

GOES TO SPARTANBURG

Miss Gladys Stilwell, for the past seven years a highly regarded member of the Clinton high school faculty in the department of higher mathematics, has accepted a similar position for the coming winter with the Spartanburg city high school. Two weeks ago she was elected a member of the Greer high school staff as announced in last week's paper. Since then she has been released at Greer upon her request in order to accept work in the Spartanburg school which is one of the largest in the state.

Casino Theatre

MONDAY AND TUESDAY, August 19 and 20 "G-MEN"

With James Cagney, Ann Dvorak, Margaret Lindsay and Robert Armstrong. Uncle Sam's fighting agents crash the screen in a blaze of gunfire and glory! The whole amazing story of how the federal men put a stranglehold on the underworld—revealed for the first time in a mighty motion picture!

A quarrel solves no misunderstanding. Anger exaggerates beyond intention. Hasty words wound incalculably.

No detail that will make a sincere, comprehensive tribute is omitted from the arrangements of a ceremony, however moderately priced.
