News From Community Center

New Year's Party

At the Community Center New Year's Eve was a gala occasion with around seventy-five of the younger set and many adults participating. The Mathis Brothers, Lydia's own musicians, furnished string music for the occasion. Several visiting musicians also contributed to the evening's pleasure.

On the eve of the new year a large group of young men and women joined in singing songs of yesteryear, as well as many of the modern songs.

Games and contests were also features of the evening's entertainment.

Birthdays and Anniversaries

Jimmy O'Shields celebrated his birthday yesterday, and Mickey O'Shields is celebrating hers today.

Ann McLendon was 5 years old January 3.

Harriett Wilson was 4 years old January 4.

January 15 birthdays include Pearl Webb's 11th and Smoky Emory's third.

Miss Virginia Overstreet had a birthday January 6.

J. W. Owens is 77 years old today. Harvin Harvey will observe his birthday January 17.

Mrs. S. L. Prince celebrated her birthday December 29.

Boy Scout Meet

On Monday afternoon, Dec. 29, the intermediate scouts met at the community house. During the social hour they had a skating contest. Prizes for the most graceful couple skating were awarded Lilly Bell Crawford and Peggy Satterfield. Kathleen Dees and Elizabeth Roof won prizes in the racing contest. After the contests refreshments were served. Elizabeth Roof and Carolyn Roof were hostesses at this party.
