Bridge Club Enjoys Meeting

Thursday afternoon Mrs. R. P. Hamer was hostess to her bridge club assembling players for two tables.

Score prizes were won by Mrs. J. J. Cornwall and Mrs. Hubert Boyd. Floating prize also went to Mrs. Boyd. After cards a salad course was enjoyed.

Jonquils and flowering quince in pretty bouquets added attractiveness to the card rooms.

Bridge Club Meets With Mrs. Dunlap

Thursday afternoon members of her bridge club met at the home of Mrs. Thornwell Dunlap.

Arrangements of daffodils made a pretty setting for the two tables. A sweet course was served and later a number of progressions enjoyed. High score was won by Mrs. J. M. Dick of Raleigh, N. C., a club visitor, and bingo prize went to Mrs. J. B. Hart.

Mrs. Owens Leads Study Club Program

Continuing the year's program on "Visiting Among Recent Books," Mrs. R. S. Owens discussed "An American Year" by Hal Borland and read sketches from the book, on last Wednesday at the meeting of the Study club held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Hart.

Adorning the Hart home were yellow snapdragons and statice arranged in the living room, and lavender statice and gloxinias centering the dining room table.

For refreshments a salad course, cheese biscuit, sandwiches and coffee were served.

Scogin-Franklin Marriage Announced

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Scogin announce the marriage of their daughter, Joe Nell, to Ernest Franklin on Saturday, the sixth of March, in Whitmire. The young couple are making their home with the groom's mother in Whitmire.

Mrs. Moore Gives Dessert Bridge

Mrs. Perry M. Moore entertained members of her club Thursday afternoon with a dessert bridge.

Two tables were arranged for the games in a setting of gladioli and flowering quince. Before cards a sweet course was served. When scores were counted Mrs. Jasper Rowland was high and was presented a gift.

Joint Hostesses Give Bridge Party

Mrs. Henderson Pitts and Mrs. Roy Gasque were co-hostesses Friday afternoon at the home of the former for a bridge party.

Bowes of camellias, daffodils and flowering quince formed a pretty background for four tables.

After several interesting progressions, Mrs. D. B. Smith was presented high score award and Mrs. Hubert Boyd consolation prize. Late in the afternoon a salad and sweet course was served.

Mrs. W. S. Horne Entertains Club

Mrs. W. S. Horne entertained her bridge club Thursday afternoon.

Bowls of flowering quince with breath of spring and an arrangement of daffodils adorned the living room where two tables were placed for cards. A dessert course was served with coffee before the games.

Mrs. John W. Finney, Sr., a club visitor was presented a gift for winning high score and floating prize went to Mrs. T. C. Johnson, Jr.

During the afternoon salted nuts and cold drinks were enjoyed.

Book Club Meets With Mrs. Owens

Members of the Ex-Libris book club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Brooks Owens.

In the living room vases of golden bell and jonquils were used at vantage points. Books were exchanged and after a delightfully informal hour the hostess served sandwiches, fudge and coffee.

Presbyterian Circle In Regular Meet

Miss Florrie Burdette, Miss Betty Woodworth and Miss Clyde Smith

were hostesses to the business women's circle of the First Presbyterian church Monday evening.

Mrs. A. M. Copeland reviewed the year's Bible study on the prophets. Plans were made for work for the new church year which begins April first.

Later a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served.

Miss Wysor Hostess To Presbyterian Circle

Circle No. 2 of the First Presbyterian church met Monday evening at the home of Miss Elizabeth Wysor. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Jack Jeanes, Mrs. B. C. Ferguson and Miss Inez Young.

Mrs. Andrew Anderson conducted the Bible study, after which Mrs. Hugh Jacobs discussed the topic, "Do I Mean It."

At the conclusion of the program pie and toasted nuts were served.

March Meeting Of A. R. P. Society

The March meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church was held Monday afternoon at the home of Misses Margaret and Katherine Blakely.

Mrs. E. B. Sloan, president, presided. The Bible study from Matthew was given by Miss Laura Bell. Miss Margaret Blakely, assisted by several members, rendered the program on stewardship and ministerial relief. A thank offering was taken.

Later in the afternoon assorted sandwiches, cookies, mint patties and hot punch were served.

'Wade Hampton' Topic Of U. D. C. Program

The Stephen D. Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. B. F. Wingard. Assisting as hostesses were Mrs. H. M. Young, and Miss Agnes Davis.

The Wingard home was attractive with arrangements of tulips, daffodils and other cut flowers. Before the program the group enjoyed a dessert course. The following program was given.

"Capitols of the United States"—Mrs. Young.

Wade Hampton—Mrs. Nehe D. Workman.

Mount Vernon and How It Was Purchased—Mrs. Jasper Rowland.

