U. D. C. CHAPTER MEETS WITH MRS. BAILEY

Stephen D. Lee chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, held its April meeting at the home of Mrs. C. M. Bailey on Friday afternoon, with Misses Sallie Wright and Mary Johnson and Mrs. Zee McLees as assistant hostesses.

The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Ralph Copeland, and reports were heard from all committees.

The chapter voted to share the expenses of a visit to Fort Hill by the sixth grade history class.

The program was in charge of Miss Ruby Norris. John C. Calhoun's plantation life and work was the topic for study. Miss Eloise Miller gave a sketch of his life and works. Miss Agnes Davis told the story of the restoration of the Calhoun mansion.

Two winners in the dramatic contests, Jean Copeland of Renfro, and Ann Owens of Clinton, gave the readings that won them distinction in the contests.

Mrs. Leila Johnson rendered two vocal solos, with Mrs. Ferdinand Jacobs at the piano.

Refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and tea were served during the social hour.

CIVIC COMMITTEE GIVES CLUB'S PROGRAM

The Civic committee was hostess to the Woman's club Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John W. Little. Mrs. R. S. Owens presided and the meeting opened with two piano solos rendered by Misses Frances Simpson and Louise Jacobs.

Mrs. Owens reported the business meeting held in March, at which time prospects for a recreational park in Clinton were discussed and plans laid for the beginning of such a project and a committee appointed to investigate the matter. Rev. W. N. Long, chairman of the committee, was present and reported steps taken in this direction, displaying a poster showing the site and plan of a park in front of the new armory.

Mrs. J. H. Summer, of Newberry, was guest speaker and gave valuable information about civic improvement.

Misses Jane Little and Marjory Miller delighted the members with a duet.

The following officers were elected to fill vacancies on the executive board:

First vice-president, Mrs. John W. Little.

Civic chairman, Mrs. C. M. Bailey. Library chairman, Mrs. W. P. Jacobs.

A contribution of $5 was donated by the club for the purchase of new nets for the tennis courts.

A silver offering was given to assist in equipping the kitchen at the armory.

A delightful social hour was spent during which time the hostesses served sandwiches, cookies and tea.

HARRIS-DAVIS WEDDING AT SANDERSVILLE, GA.

The following from the Sandersville (Ga.) Progress, will be of interest here to the friends of the bride and groom:

The marriage of Miss Wiley Harris to Lawrence Fuller Davis of Clinton, S. C., took place at noon, Wednesday, April 6, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Walter Harris, near Sandersville, Dr. L. S. Williams, pastor of the Barnesville Baptist church, read the ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Elizabeth Harris, of Cheraw, S. C., sister of the bride, played "My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice" by Saint Saens, and Marion Jordan, of Tennille, sang Carrie Jacobs Bond's "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Harris at the piano. The bridal party entered to the Wedding March from "Lohengrin," by Wagner, and during the ceremony MacDowell's "To a Wild Rose" was played softly. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played after the ceremony.

First to enter was little Miss Anne DeBeaupraine of Warrenton, niece of the bride, who lighted the candles. She wore a dress of aquamarine printed crepe, and a corsage of sweetheart roses.

Maid of honor was Miss Ellen Harris, the bride's sister. She wore a dress of pink colored sheer crepe, with a sash of purple moire, with accessories of white and a corsage of sweetheart roses and valley lillies.

Mr. Davis entered with his brother, Watts Davis, of Clinton, who served as best man. They were met at the altar by the bride and her mother, who gave her in marriage. Mrs. Harris wore a redingote costume, a black net coat embroidered in white over a black dress, a black baku hat and a corsage of roses.

The bride's beauty was enhanced by her dress of aquamarine crepe. The draped bodice had a simple deep V neck, held with a clip of brilliants. Her hat was of navy straw, faced underneath with white straw in the front, and trimmed with white gardenias. Other accessories were navy, and her flowers were a corsage of orchids and valley lillies.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mrs. Harris entertained at a wedding breakfast in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Davis. Guests were members of the wedding party and out-of-town relatives and guests.

After the breakfast, Mr. Davis and his bride left on their wedding trip and upon their return, will make their home in Clinton.

Tuesday night Mrs. Harris was at an informal reception honoring her daughter and Mr. Davis.
