FARM DEMONSTRATION NEWS

C. L. Vaughan, County Agent

Just a few words in regards to the cotton crop of 1925. The 1924 crop was planned when cotton was 30 cents a pound, but the 1925 crop will have to be planned on 22 cents cotton. If any profit is to be expected it will have to be made cheaper this year than last. You will ask how it can be done. Fertilizer will be higher, labor about the same, feed higher, interest on money cheaper. Seems from the above that it will be very hard to make it cheaper. A few things will help considerably when done. First, using good, pure seed. Mr. B. R. T. Todd of Barksdale, said that he made 100 pounds more lint per acre this year from seed ordered last winter from the breeder, than he did from his old seed with conditions the same in other respects.

North Carolina experiments for 1924 show that they made as high as 125 pounds seed cotton more per acre where their seed were properly separated. It only cost about 15 cents per bushel to do this. Have germination test run so you will know how many to plant to get a stand. About one-tenth of the crop is lost on account of the stand. Mix your own fertilizer and save $10 per ton. Figure to cut out part of the overhead expense for the present time, etc. All these things will help. Seems that the South will lose her supremacy in cotton production on account of the foreign countries, for they can grow it so much cheaper than we can.

Boys and Girls Club Work
All farm boys and girls should be enrolled in club work for the year of 1925. We had 164 club members in Laurens county last year. Up to date we have 108 enrolled for this year. There are many advantages to club work that I cannot explain in this short article but will give you some of the things that the club boys and girls did in 1924.

The boys can join the following clubs: Corn, Cotton, Peanut, Irish Potatoes, Poultry, Dairy, Calf and Pig club. The only club that we have for the girls is Poultry club, due to not having a home demonstration agent in the county. I have made arrangements for any boy or girl who joins the Poultry club to get pure bred eggs or baby chicks by signing a note with their father's or guardian's name on it. They can either get Rhode Island Reds or White Leghorns under the above condition. This note is without interest until the fall of the year. The club member can use any pure breed of chickens that they wish to for their demonstration.

The following things were done by the club boys and girls of 1924: There was a three day encampment held at Clemson College last summer and we had 62 club members to attend this encampment. Many of the boys reported that they had the biggest time they have ever had in their lives. Many more boys would have gone if it had not been for the weather conditions at the time the encampment was held. 29 club members had exhibits at the County Poultry and Club Show. An average of the net profits of all the record books sent in for each club member was $30 each. Some made more than $30, while others made less. We had two boys to get on the District Livestock Judging Team out of a possible three. One of these boys was selected for the state team and went to the State Fair for one week with all expenses paid. Each club member receives a copy of the club boys paper once a month free of charge. Four one-week free scholarships are given to four boys doing the best club work and five are given to the girls. If enough girls join the club during the year of 1925, we are planning an encampment for the girls and there will be a three day encampment at some point for the boys.

If you want your boy or girl to join this club I wish you would send me their name, address, age and the kind of club they wish to join and name of school. I would be glad to enroll them.

Lesson for January 25

JESUS COMFORTS HIS DISCIPLES

LESSON TEXT—John 14:1-31.
GOLDEN TEXT—"I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."—John 14:6.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Heavenly Home.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Walking in Christ's Way.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Jesus Comforts His Disciples.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Sources of the Christian's Comfort.

The hopes of the disciples were utterly shattered when Jesus told them about the cross. Jesus had told them that He was going away, and that they could not follow Him. Their hearts were flooded with grief. He consoled them by

1. Pointing to the Reunion in the Father's House (vv. 1-3).

1. He Asks Them to Trust in Him Even as God (v. 1). Faith in the God-man, Christ Jesus, will steady the heart, no matter how intense the grief or how great the sorrow.

2. He Informed Them That He Was Going to the Father's House in Heaven to Prepare a Home for Them (v. 2). He assured them that there was abundant room for all. Heaven is an eternal dwelling place.

