

The WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY EVENTS, CLUB AND CHURCH NEWS OF INTEREST TELEPHONE 74 or 156-W

Mrs. Ferguson Hostess To Wednesday Club

Mrs. Edward Ferguson entertained the Wednesday bridge club the past week. Two tables were laid for refreshments and before cards a sweet course was served. When scores were counted Mrs. W. M. Shields won top award.

Iris and tulips with other spring flowers adorned the hostess' home.

Bridge Club Enjoys Meeting

Thursday afternoon members of her bridge club gathered at the home of Mrs. R. P. Hamer.

In a setting of iris combined with other garden flowers, two tables were arranged for the games. High score prize was presented Mrs. I. M. Adair. Later in the afternoon a salad course was served.

Harris-Layton Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gray Harris of Owings, announce the engagement of their daughter, Josephine Addison, to Olin Carlisle Layton, son of Mrs. Charles F. Layton and the late Mr. Layton of Newberry. The wedding will take place in June.

Miss Harris is a member of the Clinton schools faculty.

Ellen Fraser Gives Weiner Roast

Friday evening at 6:30 Ellen Fraser was hostess to about twenty friends for a weiner roast at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. T. L. Fraser.

Weiners were roasted over the outdoor fireplace on the back lawn and served with a picnic supper. Later, marshmallows were toasted. A treasure hunt was a feature of the evening's entertainment.

Bridge Club Meets With Mrs. Ballard

Mrs. B. B. Ballard was hostess to her bridge club Thursday afternoon, assembling players for two tables.

After a sweet course, several progressions were enjoyed and later in the afternoon cold drinks were served. Score prizes were won by Mrs. John W. Finney, Jr., and Mrs. J. B. Arnold.

Bouquets of iris and spirea were arranged in the living room where the games were played.

Patty Clark Has Birthday Party

Patty Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Clark, celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday.

In observance of the occasion, she invited the play school children for an afternoon party. Margie Mills, assisted Mrs. Clark in entertaining the little folk with games and serving refreshments of cake, ice cream and candies. The prettily decorated birthday cake held six lighted pink candles. Favors were Mexican cellophane hats.

Mrs. Clark's sister, Mrs. Henry Graham, and children, Lee and Mary, of Greenville, were guests for the party.

Shedd-Pitts Engagement

The engagement of Miss Mary Thomas Shedd to Harold Fleming Pitts has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Willoughby Shedd of Monticello. The wedding is planned for early summer.

Miss Shedd is a graduate of the University of South Carolina, 1945. Since her graduation she has been a member of the Clinton high school faculty.

Mr. Pitts is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Roy Pitts of this city. He was graduated from Clemson college and holds a position in Charlotte, N. C. During the war he served three years with the army.

Mrs. H. L. Eichelberger Hostess To Bridge Club

Mrs. H. L. Eichelberger entertained members of her bridge club Thursday afternoon.

Arrangements of tulips, roses, spirea, with white and purple iris, were used at vantage points in the card rooms. Two tables were in play, with Mrs. Thornwell Dunlap winning high score, and floating prize went to a club visitor, Mrs. F. F. Hicks. Mrs. P. S. Bailey and Mrs. Raymond Pitts were also guests of the club for the afternoon.

A salad course and cookies were served after the games.

Mrs. Robert Jordan and Son Celebrate Birthdays

Little Bobby Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Jordan, observed his fourth birthday, on March 29 at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Powers, in Atlanta, Ga. The day was also the birthday of his mother, so a double celebration was held.

A number of Bobby's friends enjoyed the occasion. Home movies were shown of Bobby and members of his family. Other films were also shown, including two "Mickey Mouse" cartoons.

The guests remembered Bobby with gifts, each one being opened and passed.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. The birthday cake was decorated with yellow sweetheart rosebuds and green leaves, and bore four yellow and green candles. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan and Bobby are residing on the Thornwell campus, where they are members of its staff, while Mr. Jordan is attending Presbyterian college. At the time of their birthdays they were spending the Easter holidays with their parents in Atlanta.

Curry-Bagwell

Mr. and Mrs. W. Thornton Curry announce the engagement of their sister, Miss Ruth Curry, to James Alvin Bagwell. The wedding will take place this spring. Miss Curry is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Curry and Mr. Bagwell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Bagwell.

Century Club Meets With Mrs. Brown

The Century club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. W. Brown. An interesting program on "Southern Gardens" was given by Mrs. M. A. Macdonald, who told of some of the most famous gardens in Virginia, Alabama and South Carolina.

Seated Tea For Popular Bride-Elect

Complimenting Miss Peggy Johnson, April bride-elect, Mrs. Kenneth Baker and Mrs. M. L. Eichelberger entertained with a seated tea Wednesday afternoon.

