Edwards-Lipscomb Rites Take Place In Miami

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Dorothy Vernon Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Edwards of this city, and Lt. Claude Victor Lipscomb of Gaffney, on Monday, March 1, in Trinity Methodist church, Miami, Fla. Dr. R. L. Allen, the pastor, officiated, using the impressive double ring ceremony.

The bride was lovely in her wedding costume, a two-piece effect in cream blue sheer crepe with veiled white hat and other white accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds and tuberose.

Mrs. Edwards, mother of the bride, was matron of honor and her only attendant. Her dress was of black marquisette worn with a large purple picture hat. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

After the ceremony the bride's parents entertained the bridal couple at dinner in their apartment in Miami.

The bride, an attractive young woman of pleasing personality, is a graduate of Winthrop college in the class of 1941. While at Winthrop, she was active in many phases of college life. Since graduation she has been teaching in the Trenton school where she has many friends who will be interested in her marriage.

The groom, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Claude V. Lipscomb of Gaffney, is a graduate of Furman university, where he was outstanding in athletics. After graduation he was coach for the Trenton school until he volunteered for service in the army air force as athletic instructor. Since entering the service he has received several promotions. On March 3 he was graduated from officers training school at Miami Beach and has been transferred to Tampa.

Mrs. Lipscomb has returned to Trenton to resume her teaching position.

CENTURY CLUB TO MEET

The Century club will meet Tuesday afternoon, March 16, at four o'clock, with Mrs. A. E. Spencer.

IF YOUR NOSE 'CLOSES UP' TONIGHT

Here's mighty good news... If your nose "closes up" tonight and makes breathing difficult, put 3-purpose Vicks Vapo-Rol up each nostril. Vapo-Rol does 3 important things. It (1) shrinks swollen membranes, (2) soothes irritation, (3) relieves transient nasal congestion. It brings more comfort, makes breathing easier, thus invites sleep... And remember, it helps prevent many colds developing if used in time. Follow directions in folder.

Point Shopping Pointers

Point Values Will Be The Same Everywhere!

Budget your points just as carefully as you do your household funds.

You may shop for your entire family if you bring their ration books to the store.

Decide on the size of the can or package best suited to your needs.

Plan your meals before you visit your nearest Rogers Store.

Make a list of possible substitute foods when planning your shopping list.

Spend your points only as you need them. However, any unused coupons will be "dead" at the expiration of the ration period.

Use non-rationed foods more - Fresh Fruits and Vegetables, Poultry, Fish.

Shop early in the week, early in the day!

The correct Point Values will be marked on every can, bottle or package of rationed merchandise.

Point Value to the left, prices to the right of all rationed items in every advertisement to help you plan purchases in advance.

Well informed stores' personnel to help speed up your shopping and answer any questions.

Remember—While Point Values are the same everywhere, Rogers price values save you more.

Serve foods with a dash of good humor—a rationed diet in a democracy for a short time is much better than a slave diet for generations under a dictator.
