THE CHRONICLE Strives To Be a Clean Newspaper, Complete, Newsy, and Reliable.

The Clinton Chronicle

VOLUME XXXVIII

CLINTON, S. C., THURSDAY, JULY 21, 1938

ENTRIES CLOSE COUNTY RACES

Large Number of Candidates Qualify With Several Last August 15 At Centerpoint.

for other offices had filed their pledges and paid their assessments when the entries closed officially at noon yesterday.

The official list follows: House of Representatives

Robert C. Wasson, Charlie L. Mi-lam, Phil D. Huff, L. A. Austell, W. C. F. Brooks, Joe T. Terry. County Commissioner

Lander B. Stoddard, John H. Wharton, C. Bryan Holland, J. Ben Hunter. Clerk of Court John D. Davis, C. A. Power, Victor

R. Fleming.

Game Warden A. B. Jacks, Syned A. Lee, N. Dunk Powers, John D. W. Watts. Probate Judge J. Hewlette Wasson, Ross D. Young. Supervisor A. Rhett Martin, J. Warren Crane, Joe R. Adair, Wm. J. (Bill). Henry. Auditor S. R. Dorroh, Milton A. Wilson. Superintendent of Education J. Leroy Burns (unopposed).

Treasurer D. Roy Simpson (unopposed). Magistrate Hunter Township

At Mountville J. L. Dickert (unopposed). At Clinton

Daring Flier Highway Map Violates Air Regulations Field Parties To Check Any Errors Made In County Road Washington, July 18 .- A man nam-Inventory Last Year. d Mulligan was torn between pride Minute Entries. Nine In Race and duty today on learning that a Field parties have been sent out For House. Campaign Opens broth of a lad named Corrigan had from the Highway Planning Survey flown the Atlantic to Dublin in an old office in Columbia to check informa-'crate."

thority.

emulate him.

representatives and a large number gan, chief of the air commerce bu- the complete set of South Carolina owner, 31-year-old Douglas Corrigan, Barnwell; Ellison D. Smith, incumreau, on hearing the news, was joy county maps. One of these parties and he gave vent to it with a hearty will be located in Laurens county. This party will correct any errors exclamation "It's a great day for the which might have been made in the Irish!"

But Mulligan was a bit flabber- data gathered by the road inventory gasted when, as head of a government party last year and will secure inforbureau, he remembered that Corrigan mation which was unobtainable at machine saw a grinning pilot climb terlin, Spartanburg; Wyndham M. ritory Manchukuo declares they inhad no permit to fly the Atlantic, no that time. All of this care is taken to insure passport, no visa-that, in fact, the

T. Bolt, W. R. Richey, Jr., S. J. Hunt, whole flight was a jaunty nose- the accuracy of each county map. The thumbing gesture toward federal au- map of Laurens county, which is as yet unfinished, will be changed in ac- utes." It was apparent that Mulligan's im- cordance with the findings of the field pulse was to forgive and forget, but party. Since the Highway Planning Surhe couldn't quite bring himself to say vey is jointly supervised by the Fedso. He said something about "considering the case." The maximum penalty for flying the ocean without a per- ington and the State Highway depart- no permit for a trans-Atlantic crossment in Columbia, it will be necessary ing.

mit is a $500 fine and loss of pilot's license, but it was indicated that Cor- for both of these offices to approve rigan's punishment, if any, would be maps of all counties before any of flier asked the gathering Irish crowd. James H. Hope, incumbent, Columbia. sia, hence there was no invasion.) them can be distributed.

nothing like so severe as that. Officials of the air commerce bureau expressed fervent hope that Corrigan, having accomplished his feat and other natural features, all boun- cheerful young pilot, dressed in leathsafely, would not try to fly back, and daries, and all roads, railroads, bridg- er jacket and trousers. they warned other fliers of trying to es, etc. On the map will be placed all cultural features of the county such began.

as private dwellings, schools, church-Whether or not he flies back, Corrigan will have to return his plane to es, etc.

this country quickly, or be liable to national munitions control board of used by bus and truck lines; another The weather was good." the state department before any air- outlining school bus routes; and anplane, military or civil, can be ex- other tracing out mail routes. ported. Exportation of any airplane, may Scouts District Organized Here

To Be Completed Ocean 'By Mistake' Left New York for "California" Hop In Antiquated Craft and Landed In Ireland.