Lovely floral arrangements featuring tulips and azaleas decorated the receiving rooms, with apple blossoms adorning the living room mantel. The honoree was presented a pink corsage.

Guests were invited into the dining room where a salad course, tea and other party dainties were served buffet style. The beautifully appointed tea table had a center bouquet of white iris, spirea and snowdrops in a silver bowl. Silver candlesticks held lighted white tapers.

Mrs. E. H. Hall poured tea and Mrs. H. D. Payne also assisted the hostesses.

A. R. P. Society Has April Meet

The April meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Reed Todd. Assistant hostesses were Misses Lidie and Liz-Sloan.

Mrs. Clyde Todd assisted by a number of members who gave articles rendered the program on "Christian Literature."

During the afternoon a social hour was enjoyed and the hostesses served assorted sandwiches, crackers, candies and cold drinks.

Mrs. Burnett Hostess To Lutheran Society

Mrs. Fred Burnett was hostess to members of the Missionary Society of St. Johns Lutheran church Monday evening.

"The World To Christ We Bring," was the topic of the program led by Mrs. James C. Dickert. Others taking part were Miss Doris Suber, Mrs. R. W. Boland, Mrs. Elbert Boyce and Mrs. Henry Suber.

At the conclusion of the program the hostess served a salad plate with punch.

Joint Hostesses Fete Bride-Elect

Saturday evening Mrs. Julian Coleman and Mrs. Nene D. Workman were joint hostesses honoring Miss Jane Little.

Easter lilies, cyclamen, iris spirea and lilies-of-the-valley formed a pretty background for four bridge tables. On the living room mantel a bridal party in miniature was displayed. Marking the place of the guest of honor was a tulle bow holding a hair corsage of valley lilies. Before cards salad and sweet courses were served. The salad plates were attractive with small gum drop lamps with lighted candles and flower basket sandwiches.

The hostesses remembered Miss Little with a gift of crystal.

Clinton Bride-Elect Feted In Winnsboro

A lovely tea was given in Winnsboro Friday afternoon by Mrs. James L. Bryson, Mrs. James R. Curlee and Miss Elizabeth Curlee for their niece Miss Jane Little.

The lower floor of the Bryson home was ensuite and beautifully decorated with tulips, iris, azaleas, gladioli and pink dogwood.

Receiving with the hostesses were the bride-elect and her mother, Mrs. John W. Little.

The tea table covered with a hand made cloth was graced with a floral arrangement flanked by tall yellow tapers in keeping with a yellow and green color note chosen for the dining room. Block cream, decorated cakes, mints and nuts were served.

Mrs. E. N. Morrow of Lakeland, Fla., and Mrs. M. B. Jennings of Washington, D. C., aunts of the bride poured coffee.

About 150 guests including twenty-five Clinton friends called to extend their best wishes to the bride-elect.

Party Compliments Three Brides-Elect

A lovely party complimenting three brides-elect was given Monday afternoon by Mrs. Tom Addison, Mrs. R. P. Hamer and Mrs. James Addison at the home of the former. Honorees were Miss Jane Little, Miss Jean Layton and Miss Peggy Johnson.

In the hall azaleas were used and artistic mixed arrangements of Dutch iris, tulips, and English daisies adorned the living room. Several bouquets of Lady Bankshire roses and purple iris decorated the sun porch while in the dining room white snap dragons, delphinium, and candy-tuff accentuated a green and white motif.

Guests were invited for three tables of bridge and mothers of the honorees called after cards.

Score prizes were presented Mrs. George R. Blalock and Mrs. Tommy Hollis with floating prize going to Miss Johnson.

Late in the afternoon salad and sweet courses were served with coffee. Mrs. Carlisle Neely assisted the hostesses.

The brides-elect were presented camellia corsages to wear and gifts of silver in their chosen patterns.

Seated Tea For April Bride-Elect

Enjoyable among social functions complimenting Miss Jane Little was the seated tea Saturday afternoon at which Mrs. I. M. Smith and Mrs. R. C. Adair entertained at the Smith home near Kinards.

Receiving with the hostesses and honoree were her mother, Mrs. John W. Little, two aunts, Mrs. E. N. Morrow of Lakeland, Fla. and Mrs. James L. Bryson of Winnsboro and Miss Jean Layton, bride-elect.

Adorning the reception hall were purple iris, yellow and deep rose snapdragons and a reflected arrangement of iris and Lady Bankshire roses on the stairway landing. Pink and lavender predominated in the floral decoration for the living room while yellow calendulas, violets and roses were used in the sun room.

Entertaining in the living and sun rooms were Mrs. B. O. Whitten, Mrs. Robert Wysor, Mrs. Robert S. Owens, Miss Agnes Davis and Mrs. Raymond Pitts.

