Church Circle Meets With Mrs. Kohler

Mrs. J. H. Kohler and Mrs. John G. Barden were joint hostesses on Monday evening at the parsonage to members of the Sara Glenn Circle of Broad Street Methodist church with twenty-eight members in attendance.

A program on "The Work of The Woman in A City Church," was given with members contributing articles on the topic. Mrs. Kohler gave the first in a series of studies on women of the Bible beginning with Eve.

At the conclusion of the program a social hour was enjoyed and the hostesses served a sweet course with coffee.

Birthday Party Saturday For Lawrence Young

A delightful party was given Saturday for Lawrence Young son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Young, who was celebrating his sixth birthday.

Twenty-five little friends gathered at the home to enjoy games and later they were invited into the dining room for refreshments. A pretty bouquet of spirea and iris centered the lace covered table where a large birthday cake was displayed. After the six gleaming candles were blown out by Lawrence, ice cream, individual cakes, cookies and mints were served. Mrs. Young was assisted in entertaining and serving by Miss Lula Young, Mrs. John C. Davis, Margaret and Frances Adair.

Sorority Gives Girl-Break Dance

The Alpha Psi Delta sorority of Presbyterian college entertained on Saturday evening at the armory with the annual girl-break dance.

Sponsors for the dance were Keith Fleischman for Miss Betty Spratt, president; Hugh Flanders for Miss Vivian Dukes, vice-president; and Bob Pringle for Miss Evelyn Henry, secretary-treasurer.

Decorations in the armory were in pastel colors supplemented by the sorority seal. Music was furnished by George Weber and College N orchestra of Newberry college featuring 4 no-breaks with intermission at ten o'clock.

About two hundred attended the affair including young ladies from colleges over the state. Chaperones were parents of the sorority members and several members of the college faculty.

Recent Brides Honored With Lovely Party

On Saturday afternoon the Leish infirmary was the scene of a lovely party honoring two recent brides, Mrs. Allen Jacobs and Mrs. Hugh Shannon. Hostesses for the occasion were Misses Rachel Westmoreland of Columbia, formerly of this city, Misses Claire Huber and Leta McIntyre. The receiving rooms were beautifully decorated with varied arrangements of snapdragons, stock, carnations, iris and spirea, using floor baskets at vantage points.

Greeting the guests were Miss Huber and Mrs. A. M. Copeland. The receiving line was composed of the honor guests, Mrs. Robert D. Lynn, Miss Westmoreland and Miss McIntyre. Miss Helen Porter, Mrs. Dennis Sowers and Mrs. D. E. Matthews served dainty refreshments of cookies, ice cream in cups representing tiny flower pots each with a bouquet of spring flowers, and mints.

A special feature of the party was a shower of attractive gifts for the brides. Presiding in the gift room were Miss Julia Porter and Mrs. B. S. Pinson. Mrs. L. Ross Lynn and Miss Luvva McDonald bade the guests good-bye.

Mr. and Mrs. Holland Observe 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. T. Hamp Holland celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Tuesday, April 14, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. P. M. Pitts, inviting relatives and close friends to call from four until six o'clock.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Holland were Mrs. Pitts, Miss Margaret Holland, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Holland, and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Holland.

In the living room were artistic arrangements of golden snapdragons, iris and white spirea. Calendulas and roses were used in the dining room with a bouquet of California poppies and alyssum, all in the gold, giving a lovely touch to the traditional color scheme, as a centerpiece for the dining table. The soft glow of yellow candles added beauty to the setting.

Pound cake, block cream and mints were served by Virginia Henry, Annette Falls, Mark, Thomas and Edward Pitts.

During the afternoon Miss Helen Wham, rendered appropriate piano selections.

Relatives and friends called on this memorable occasion to congratulate and to extend their best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Holland, highly esteemed citizens of the Long Branch community. Mrs. Holland before marriage was Miss Mattie Henry, daughter of B. M. Henry and Addie Blakely Henry.
