SOCIETY

The bride carried a prayer book with a marker of white roses and showered with lilies of the valley.

William Cruickshanks, of Point Pleasant W. Va., brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Mrs. William Govan King, Sr., mother of the bride, was gowned in turquoise crepe made with a sweetheart neckline, embellished with embroidery. Her flowers were a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Alexander Cruickshanks, Jr., mother of the bridegroom, wore a royal blue crepe dress and a corsage of roses.

Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. King entertained with a brilliant reception at Lakeside Country Club.

Greeting the guests were Dr. and Mrs. D. O. Rhame, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Taylor of Greenwood introduced to the receiving line. Receiving with the host and hostess were the wedding party, and Mr. and Mrs. Cruickshanks, parents of the bridegroom.

For the occasion the spacious clubhouse was beautifully decorated. Adorning the mantel in the living room were white gladioli, asters and fern. Elsewhere floor baskets of gladioli and asters were effective. In the dining room the bride's table was exquisitely appointed and adorned with the triple tiered, beautifully iced and embossed wedding cake, containing the emblem of fate, and outlined with white roses and fern. Garlands of tube roses and fern were placed across the table and caught at the corners with tiny nosegays.

Serving punch, cake and mints were Barrie Jean Wingard, Joy Godfrey, Cornelia Harris, Polly Baldwin, Miriam Donnan, Irene Bryson, Betty Taylor, Virginia Kay of Byron, Ga., Faye Pinson of Cross Hill, and Pat McCurdy of Summerville, Ga.

Assisting in receiving and entertaining were: Mr. and Mrs. Horace Payfle, Mr. and Mrs. Almon Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Hiers, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Lawing of Greer, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Meadows of Macon, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sadler, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Dillard, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Kay of Byron, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McCurdy of Summerville, Ga., Mrs. Irene Pitts, Mrs. Agnes Brodie of Florence, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. Rhett P. Adair, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Johnson, Mrs. Raymond Pitts, Miss Nancy Owens, Mrs. S. P. Hutchings of Greer, Mrs. George W. Taylor, Mrs. Mollie Donnan, Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Young, Mrs. W. C. Baldwin, Mrs. Earl Workman, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Johnson, Jr., of Greer, and Mrs. Edgar Duke of Fort Valley, Ga., Mrs. Jim Coble of Greer, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Reddick, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Adair.

During the evening the bride and bridegroom left for their wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore an original greige gabardine tailored suit, brown blouse, brown off-the-face hat with a small chartreuse plume, and brown accessories and a corsage of roses.

Mrs. Cruickshanks is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Govan King. She graduated in June from Presbyterian college, where she was a member of Alpha Psi Delta sorority. She is a popular member of the young social set in Clinton.

Mr. Cruickshanks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cruickshanks, Jr., of Point Pleasant, W. Va., graduated in June from Presbyterian college where he was a member of Pi Kappa Phi social fraternity, Blue Key leadership fraternity, International Relations club, president of the student body in his senior year and mentioned in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." During the recent war he served four years in the 28th Infantry division, with one year overseas.

Among out-of-town guests were: Alexander Cruickshanks, Sr., grandfather of the bridegroom, of Washington, D. C.; Benjamin C. Cruickshanks, uncle of the groom, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cruickshanks, Jr., of Point Pleasant, W. Va., parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Meadows of Macon, Ga.; Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Kay, of Byron, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McCurdy of Summerville, Ga.; Mrs. Agnes Brodie, of Florence; Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Lawing, Mrs. S. P. Hutchings, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Johnson, Jr., and Mrs. Jim Coble, of Greer; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Duke of Fort Valley, Ga.; Miss Peggy Yerges and Miss Kittie Lewis, of Point Pleasant, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pelham and Miss Sara Kay, of Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Roach, of Charlotte, N. C.; Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Kay, Jr., of Augusta, Ga.; Mrs. W. T. Martin and Dr. T. L. Martin, of Greenville; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Phillips, Jr., of Spartanburg.

TO CLEAN CEMETERY

The cemetery at Langston Baptist church is to be cleaned Wednesday, August 20, and all persons having relatives buried there are requested to send help, or if unable to do so, to send a money contribution to Mrs. Joe Poole, Route 1, Clinton (church treasurer).