Young Flier Hops

July 18 .- An antiquated, single-mo- cratic primary August 30:

had pushed it across the Atlantic in a bent, Lynchburg.

New York. It taxied across the field and ville; D. T. Blackmon, Jr., Columbia; her Manchukuo protectorate to dewheezed to a stop. Flabbergasted Cole L. Blease, Columbia; John Irish airport officials rushing to the Hughes Cooper, Columbia; F. M. Eas- forces that they withdraw from ter-

out. "I'm Douglas Corrigan," he said. bank, Charleston. "I just got in from New York.

The plane came down from a rain Cheraw. streaked sky at 2:30 p.m., 28 hours and 13 minutes after Corrigan had Roy Jones, incumbent, Columbia. taken off from Floyd Bennet airport eral Bureau of Public Roads in Wash- on a flight "to California"-and with tie, incumbent, Columbia.

"By the way, where am 1?" the

The gaping Irish looked at Corriup, which will include all lakes, rivers, gasoline tanks, then back at the who was in the race, died Tuesday. Broad smiles broke, and brogues

er. "Have a nice crossing?"

bia.

Here Is List TOKYO SENDS Of Candidates In State Primary

Columbia, July 16. - The complete list of candidates seeking state and Baldonnel Airport, Dublin, Ireland, congressional offices in the Demo-tored American airplane fluttered For United States senate: Olin D. The first reaction of Denis Mulli- tion which is being used to prepare down here this afternoon after its Johnston, Columbia; Edgar A. Brown, surprise, unsanctioned flight from For governor: Ben E. Adams, Columbia; Neville Bennett, Bennetts-

Manning, Sumter; Burnet R. May- vaded July 11.

For commissioner of agriculture: J. Ugaki, foreign minister. For comptroller general: A. J. Beatiel, incumbent, Columbia.

For state treasurer: E. P. Miller, Dozier, incumbent, Columbia. well, incumbent, Columbia.

"Corrigan, eh?" asked one Dublin- For congress, first district: A. Rus- tion."

sell McGowan, Charleston; Thomas S. In Tokyo handbills demanding war Several other maps will be made "Not bad," was Corrigan's reply. McMillan, incumbent, Charleston, prosecution under the national mu- from this base map-one showing the "There wasn't much to it. I flew over For congress, second district: demonstrated before the Soviet emnitions control act. This act requires types of roads and transportation fa- the clouds all the time and never saw Hampton P. Fulmer, incumbent, Or- bassy, yelling: "Get out of Manchukuo that a permit be obtained from the cilities; another designating highways the ocean until I reached the coast. angeburg; Andrew J. Bethea, Colum- or we will throw you out."

Domei and Japanese newspapers

PROTEST NOTE Tension Mounting Over Incident At Manchukuo Border. Fight Expected Unless Russia Recalls Troops.

If You Don't Read

THE CHRONICLE

You Don't Get

The News.

NUMBER 29

Tokyo, July 19 .- Japan sent a new protest to Soviet Russia today in mounting tension over a Manchukuo border incident.

At the same time, Japan permitted mand directly of Russian border

The new Japanese protest-second For lieutenant governor: R. E. Han- since the incident occurred-was de-"It took me 28 hours and 13 min- na, Cheraw; J. E. Harley, Barnwell, cided upon a a meeting of Lieutenantincumbent; L. Caston Wannamaker, General Seishiro Itagaki, Japanese war minister, and General Kazushige

The foreign office directed Mamoru Shigemitsu, ambassador to Moscow. to carry the protest direct to Maxim For attorney general: John M. Dan- Litvinoff, Soviet foreign commisar. (Russia has contended the troops For superintendent of education: were on territory belonging to Rus-Domei (Japanese News agency) re-A complete base map will be drawn gan, at his plane and its nearly empty incumbent, Columbia. T. B. Spratt, ported in a dispatch from Hsinking that Manchukuo had told the Russian For adjutant general: James C. commander of the troops in question that if they were not withdrawn im-For secretary of state: W. P. Black- mediately Manchukuo would "take necessary steps with firm determinawere distributed and 25 Japanese

H. McCrary (unopposed). The list of magistrate candidates for the other townships is not given.

Campaign Opens August 15

The political aspirants for the various county offices will start beating or train, or by flying it. verbal drums at the intial campaign follows:

Monday, August 15, morning, Centerpoint; night, Clinton Mills. Tuesday, Aug. 16, morning, Clinton; night, Goldville.

