua which has just come to a close. We understand that the attendance was very good, while the program was fair, at any rate not as good as a town the size of Clinton deserves. The Chronicle has always been a strong chautauqua advocate and we want to see Clinton with a well established, self-supporting chautauqua as is enjoyed by other similar towns. But the wise plan for us to adopt would be to put more money into the proposition and get the best, rather than take on a cheaper proposition. The town needs to get on the Redpath circuit and then we'll have the best—that which we are entitled too.

When any one deserves credit for faithful service rendered we believe in saying so and not waiting until a fellow is dead to sing forth his praises. So in the case of Mr. Geo. H. Ellis, chairman of the parade committee, we want to say that he deserves the credit and thanks of the entire community. If you want to try a hard job, just tackle the getting up of a parade and you'll find out what trouble is. For several weeks past he has untiringly worked on the proposition and we all saw the magnificent results of his efforts last Saturday. Clinton saw and enjoyed a parade that few cities could surpass. This public-spirited work on the part of Mr. Ellis and his committee is appreciated and they are due the thanks and commendation of the entire community.

THE JUBILEE DAY.

Clinton's second Jubilee Day, staged last Saturday, was a success from every standpoint and in some respects surpassed last year's undertaking. The crowd was tremendous and in good spirits and everybody seemed to enjoy the occasion.

The parade was great—even bigger and better than last year. The floats were beautiful and brought forth praises on all sides. This was the hardest part of the day's program and Mr. Ellis handled the proposition in fine style. There were a number of entries and the exhibits showed thought and careful work.

The address of Dr. Daniel was splendid and immensely enjoyed by the crowd. We were sorry that we were not able to hear him.

The ladies of the Red Cross took charge of the returned soldiers and gave them a big return welcome with the spreading of a most bountiful dinner which the boys say was about the finest they ever tackled and was greatly enjoyed.

As a whole it was a big day—one that will not soon be forgotten and that will do the town good. The largest crowd in the city's history was here and there were no accidents or mishaps to mar the occasion. Everybody was in a good humor and everybody had a good time. This is the Jubilee spirit—the kind that is supposed to characterize the celebration.

Now, let's begin planning for next year. The Commercial Club took hold of the proposition this year and successfully piloted it through. Let everybody fall in line and let's begin planning for next year in the hope of surpassing even this year's success. Let's cheerfully do what we are asked to do by the committee. Let's make next year's the biggest and best yet.

Catch the Jubilee spirit.

Work of Worthless Dog.
Allendale.—J. W. Hogg, one of Allendale county's largest and most prominent farmers, residing near Allendale, and S. M. Marley of Cohen's Bluff, Allendale county, shot each other to death at Marley's home, both dying almost immediately.

Only meager details are obtainable but report says that Hogg accompanied by a man named Lewis, went to the Marley home. Marley's dog bit Hogg and Hogg shot the dog. Marley then opened fire on Hogg with an automatic shotgun loaded with buckshot. Hogg fell mortally wounded but drew his pistol and shot Marley to death as the latter was running away. The buckshot inflicted a horrible wound in Hogg's chest.

Future Full of Promise.
Sumter.—Coming back with a broad view of international conditions gained from intimate contact with world figures at the peace conference, Richard I. Manning, former governor of South Carolina, when he arrived here from Europe where he has been since March 22, said that, in his opinion, the future of cotton was very bright. He stated that when the peace treaty is signed and the world markets again resume their normal functioning, the markets will be crying for cotton.

S. C. Conference Finishes First.
Darlington.—The Rev. A. J. Cauthen, centenary secretary of the South Carolina Conference, returned from Memphis, where the secretaries of the Southern conferences met and canvassed the result of the centenary drive. Mr. Cauthen wishes the Methodists of the State to know that the South Carolina Conference has been given the flag for going over the top first. It was reported that Louisiana was the first to report her quota raised, but it was later discovered that a mistake had been made.

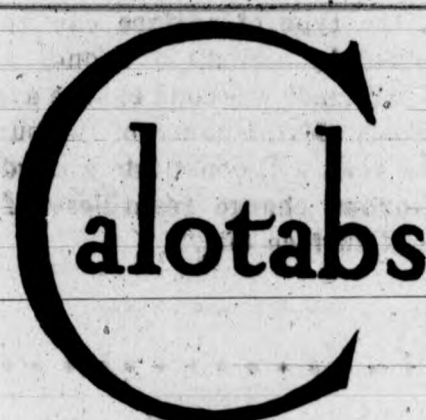

Another Big Hotel.
Rock Hill.—Citizens of this city have subscribed $33,000 for stock in the hotel company which is being organized. This sum will be doubled by a loan through the Mechanics Building and Loan Association of this city, making the total available for investment in the new hotel building approximately $66,000. Subscriptions to the stock of the company have been solicited voluntarily by members of the Rotary Club. A meeting of the stockholders and other interested citizens was held at the Chamber of Commerce.

Elect New Superintendent.
Laurens.—Herbert W. Gasque, head of the school at Walhalla, has been elected superintendent of the Laurens city schools for next session and he has accepted the position. Mr. Gasque has been at Walhalla for nine years and is regarded as a successful school man.

Death of Senator Hough.
Lancaster.—State Senator W. C. Hough died at his home here after an illness of several months. His health has been bad for the past several years though recently he has shown improvement. Several weeks ago he went to a hospital in Rock Hill and returned to his home 10 days ago. Since that time he has been critically ill. He represented Lancaster county in the general assembly for several years and was elected again last summer.

Long Service Pedagogue.
Laurens.—The resignation of W. P. Culbertson, principal of the Cross Hill High School, coupled with the announcement that he expects to take at least a year's vacation from the school room, marks the close of an uninterrupted period of service that is perhaps not equalled in length of time nor surpassed in efficiency, influence and usefulness by any other teacher in the county and few in the state. Mr. Culbertson is closing his fourth decade of school work, having taught for 40 years.