3. He Assured Them That He Would Come Again and Escort Them to Heaven (v. 3). Jesus will not wait for His own to come to Him, but will come and call forth from the graves those who have died, and transform living believers, and take them all to be with Himself in the heavenly home forevermore (I Thess. 4:16-17).

II. Revealing the Way to the Father's House (vv. 4-11).

Jesus informed the disciples that they knew the place to which He was going and the way. To this Thomas interposed a doubt, in answer to which Christ asserts that He is

1. The Way to God (v. 6). He is something more than a mere guide or teacher. He is the way itself. He is the door of the sheep-fold.

2. The Truth (v. 6). He is not merely the teacher, but the truth incarnate. In His incarnation the spiritual and material worlds were united, therefore every line of truth whether spiritual or material converges in Him. No one who does not have Christ can ever have the real truth about anything. In Him we have the truth about man, what he is, what he ought to be, and what he shall be in eternity. In Him especially we have the truth about God.

3. The Life (v. 6). Christ is not merely the giver of life, but He is the essence of life. Only those who receive Christ have life in the true sense. Since He is God incarnate, to know Him is to know God.

III. Assuring Them That His Work Was to Continue (vv. 12-14).

Jesus' going away was not to end the work which He had begun. This no doubt meant that through the ministry of the Spirit-filled disciples, the work which Christ began would assume larger proportions. There would be a much greater number of conversions than under His ministry. After the Day of Pentecost the gospel did take a much wider range. During His ministry the message was confined to the Jews, while under the ministry of the disciples it was only limited by the world itself. The disciples' ministry was ushered in by the conversion of three thousand in one day.

IV. Promises Another Comforter (vv. 15-17).

The word comforter means literally one called to the side of another to give help, protection and deliverance. This comforter was the Holy Spirit. Jesus was the Comforter while here in the body. The Holy Spirit was to be "another comforter."

V. Assuring Them of His Return to Them (vv. 18-24).

Although Christ went away He did not leave His disciples as orphans. The Father and the Son make their abode with the disciples who love and obey Jesus Christ.

VI. Assuring Them That the Holy Spirit Would Aid Them in Remembering and Understanding His Words (vv. 25-29).

This the Holy Spirit does by illuminating the minds of the disciples.

VII. Giving the Legacy of His Peace (vv. 22-31).

By His peace is meant the serenity of soul which one enjoys who is reconciled to God, who knows that his sins are forgiven.

Doing Better

It is not a question of how much we are to do, but of how it is to be done. It is not a question of doing more, but of doing better.—John Ruskin.

Duty

Do the duty that lies nearest thee; which thou knowest to be a duty! The second duty will already become clearer.—Carlyle.

Tomorrow

Where is tomorrow? In another world. To understand this is certain. The answer is sure to come.

Sorrow and Joy

Weekly joy ends in sorrow; gaily sorrow ends in joy.

Easy Way to Break Severest Cough

No matter how long you have had a persistent, weakening cough—no matter how many remedies you have tried without success—you can usually get relief instantly, and often relieve the entire cough condition in 24 hours, by a very simple method. The method is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take one teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The prompt relief seems almost magical, and the quickness with which the whole cough condition disappears is often simply amazing. There is nothing better for coughs, chest colds, bronchitis, bronchial asthma, hoarseness and almost every throat irritation. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. GULBRANSEN The Registering Piano

THE GULBRANSEN IS A GILT-EDGED INVESTMENT IN MUSIC

No month in the year more logical than this to invest in a Gulbransen Registering Piano!

Good piano music for all—and, for all, the personal pleasure of playing. The Gulbransen is a possession in which every member of the family shares, equally, individually. To each it brings the gift of music without the tedious fingering of the keyboard, but with every opportunity for self-expression. With a Gulbransen in the house no longer are there any mere "listeners." Because anyone can play it with real musical feeling and expression, the entire household need not depend for its musical enjoyment upon perhaps the one person present who can play by hand.