Wednesday, Aug. 17, morning, Cross Hill; night, Lydia Mills. Thursday, Aug. 18, morning, Hickory Tavern; night, Watts Mills.

Friday, Aug. 19, morning, Poplar Springs; night, none. Wednesday, Aug. 24, morning, Gray

Court; night, Woodville.

Thursday, Aug. 25, morning Youngs; night, Laurens Mills. Friday, August 26, morning, Laurens court house, closing meeting.

Federal Deficit

ran up a $291,743,369 deficit in the first fortnight of the new fiscal year.

The shortage was $105,000,000 larger than in the similar period a year ago, and was the first contribution toward the $4,000,000,000 deficit President Roosevelt had predicted this year as a result of the emergency received, he said. spending program.

Powers Announces For Game Warden

Mills.

LAURENS HOST TO UPPER CONFERENCE

Greenville, July 19. - The annual conference of the upper South Carolina conference of the Methodist pital, where he has been a patient for church will be held October 27-31 at two weeks. the First Methodist church of Lauis pastor.

Bishop Clare Purcell of Charlotte, N. C., will head a list of prominent speakers. He will preach Sunday morning, October 30.

be made either by sending it by boat, A recent case in point is the prose-meeting at Centerpoint on Monday, cution of an American aviator before August 15. The speaking campaign the federal court at Houston, Texas, on the charge of having flown an airplane to the Mexican rebel General Cedillo.

The state department is taking no while abroad.

given the air commerce bureau's in- complete organization of the Blue a trans-Atlantic hop and did not im- incumbent, Columbia. strument flying and flight instructor Ridge Boy Scout council area. ratings. He obtained his first license Formation of an organization here Veteran fliers said Corrigan's feat Finley, incumbent, York. in 1928 and his transport license in completes the formal organization of was accomplished against odds of For solicitor, nineth circuit: R. McC. The newspaper Asahi said: "Soviet 1929. Bureau records show that as of districts in all parts of the eight 100-to-1. It amazed Baldonnel airport Figg, Jr., incumbent, Charleston. June this year he had 1,200 hours in counties of the Blue Ridge council officials. He apparently had aimed For solicitor, twelfth circuit: G. chukuo for a fight seems inevitable." the air to his credit.

Shows Increase More Farm Checks Washington, July 18.-Tre treasury Received By Cannon

County Agent C. B. Cannon reports D. C. Heustess, camping; R. L. Plaxi- don. that to date 3,173 soil improvement co, finance; D. O. Rhame, Jr., health amounting to $214,045.03. Approxi- ing. mately 300 more checks are yet to be

Kiwanians Enjoy

N. Dunk Powers of this city, an- wives and guests, enjoyed a family Give Scouting Privileges to Every nounces his candidacy today for picnic at John T. Young's spring near Boy in the Community." game warden in the approaching pri- here last Thursday evening. The long O. B. Gorman of Greenville, counmary. Mr. Powers is a native of Lau- tables in the club house were loaded cil executive, spoke on "History and rens, where he had several years ex- down with good things to eat, added Organization of the Boy Scout Moveperience on the city police force. He to with plenty of lemonade and iced ment." is now employed at the Clinton Cotton tea. After the serving of lunch the group enjoyed a social hour.

MITCHELL IN HOSPITAL Friends of George P. Mitchell, proprietor of the Clinton Cafe, will be interested to know he is recuperating Battery 'G' Now from an operation in a Columbia hos-

During his absence, his brother, rens, of which the Rev. J. O. Smith N. P. Mitchell, of Columbia, is supervising the operation of the restaurant.

