

Officers Named For New Year

Local Eastern Star Chapter Elects Officers For Ensuing Year.

The Eastern Star chapter at its closing meeting of the year, held during the past week, elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing year:

Worthy Matron, Mrs. Bessie Leake.
Worthy Patron, Mr. Frank Boland.
Associate Matron, Mrs. H. D. Rantin.
Conductress, Miss Julia Ferguson.
Associate Conductress, Mrs. Mary Adair.

Treasurer, Mr. Geo. W. Copeland.
Secretary, Miss Roslyn Blakely.
Ada, Mrs. Ella Denson.
Ruth, Miss Inez Owens.
Esther, Mrs. Mary Leaman.
Martha, Miss Inez Blakely.
Electa, Miss Minnie Moore.
Chaplain, Miss Maud Pearson.
Marshal, Mrs. Ella Boland.
Organist, Mrs. S. B. Hayes.
Warder, Mrs. Mame Johnson.
Sentinel, Mr. Lee Stone.

Popular Saleslady Resigns Position

Miss Ella M. Adair, for the past twelve years connected with B. L. King as saleslady, has resigned her position effective January first, much to the regret of her firm and hundreds of friends and customers.

As a saleslady, Miss Adair is well known, and quite popular with the public, always courteous and affable in her manner and anxious to please her customers. Not only as a saleslady, but as a collector, she holds an enviable reputation and knows how to go out on the highways and do what many other collectors fail to do—get the money. She is a valuable addition to the well known firm with which she is connected, and her friends regret that she is no longer to fill her familiar place behind the counters.

Miss Adair expects to go to Tampa, Fla., in January, where she will spend quite a while.

Lesson for December 28

THE REVIEW—THE CENTRAL PERIOD OF CHRIST'S MINISTRY

GOLDEN TEXT—"He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father."—John 14:9.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Things That Jesus Said and Did.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Shows His Wisdom and Power.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Lesson of Jesus' Central Year.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Central Period of Christ's Ministry.

The best way to conduct the review for adults is to present the heart of each lesson. This can be done by making assignments to the members of the class a week ahead, or by asking all members of the class to prepare on each lesson and the teacher to skillfully draw the central teaching of the lesson from the class. The following suggestions are offered:

Lesson I. Having proclaimed the laws of the Kingdom and wrought miracles to demonstrate His power to administer the affairs of the Kingdom, Christ sent forth the twelve to propagate the Kingdom. He had not only power over the chief foes of mankind, sin, sickness, demons, storms, etc., but could give that power to his disciples.

Lesson II. This is the model prayer for the disciples. True prayer is the communion of the human personality with the divine personality. The supreme need is a right relationship on the part of the human. He must be able to say "Our Father." Without becoming a child of God through faith in Jesus Christ, no one can pray acceptably.

Lesson III. The parable of the sower teaches that the measure of fruitfulness from the sowing of the Word of God is determined by the condition of the human heart.

Lesson IV. Although Jesus was a real man and therefore needed rest after His strenuous day of teaching, He was also divine as shown by His power to still the stormy sea by merely speaking a word.

Lesson V. The parable of the Prodigal Son reveals the love of a pardoning God for a sinning race. The central interest is not in the return of a prodigal, but in the loving heart of our Father God.

Lesson VI. In this lesson we see Jesus feeding a multitude with very scanty provisions. It shows that He possesses creative power and therefore is God. While the creation of the food was the Lord's part yet the disciples had to distribute the food created; and on the part of the people it was necessary that they should obey the Lord and eat.

Lesson VII. The central teaching of Peter's confession of Christ is that Jesus is the Christ the Son of the living God.

Lesson VIII. In the transfiguration is portrayed the method of the messianic Kingdom as well as the message of the King to his discouraged disciples. He showed the discouraged and despondent disciples that beyond the cross which they so keenly resented would come into realization the Kingdom which they hoped for.

Lesson IX. The parable of the Good Samaritan teaches that my neighbor is the one who needs my help; and that being a neighbor means to be on the lookout for those in need and to render assistance to the limit of my ability.

Lesson X. The opening of the eyes of the man born blind is an acted parable illustrating in the physical sphere the working of divine grace in the spiritual sphere, as experienced in the salvation of a soul.

Lesson XI. The raising of Lazarus from the dead not only assures us that there will be a resurrection of the dead but that Jesus Christ is the resurrection and the life.

Lesson XII. God became incarnate in order to reveal Himself to the world. God can only be known as the Son reveals Him.

Religious Experience

Not every man who knows something about color is an artist, but a man can hardly be an artist without knowing something about color. Religious experience does not make one competent to deal with all the problems of life, but one cannot deal with them effectually without religious experience. That is why so many professed experts fall.—The Congregationalist.

Glad and Hearty Amen to All

When the heart soil is right, cultivated by the operation of the Holy Spirit, there is no questioning of God's dealings, neither direct, nor through His hands (His leaders), but a glad and hearty amen to all.—Echoes.

Sense of Duty

A sense of duty may not be the highest motive, but the best men are moved by it.—Herald and Presbyter.

Our Confession

We do not receive blessing because of our confession, but we are not blessed without it.—F. E. Marsh.

Ruled

The world is ruled by reason; the Christian is ruled by the wisdom of God.—The Living World.
