Much Interest Shown In D. A. R. Beauty Pageant Next Tuesday Night

Interest and enthusiasm is daily growing in the "Charm Review" to be staged next Tuesday evening, Oct. 6, in the Florida Street school auditorium at 8:00 o'clock, under the auspices of the Clinton chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. Merchants, civic and social organizations have shown a spirit of interest and cooperation toward the sponsoring chapter, with indications pointing to a packed house and an outstanding success for the undertaking.

Quite a large number of charming girls and young women will take part in the grand march before the introduction of the participants in the charm review. Already forty-six merchants and firms have cooperated with the chapter by entering sponsors in the pageant. Additional firms will be secured today to be added to the list and announced when the curtain rises for the big event next Tuesday evening.

The winner will be selected by competent out-of-town judges on a basis of dignity, poise, personality, beauty and physique. As "Miss Clinton," she will enter the state contest in Charleston, now on furlough. It was decided that the next meeting of the group would be held with the Whitmire church.

MRS. PEAKE HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. T. J. Peake delightfully entertained the members of her bridge club on Tuesday afternoon.

The living room was beautifully decorated with dahlias and cosmos, making a lovely setting for three tables of bridge.

After several rounds a tempting salad course was served. The guests who enjoyed the delightful occasion were: Mrs. Walter Johnson, Mrs. Pringle Copeland, Mrs. Jodie Chandler, Mrs. William Jacobs, Mrs. John W. Little, Mrs. Reese Young, Mrs. T. D. Jacobs, Mrs. R. C. Adair, Mrs. Hamp Boyd, Mrs. Raymond Pitts, Mrs. C. E. Galloway, and Mrs. John W. Finney.

Mrs. Peake was assisted in entertaining and serving by her sister, Mrs. Lee Snow of Columbus, Ga.

WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS FIRST FALL MEETING

The library department of the Woman's club was hostess at an interesting meeting held Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Clara Duckett, chairman of the library committee, who had charge of the program.

Mrs. Marshall Brown delighted the audience with a vocal solo. Prof. Brown gave a splendid talk on libraries and the part they have played in the progress of civilization.

Two violin solos were rendered by Mrs. Sheppard of Laurens, with Miss Kathleen Sanders also of Laurens, accompanist.

The occasion was also a book show, many books being contributed, and gifts made for the purchase of additional books. Miss Duckett had offered a book as a prize to the department having the largest percentage of members present for the meeting. The prize was won by the school committee.

Mrs. J. F. Jacobs, Sr., presided over the business meeting at which time reports were heard covering the organization's activities.

The library committee reported that plots had been beautified in the city, a plant exchange conducted and other beautification work accomplished. The committee also announced that it would sponsor a pansy plant sale in October.

The library committee gave a report of its work stating that the library had been moved to the first floor of the high school building, the work of cataloguing all books begun, and that a full time accredited librarian is now in charge of the library. The report further stated that during the summer the church furnished materials for young girls who have been studying crochet work under the direction of Mrs. Jessie Sparks. The report stated that 23 new books of fiction had been purchased and gave a financial statement for the year.

The president announced that officers for the coming year would be elected at the November meeting and a committee was named to secure a permanent place of meeting. A social hour followed during which cream and cookies were served.

CLINTON MILLS CLUB TO PRESENT SHOW

Carlise Brothers will present a unique entertainment Friday night at eight o'clock in the Academy Street school auditorium under the auspices of the Clinton Mills Girls' club. The program will consist of novelty and musical selections by a group of well-known and popular radio performers.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Ellis of Pelzer, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Chaney of Goldville, are making their home in the Baldwin house on Adair street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Holland and little son, spent last Thursday in Lanford.
