REED MILLER, NOTED TENOR, PASSES AWAY

Anderson, Dec. 29.—Telegrams to relatives here today conveyed the unexpected news of the death this morning of Reed Miller, noted singer, at his home in New York City, death resulting from cerebral hemorrhage. No further particulars are yet available, but that his death was very sudden and unexpected is taken from the fact that relatives in Anderson received from him the usual cheery Christmas messages, so typical of him.

Born, reared and educated in Anderson County, and refusing various offers of vaudeville engagements, Reed Miller persisted and gained his ambition to rise high in the musical world when it was made possible for him to go to New York where Frank Damrosch and other prominent teachers took a live interest in his advancement, until he attained country-wide fame and popularity.

He was always loyal to old home scenes and particularly endeared himself to people of this state by his composition, "Carolina."

He is survived by his talented wife, also a singer of note, Nevada Vander Veer.

DINNER PARTY

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Chandler entertained at a lovely stag dinner. Miss Dorcas Mason assisted Mrs. Chandler in serving and those who enjoyed the beautiful spread were George, Gus and Joe Mason, Dr. T. J. Peake, Raymond Pitts, Walter Johnson and Harold Flanagan.

COPELAND-COPELAND

Renno, S. C., Dec. 28.—One of the loveliest events of the holiday season took place when Miss Alice Helen Copeland was married to Mr. John David Copeland on Thursday afternoon at half past four. The home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Copeland, was beautifully decorated for the wedding—two color schemes being carried out. The front part of the house where the reception was given was decorated with green and white—ivy being used with white roses and candles to carry out the effect.

To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin the bridal party entered. The bride was lovely in a dress of white duchess satin and lace. A coronet of orange blossoms held in place her veil of white tulle, and the bride carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lillies.

The bride's maids wore taffet dresses in rainbow colors and carried bouquets of pink carnations. Miss Lena Copeland, as maid of honor, wore a lovely dress of orange georgette and carried a loose bouquet of white carnations. Little Misses Dorothy Taylor and Martha Irene Pitts scattered rose petals from green and pink baskets. Tiny C. W. Wier, Jr. carried the wedding ring on a silver tray.

The bride's maids of the occasion were Misses Mildred Copeland, Mary Elizabeth Owens, Mattie L. Copeland, and Elyene Welsh; the groomsmen being Mr. James M. Copeland, best man, and Messrs. George E. Copeland, Hugh Ray, B. F. Copeland, Jr., and David T. Pitts. The ushers were Messrs. Pascal M. and J. Henderson Pitts, Jr.

Miss Hattie Mary Buford played the wedding march and also several other selections before the ceremony.

Miss Lee Ila Singleton sang, "Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses." During the ceremony "To a Wild Rose" was softly played, after which the bridal party marched out to Mendelsohn's wedding march.

The Rev. Lander W. Shealy, pastor of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception given to one hundred and fifty guests in the drawing room. Red and green block cream with bride's cake was served by Misses Martha Pitts, Sara Wier, Robbie and Louise Adair, who were attractively dressed in green and red. Miss Sara Pitts presided over the brides-book in which the guests registered. In the back hall delicious fruit punch was served by Mr. Hubert Owens and Miss Ethel Davidson, while in an adjoining room the many presents were set forth.

Mr. and Mrs. Copeland left for a wedding trip. The bride traveled in a dress of mid-night blue satin-back crepe, a coat of grey cut-bolivia with spring hat and all accessories to match.

The bride is a June graduate of Lander college, and has many friends throughout the state. Mr. Copeland is a popular young business man of this place. They will be at their new home in Renno after January first.
