Ford-Bryant

Miss Mary Bryant and John D. Ford of this city, were united in marriage on December 25. The ceremony was performed in Laurens by Probate Judge J. H. Wasson.

After a wedding trip they are now making their home here.

Hall-Livingston Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hall of near Little Mountain, formerly of Goldville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sara Ruth, to Virgil Wyman Livingston, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Livingston of Prosperity. The wedding will take place in February.

Georgia Visitor Entertained Here

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Loftis entertained at supper recently in honor of their visitor, Miss Mary Alice Blackburn, of Alto, Ga. Places were laid for seven guests, at the dining table which had a centerpiece of greenery and lighted candles. Seasonal decorations were attractive in the receiving rooms.

Lions Give Party At Country Club

The Clinton Lions club entertained their wives and friends on last Tuesday evening at Lakeside country club.

Crepe paper streamers in pastel shades were used in decorations and the ball room was adorned with a fan-shaped arrangement of gladioli. A buffet supper was served to about one hundred guests. An attractive centerpiece for the dining table was fashioned of white chrysanthemums, pink carnations and heather. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening with an orchestra furnishing the music.

Members of the committee on arrangements included P. S. Bailey, John A. Addison, Archie D. Clark and Robert P. Hamer.

Singley-Sanders Rehearsal Party

Miss Freida Peterson of Spartanburg, entertained the wedding party and a few friends Friday evening after the rehearsal for the Singley-Sanders wedding which took place December 27.

The party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson, which was prettily decorated in the green and white bridal motif. Fruit cake, coffee, nuts and candy were served. The bride and groom presented their gifts to the bridesmaids and ushers at this time.

The Pattes Give 'Reveillon' Party

A "Reveillon Party" was given Dec. 31 by the Rev. and Mrs. Edouard Pette at their home, 7 Calvert avenue. Twenty guests enjoyed a program of music and games. Prizes were given for "the best little poem" and the "last quiz of 1947." Just before midnight a buffet supper was served. Library, parlor and hall were decorated with silvery leaves and colored tapers.

W. M. S. Meeting Held Monday

The Woman's Missionary Society of Bailey Memorial church met Monday evening with Mrs. Eland Harris, hostess.

The president, Mrs. Crawford, presided over the business session and Mrs. Marvin Stewart gave an interesting article on "He Shall Direct Thy Path." Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. Harris, secretary. The meeting was closed with a prayer.

Later the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Glee Scarborough, served a salad course with hot coffee.

Birthday Dinner Honors Mr. Adair

In observance of Mr. Adair's birthday Sunday, Jan. 4, Mrs. J. I. Adair entertained a number of relatives at dinner.

Adorning the center of the table which was overlaid with a linen cover was an epergne with pink and white roses handmade by the hostess. Place cards and the birthday cake decorated with pink candles completed the table arrangement.

Rhodes-Smith Rites Solemnized

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rhodes of this city, announce the marriage of their daughter, Kathryn, to Roy Thomas Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde F. Smith, also of Clinton. The ceremony was performed at Broad Street Methodist church parsonage by Rev. P. L. Bauknight.

Mr. Smith served several years in the army and now holds a government position, as caretaker of the armory.

After a wedding trip they are residing with the groom's parents.

U. D. C. Will Meet Tonight

The January meeting of the Stephen D. Lee Chapter, U. D. C., will meet this evening (Thursday) at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. D. A. Yarborough. Mrs. E. H. Hall, Sr., is program leader.

Miss Margaret Bolt Bride Of Sanford R. McDaniel

Of wide social interest is the announcement by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bolt of Laurens, of the marriage of their daughter, Margaret C., to Sanford B. McDaniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. McDaniel of this city on December 12.

The ceremony took place at 6 o'clock in the evening at the First Baptist church of Asheville, N. C.

with the Rev. W. Perry Crouch officiating.

The bride wore a brown gabardine suit with brown accessories and a purple orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. William P. Coker, of Asheville, was matron of honor. She wore a black wool suit with black accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.
