"O little town of Bethlehem!
How still we see thee lie;
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight.

"For Christ is born of Mary,
And gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.
O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth!
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to both on earth.

"How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him still
The dear Christ enters in.

"O little child of Bethlehem!
Descend to us, we pray;
Cast our sin and enter in,
Be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel! Amen."
—Phillips Brooks.

Miss Connie Bailey entertained with a lovely party Saturday afternoon at her home to celebrate the fourth birthday of her little niece, Toccoa Wise, of Jacksonville, Fla.
Holly and other Christmas greens decorated the rooms for the occasion. Merry games and contests were enjoyed, and Miss Florence Bailey delighted the small guests with a Christmas story.
Later delicious refreshments were served in the dining room. There the Christmas motif was carried out in the appointments of the lovely table. A small tree formed the centerpiece. Candles were burning in holders; and a beautifully iced cake glowed with four small tapers. Ice cream and cake were served. Favors were small stockings filled with candy and nuts.
Those enjoying the party were: Jean McSweeney, Mary Kent Wysor, Ahne Owens, Cornelia Harris, Grace Young, Joy Godfrey, Myra Adair, Ferdinand Jacobs, Jr., Ayliffe Jacobs, Toccoa Wise, Louise McMillan, Thornwell Dunlap, Katherine Eichelberger and Betty Ann Shealy.

An interesting program on Caroline Miller's Pulitzer prize novel, "Lamb in His Bosom," was given by Mrs. C. B. Betts, president of the club. She presented a splendid review of the book, read sketches from it, and concluded the program by relating incidents of the author's life.
In rooms lovely with Christmas decorations the hostess served tempting refreshments.

Last week Mrs. S. C. Hays entertained the members of the Thursday Bridge club with a delightful party.

CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR CHURCH CIRCLE

On last Thursday afternoon the Woman's Missionary society of the First Baptist church gave a delightful party honoring the Lottie Moon circle.
The four circles had competed for the highest average attendance during the year and the Lottie Moon circle, with Mrs. B. H. Suddeth as leader, won this distinction.
The auditorium of the Sunday school building was decorated in white with a beautifully laden tree.
A program arranged by Mrs. John T. Little for the entertainment of the guests was rendered. A solo, "What's the Use of Growing Old," was sung by Mrs. W. A. Moorhead. A number of ladies greeted the guests with original verses in rhyme. A motion song, "Annie and Nette and Me, We Wanted a Christmas Tree," was sung by Mrs. T. L. W. Bailey, Mrs. George H. Ellis and Mrs. Moorhead. A toast to the W. M. S. was given by Mrs. Little.
Each guest received a gift from the tree, after which delicious refreshments were served.

YOUNG PEOPLE ENJOY PARTY AT CHURCH

The members of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor of the First Presbyterian church gave a party on Friday evening at the church.
After assembling there the young people went out on the streets singing favorite Christmas carols. Later they returned to the church and a number of games were enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were also served. Mrs. M. J. McFadden chaperoned the group.
Decorations of holly and cedar suggested the approaching Christmas season. On a beautifully lighted tree each guest placed a gift to be sent to poor children to add to their joy at the holiday season.

KIWANIS "LADIES NIGHT" A VERY GALA AFFAIR

In a lovely Christmas setting, the annual "ladies night" celebration of the Clinton Kiwanis club, an event at which the "Kiweens" are always guests of honor, took place last Thursday night at Hotel Clinton in the form of a feast and social entertainment which in many respects eclipsed all ladies' night performances of the past. Covers were laid for sixty-five, including members of the club, their wives and other special guests.
The dining room was transformed into a mass of color and beauty suggestive of the Yuletide season. The tables were lovely in Christmas decorations with streamers and tapers heightening the beautiful effect.
With the retiring president, John H. Hunter, as master of ceremonies, a very delightful and unique program was carried out. After singing of "America," and grace, the evening's program was entered into, with Chas. A. Smith presiding at the piano.
The amusement for the occasion was clever and well dispatched, creating almost continuous mirth and fun. Place cards bearing the Kiwanis emblem, were at each place, together with a printed program. Noise making favors were also at every place. As favors, the ladies were presented prizes during the evening as their names were drawn. Miss Ellen Copeland, the club's beloved pianist, was presented a special gift in behalf of the membership.
Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brice of the Lions club, and Mr. and Mrs. Irby S. Hipp of the Rotary club.
The honor guest and speaker of the evening was Dr. W. H. Fraser, president of Queens-Chicora college, of Charlotte, and his address was most highly appreciated by all present. His stories in Negro dialect were masterpieces, and kept the audience roaring with laughter. Turning to the serious side, Dr. Fraser spoke of the great objectives and opportunities of service clubs and said that they should use their influence in building manhood. America needs a manhood, he said, that can stand fast, and there must be leaders of sincerity and character, men of reputation who will give unstintingly of their time to the welfare and readjustment of the social (Continued on page two)

PRESBYTERIAN CHILDREN HAVE CHRISTMAS PARTY

A lovely Christmas party at the First Presbyterian church on Friday afternoon assembled the children of the Beginner's Primary and Junior departments. The happy little folks entered into the spirit of the occasion and the afternoon of fun and merriment will long be remembered.
A beautifully decorated Christmas tree formed the center of the tasteful decorations. Each child placed on it an attractively wrapped gift to bring joy to some under-privileged child during the Christmas season.
Games were played during the afternoon, and Mrs. John W. Little delighted the group with an appropriate story. P. p. corn, nuts and candies were served. Among those assisting at the entertainment were: Mrs. R. E. Wysor, Mrs. S. M. Huntley, Mrs. R. C. Adair Mrs. Henry Meadows Young, Mrs. A. M. Copeland and Mrs. Gary Martin.
