members of the rose division. Mrs. Niles Clark of Waterloo, addressed the group on "Annals." At the conclusion of the program guests were invited into the dining room where refreshments of assorted sandwiches, cookies, salted nuts, mints and punch were served buffet style. The Easter motif was prettily carried out. Purple iris daffodils, spirea, judas pansies were combined for floral decoration. Assistant hostesses were: Mrs. A. B. Blakely, Mrs. Roy Gasque, Mrs. W. O. Foster, and Mrs. H. M. Young.

The Iris group met in Cross Anchor at the home of Mrs. C. M. Workman. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Ace Workman, Mrs. W. M. Walker, Mrs. B. F. Wingard and Mrs. H. M. Wise. Mrs. Jasper Rowland gave a paper on "Annals and Their Cultivation." A tempting refreshment plate carrying out the Easter motif and adorned with small spring flowers, was served.

Mrs. W. W. Arrington Entertained Here

Honoring Mrs. W. W. Arrington, Jr. of Greenville, a recent bride, Misses Margaret and Katherine Blakely, entertained at their home on Friday evening with a party given in the form of a miscellaneous shower.

A lovely arrangement of early spring flowers consisting of spirea, daffodils, jonquils, and hyacinths, adorned the home throughout.

A number of games and contests were enjoyed during the evening after which the guests were invited into the dining room where the table was covered with beautifully wrapped packages for the honoree. A green watering pot was tied to the chandelier with green ribbon and from the pot green ribbons were showered to each package on the table below. The gifts were opened and passed.

Later the hostesses served a salad plate.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. R. D. Byrd, Mrs. Jack Clifford and Mrs. William Franklin of Newberry, Miss Bessie Byrd, Mrs. S. H. Byrd, Mrs. W. B. Blakely, Mrs. J. F. Blakely and Miss Betty Blakely of Ora, and Mrs. W. W. Arrington, Sr. of Greenville.

Study Club Meets With Mrs. Thornwell Dunlap

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Thornwell Dunlap entertained the Study club at her home near here.

Daffodils and flowering quince added to the charm of the paneled living room.

Mrs. C. B. Betts, program leader for the afternoon, reviewed the book, "His America", which tells the life of the artist Audobon, noted for his pictures of birds.

After the program Mrs. Dunlap served a salad course, coffee and cake.

Lovely Tea For Miss Little, Bride-elect

Delightful among social functions in compliment to Miss Jane Little since the announcement of her engagement was the tea given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. R. P. Kapp and Miss Ella Little McCrary, at the home of the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. John W. Little.

Receiving with the hostesses and the guest of honor were her mother and two bridesmaids, Miss Kathryn Willingham of Greenville, and Miss Juanita Rorie of Rockingham, N. C. Mrs. J. F. Jacobs greeted the guests at the door and Mrs. A. B. Godfrey and Mrs. R. C. Adair entertained in the living room. In the dining room were Mrs. Pringle Copeland and Miss Irene Hipp. Mrs. Robert Wysor and Mrs. R. S. Owens poured punch. Serving were Miss Margie Miller, Mrs. Eugene Avery, Miss Virginia Sumerel and Miss Elizabeth Wysor. Mrs. Harry Nettles and Miss Lily Yarborough bade the guests goodbye.

Camellias and Japanese magnolia accentuated the pink color note chosen for the living room. In the dining room yellow predominated in the floral arrangements. Centering the lace covered tea table was a bowl of jonquils and lighted tapers. Narcissus encircled the candle holders and loops of yellow ribbon completed the table appointments.

Open faced sandwiches, cookies and mints were served with punch.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Jacob S. Wheeler, Sr., Miss Ellen Wheeler and Mrs. Jacob S. Wheeler, Jr., Prosperity; Mrs. Murray Hughes, Lancaster.

Miss Lillian Dillard Entertains With Party

Friday evening during the intermission of the Pi K A dance, Miss Lillian Dillard entertained with a party honoring Miss Terry White of Mary Baldwin College, Staunton, Virginia who was the house guest of Miss Mary Kent Wysor.

Throughout the Dillard home a profusion of spring flowers, daffodils, cydonia and golden bell were used in decoration.

Guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments which were served in buffet style from a beautifully appointed table. Adorning the table, covered with lace, was a center arrangement of daffodils, narcissi and spirea in a green, yellow and white color theme to carry out the St. Patrick's day motif. Tall white candles in low holders were arranged diagonally across the table. Sandwiches, coffee, ham biscuit and cake were served.