Formation of Unit Here Com-

Named To Head Organization.

Organization of the Clinton section seum. action in Corrigan's case, although he of the county into a Boy Scout disapparently left the United States trict was effected Monday night at a barest navigating instruments. without a passport. The department meeting of a large group of interest- The first intimation of his where- Hogan, Greelyville; John L. McMillan, the incident. said this was not actionable and that ed citizens at Hotel Clinton. The or- abouts today was at 7:08 a. m. EST, Florence. he could be granted a passport even ganization was perfected by Gilbert when he flew over Belfast. Bush, representative of the National Officials of Belfast harbor airport A. McLeod, incumbent, Sumter, Corrigan holds both pilot's and me- Boy Scout council, who had been in noticed its American registration For solicitor, fifth circuit: William newspaper Hochi said. chanic's licenses and has also been this section for some time working to markings. But they were unaware of P. Donelan, Columbia; A. F. Spigner, "If this (Soviet) outrage has been > ganized last week in Pickens county, he long had cherished. E. D. Craig was elected district The unofficial time of his flight Long, Conway. -

J. B. Hart, Goldville, advancement; Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, to Lon-checks have been received and dis- and safety; R. E. Ferguson, organiza- Horse Show Here tributed to Laurens county farmers tion, and W. R. Anderson, Jr., train-

L. B. Dillard served as temporary introductory remarks after the session had been opened with prayer by the Rev. C. B. Betts. Dr. R. C. Long Family Picnic of Greenwood, Blue Ridge council president, spoke on the council pro-Members of the Kiwanis club, their gram, taking as his subject, "Aim to

Mr. Bush explained methods and purposes of the council and outlined the steps necessary, after which formal organization was effected.

Three officers and 60 men of Bat- Hubert Boyd, J. J. Cornwell, P. S. tery "G," 263rd Coast Artillery regi- Bailey, Ryan Lawson, W. P. Dickson, ment, left early Sunday morning for Heath Copeland. Fort Moultrie, near Charleston, where they will undergo intensive training Union Service for the next two weeks.

For the past few years the battery

Corrigan for them. thought it was California all the derson.

time.' of St. Louis," was believed to be ville. pletes County Set-Up. Leaders capable of only about 100 miles an For congress, fifth district: James said. hour. The plane Lindbergh flew to P. Richards, incumbent, Lancaster.

Paris in 1927 is preserved in a mu-mediately report its arrival.

chairman at the session Monday was more than double the 13 hours night, and H. L. Eichelberger, com- and 17 minutes record James A. Mol- Fourth District missioner. Committee chairmen are: lison made on his flight in 1936 from

Club As Sponsors.

of August 26th.

The show will be confined strictly ed States senatorial aspirants — at "The liquor traffic and the forces experience of the past two years, with Laurens. many new horses in the county, and with widespread interest in the showing of these animals, the committee the largest and best yet.

tee composed of Jack H. Davis, Jr., ern community.

Then, quite belatedly, attendants For congress, third district: Butler reported intense activity among Sothought of landing papers and asked B. Hare, Saluda; R. E. McCaslan, viet troops. The newspaper Yomirui Greenwood; John C. Taylor, incum- said the greatest massing of troops in "Forget it," he said, yawning. "I bent, Anderson; Theo L. Vaughn, An- months had been noted.

Domei reported that a Soviet air ime." For congress, fourth district: Jos- squadron reconnoitered the area Corrigan's plane, of the vintage of eph R. Bryson, Greenville; G. Hey- where the incident occurred.

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's "Spirit ward Mahon, Jr., incumbent, Green-| The planes then flew into Manchukuo territory and disappeared, Domei

Planes, armored cars and motorized For congress, sixth district: James equipment were choking the Trans-R. Turner, Bennettsville; Jerome F. Siberian railway, Tokyo newspapers Corrigan had no radio and only the Pate, Darlington; D. E. Ellerbe, Flor- declared. Their editorial columns were ence; G. Lloyd Ford, Conway; O. F. virtually monopolized by comment on

For solicitor, third circuit: Frank China have been conducted only with

"Japan's military operations in the surplus of the armed force," the committed under a misunderstanding For solicitor, sixth circuit: W. G. as to Japan's strength, Russia shortly will repent the mistake."

