Community Chorus To Name Officers Monday Evening

Officers will be elected and formal choral practice will begin at the meeting of the Community Choral society Monday evening, March 15, at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium, according to plans made at a meeting on March 8.

Offices to be filled are president, vice-president, corresponding secretary, recording secretary, treasurer, and librarian. Prof. Edouard Patte, director of the glee club at Presbyterian college, will direct the singing, and the Clinton Music club is sponsoring the organization.

At the last meeting, the first and third Monday evenings were selected for meetings and members were asked to be prepared to contribute twenty-five cents to be used in ordering music, this amount to be credited on dues to be set by a finance committee when the budget is completed.

At the conclusion of the business meeting H. G. Prince directed the group in singing a number of selections, with Mrs. James Pitts accompanying at the piano.

SOCIETY

Brides-elect Honored With Lovely Tea

Honoring Miss Carolyn Henry, Miss Jean Layton and Miss Jane Little, brides-elect, Mrs. C. E. Galloway and Mrs. Michael Turner entertained with a lovely tea Saturday afternoon.

The Galloway home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with jonquils and bowls of white camelias, in keeping with a yellow, green and white motif, used throughout.

Mrs. Galloway greeted the guests at the door and in the receiving line with Mrs. Turner were the honorees and their mothers.

The beautifully appointed tea table holding milk glass containers of jonquils had as a background the traditional seven candles in graduated sizes.

Mrs. George T. Barnes and Mrs. Robert Wysoy poured tea. Sandwiches, cheese biscuits and individual cakes iced in green, yellow and white were served.

Entertaining in the living room were Mrs. Irby S. Hipp, Mrs. Goyne L. Simpson, and Mrs. D. O. Rhame. Mrs. W. R. Anderson invited the guests into the dining room where Mrs. J. B. Hart, Mrs. Carlisle Neely, and Mrs. W. A. Johnson entertained.

Assisting in serving were Miss Elizabeth Wysoy, Mrs. W. M. Shields, Miss

Peggy Johnson and Miss Virginia Henry.

About one hundred and twenty-five guests called between 4 o'clock and 8 o'clock to extend their best wishes to the popular brides-elect.

Former Clinton Resident Weds In Spartanburg

In a candlelight ceremony taking place on February 7, at 8 o'clock, in the evening at the Park Hill Baptist church in Spartanburg, Miss Esther Mae King became the bride of James David Bryson. The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Harold Horn. A program of nuptial music was furnished by Mrs. Harold Horn, pianist.

Bobby Bryson, brother of the groom, and George Sineath, Jr., cousin of the groom, of Clinton, lighted the candles.

Talmadge King, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Nelson Martin and Flournoy McKenzie.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Vernon T. King. Her dress was of white net over taffeta, featuring the sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, tight bodice with full skirt. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms. She wore a shoulder corsage of pink carnations.

She was attended by Miss Mae Peace as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Carol Gwynn and Miss Aileen Edwards. Miss Brenda Justice was flower girl and little Butch McKenzie was ring bearer.

After the ceremony the bride and groom greeted the guests in the vestibule of the church.

For travel, the bride changed to a two-piece suit of black gabardine with black and white accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

The groom, who formerly resided here, is a nephew of Mrs. George Sineath of this city.