Prayer—Mrs. A. M. Copeland.

Mrs. Sumerel Hostess To Baptist Circle

Mrs. Ryland Sumerel and Mrs. J. T. Ellison were co-hostesses at the home of the former Monday evening to the Business Women's circle of the First Baptist church.

Miss Eloise Miller had arranged the program on "The Christian Home—Our Immediate Task." Mrs. Grady Moore gave the devotional and the following members took part: Miss Elizabeth Adams, Mrs. W. H. Roberts, Mrs. Hugh Ray, Miss Florence Adair, Miss Irene Workman and Mrs. Sumerel.

Later sandwiches, punch and cookies were served.

Sunday School Class Has March Meeting

Tuesday evening the Helen Anderson Sunday school class met at the First Baptist church with Mrs. Charles McDaniel's committee serving as hostesses.

Mrs. R. P. Wilder, president, presided. Mrs. Gary Holcombe gave a timely devotional for the Easter season, and Miss Marion Burts taught the Bible study from "The Book We Teach."

At the conclusion of the program the group was invited into the church parlors for a social hour with Mrs. Leila N. Johnson in charge of the recreation period. The Easter motif was prettily carried out in decorations and refreshments of salad, sandwiches, candies and punch.

Mrs. Miller, Bride-elect, Given Shower In Laurens

Mrs. Robbie Etheridge Miller, whose engagement to Robert L. Parsons, of Lanford, was recently announced, was feted last Friday evening with a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. W. G. Miller at her home in Laurens.

The home was beautifully decorated with snapdragons and sweetpeas. During the evening a number of games and contests were enjoyed, after which a salad course was served with coca-cola. Assisting the hostess in serving and entertaining were Mrs. Melvin Murray and Miss Margaret Satterwhite.

Later the honoree was showered with gifts which she opened and passed.

Sara Glenn Circle Has March Meeting

The Sara Glenn circle of Broad Street Methodist church met Monday evening with Miss Mary Shedd, Miss Katrine Martin and Mrs. Ray Pitts as hostesses at the home of Mrs. Austin Chandler.

Mrs. Carroll Reid, chairman, presided, and read an interesting letter from Miss Sara Glenn of Chester, missionary to China, for whom the circle was named.

Mrs. Ethel Pitts led the program on "The Christian Church and a New Japan." Also taking part were Miss Jeanette Pitts, who gave the devotional, Mrs. D. B. Smith, Mrs. Julian Coleman and Mrs. J. J. Greene.

A social hour was enjoyed during which the hostesses served a salad and sweet course with coffee.

Bowls of camellias, narcissus and snapdragons were used at vantage points in the home.

Musgrove Club Holds Meeting

The March meeting of the Musgrove Home Demonstration club was held at the school house on March 4 at 3 o'clock.

The project song, "The Old Re-frain," was sung by the club. Devotional was given by Mrs. A. A. May. She read the 24th Psalm and led in prayer.

The roll was called with each member answering with "How I Could Have Prevented an Accident In The Home."

Minutes were read by the secretary. The club decided to give 20 soup bowls to the county home.

Picture study was given by the chairman, Mrs. J. K. Haselden. The picture studied was Heidi, by Jessie Wilcox Smith. An interesting demonstration on safety in the home was given by the assistant agent, Miss Vaughn. She stressed safety in the use of electric stoves, refrigerators, and ironers.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Haselden and Miss Cox.

Seated Tea For Mrs. Benjamin, Bride

Mrs. Edgar Lee Benjamin, a recent bride, was complimented Friday afternoon when her mother, Mrs. T. P. Owens, entertained with a seated tea.

A lovely arrangement of white narcissus and hyacinths with greenery adorned the mantel in the living room. Elsewhere in the receiving rooms were flowering quince, daffodils and other early spring flowers.

Russian tea was served with sandwiches, cheese straws, and cakes decorated with valley lilies. Mints also in keeping with the green and white color note were passed.

Assisting the hostess in the courtesies of entertaining were Mrs. Marvin C. Stewart, Miss Lizzie Owens, and Mrs. Fierman Ott of Laurens, aunt of the bride.

About forty guests, friends of the bride, neighbors and family friends were invited for the occasion.

Mrs. Walter L. Benjamin, mother-in-law of the bride, of Mountville was a special guest for the tea. The honoree was presented a corsage of pink carnations.

Much interest was added to the occasion because of the sentiment attached to the Davidson homeplace on Musgrove Street, now the home of the bride's parents, where the party was given. The bride's grandmother and grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Owens (Mattie Davidson), were married and held their golden wedding anniversary celebration there. The living room was also the scene of the wedding of the bride's great-aunt, Mrs. J. C. McMillan (Alice Davidson).