Russia's challenge to Japan and Manterritory, a district having been or- straight and unerringly for the goal Badger Baker, Florence; H. E. Yar- Other newspapers predicted "imborough, Jr., Florence; J. Reuben mediate internal collapse" of Russia "if war comes."

Dry Forces In State Appeal Itinerary Given

A 21-meeting speaking itinerary for candidates of the fourth congressional district will begin at Jonesville on August 2 at 10 a.m. There are two candidates, G. Heyward Mahon, incumbent, and Joseph R. Bryson of forces for temperance and law en-will appear four times with the Unit- the case demands."

BOARD RE-APPOINTED

feels that this year's show will be nounced the re-appointment of the ident and Albert D. Betts, executive Laurens county welfare board, as fol- secretary of the federated forces. Any one wishing to secure entry lows: J. M. Donnan, Laurens, chair- said.

At Fort Moultrie tact with any member of the commit- M. L. McDaniel of the Hickory Tav- and resources at its command every

Call Upon Voters To Elect Men Who Will Face Moral Conditions With Intelligence.

Columbia, July 16 .- The federated forcement called upon South Carolina

In this county four meetings have voters today to elect "those who perbeen scheduled as follows: August sonally set examples of sobriety, and Plans and preparations are going 10th, Watts Mills, 7:30 p. m.; August who will face moral conditions in our forward by the Lions club committee 12, Clinton city, 10:30 a. m.; August state as relate to the sales and use in charge for the third annual Lau- 12th, Goldville, 7:30 p. m.; August of intoxicating liquors, gambling, rens county horse show, to be held in 23rd, Laurens court house, 10:30 a.m. lawlessness, etc., with an intelligence Clinton on Johnson field, on the night The candidates during their tour and seriousness which the nature of to Laurens county entries. With the Greenville, Spartanburg, Union and of evil that gather about it is deeply intrenched in the social life and politics of this commonwealth, in reality, is becoming a super-government." a Governor Olin D. Johnson has an- statement signed by C. E Burts, pres-blanks may do so by getting in con- man; Dr. L. E. Bishop, Clinton, and "It is manifest that with wealth effort is being made to maintain for itself the moral and legal sanctions necessary to perpetuate its power.

"We would remind our people again of the disastrous inroads the traffic is making upon the economic life of our people, to say nothing of the physical and moral wreckage result-

BUILDINGS BEING REWORKED Carpenters have just completed the rork of renovating the Judd dining all at the college, and work is pro- ressing toward the completion of the enovating and repainting of Spencer armitory. It is planned to rework the intre plant during the summer in reparation for the September open- rg. SUMMER SCHOOL CLOSES The Presbyterian college summer chool came to a close last Friday af- er being in progress for six weeks. The school was headed by Prof. B. Traham, a member of the college fac- ity, as director.	<ul> <li>Southern from Greenwood. The company is commanded by Capt. W. A. Johnson, and Lieutenants Jack H. Davis, Jr., and B. F. Wingard.</li> <li>Casting</li> <li>Casting</li> <li>Casting</li> <li>C. H. McCrary announces himself in today's paper as a candidate for re-election as magistrate of Hunter township at Olinton, in this summer's primary. Mr. McCrary was elected</li> </ul>	from AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS in LAURENS COUNTY 1938 Let's Strive To Make This a Safe Year On the Highways.	<ul> <li>Ing therefrom, south Caronna is spending not less than $20,000,000 annually for alcoholic liquors, and with further loss of at least twice that amount.</li> <li>"The federated forces will ask the next general assembly for nothing less than county local option."</li> <li>EXCURSION TO ATLANTA By slashing approximately 75 per cent from regular fares, the Seaboard railway has announced an excursion to Atlanta over Sunday, July 24th. From Clinton the round trip fare is only $1.75. Trains for which the tickets are good allow a full day in Atlanta for visiting friends and relatives, and enjoyment of the city's many and diversified attractions.</li></ul>
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------