Refreshments of open faced sandwiches, pressed chicken, cake, mints, cheese straws and punch were served buffet style in the dining room. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. P. S. Bailey, Mrs. Carlisle Neely, Miss Nancy Owens, Mrs. J. A. Neighbors, and Mrs. John Earl Smith.

A white organdy table cover over light blue accentuated the dining room color motif. The center arrangement was of white flowers and triple silver candelabra held lighted tapers. Fern, carnations and snapdragons formed a base for a nine-branched candelabra in graduated effect at one end with a cupid figure holding satin ribbons showered with miniature bouquets at the other. Elsewhere in the dining room larkspur, phlox and iris in blue were used.

The brides-elect received gifts of silver as remembrance of the occasion.

Methodist Circles To Meet Monday

The circles of Broad Street Methodist church will meet Monday afternoon, April 12, at 3:00 o'clock, at the church. Miss Deborah Mauldin, chief of the Division of Child Welfare of South Carolina, Columbia, will be the guest speaker. Members of other churches are cordially invited to this meeting to hear Miss Mauldin.

The Sarah Glenn circle, Mrs. Carol Reid, chairman, will meet Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. B. Arnold, hostess, with Mrs. Clifton Adair and Mrs. O. C. Lewis, assistant hostesses. Please note change in the hour.

Little-Pittman Wedding This Afternoon At First Presbyterian Church

This evening at 5:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church, Miss Jane Curlee Little and John B. Pittman will be united in marriage. Miss Little has been extensively entertained prior to her wedding.

The bride's uncle, James R. Curlee

garden flowers and dogwood blossoms four tables were arranged for the games. High score was won by Mrs. W. M. Shields. The honoree and Miss Jean Layton, also a bride-elect, were presented gifts of linen.

A salad course was served and later guests were invited into the dining room for cake and coffee. Centering the table and placed upon a silver tray was a beautifully decorated rainbow cake with ribbon streamers showered with flowers and holding wishes for the bride-elect. Mrs. John W. Little poured coffee.

Mrs. E. N. Morrow of Lakeland, Fla. and Mrs. James L. Bryson of Winnsboro, aunts of the bride-elect, were guests for the party.

Methodist Circles To Meet Monday

The circles of Broad Street Methodist church will meet Monday afternoon, April 12, at 3:00 o'clock, at the church. Miss Deborah Mauldin, chief of the Division of Child Welfare of South Carolina, Columbia, will be the guest speaker. Members of other churches are cordially invited to this meeting to hear Miss Mauldin.

The Sarah Glenn circle, Mrs. Carol Reid, chairman, will meet Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. B. Arnold, hostess, with Mrs. Clifton Adair and Mrs. O. C. Lewis, assistant hostesses. Please note change in the hour.

Little-Pittman Wedding This Afternoon At First Presbyterian Church

This evening at 5:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church, Miss Jane Curlee Little and John B. Pittman will be united in marriage. Miss Little has been extensively entertained prior to her wedding.

The bride's uncle, James R. Curlee

of Winnsboro will give her in marriage.

Mrs. Sidney Gerringer of Rockingham, sister of the bride-groom, will be dame of honor and Miss Elizabeth Wysor, maid of honor. Bridesmaids are Miss Kathryn Willingham of Greenville, Miss Jahnita Rorie of Rockingham, and Misses Virginia

(Continued on page seven)

Your Prescriptions
... filled just as ordered by your
PHYSICIAN
YOUNG'S PHARMACY
Walgreen Agency
Phone 19
We Deliver

SMORGASBORG
6:30 P. M. to 9:00 P. M.
Sunday, April 11
Fair Forest Hotel Dining Room
Union, S. C.

SATURDAY ONLY!
600 Pairs Seam-free
NYLON HOSE
1.50 if perfect
2 pair for 1.00
Slightly irregular, seamless nylon hose. In spring shades. An exceptionally good value. Saturday only. Sizes 8½ to 10½.
Gene Anderson's

IT PAYS TO SHOP AT PENNEY'S
Where Every Day is Bargain Day!

Litling New Prints for Spring Dresses

SORORITY RAYONS
Sparkling colors with imaginative designs, florals, geometrics. 39". Make your own glamour dresses and blouses at this thrifty 1.19 yd. price!

Linen WEAVE RAYONS
Lightweight butcher linen weave rayons for cool, crisp looking sportswear. Pastels, black, brown or white. Washable, 39". 89c yd.

SPUN RAYON PRINTS
Fine spun rayon florals in lovely Spring colors. Make washable dresses and blouses, save! 79c yd.

Novelty Cotton Prints 39c yd.
Fine Rondo Percales 49c yd.
Solid, Stripe Chambray 69c yd.

EVERY DAY IS BARGAIN DAY AT PENNEY'S

Gene Anderson's

1.50 to 2.50

for Sculptured beauty

—for moulded loveliness, a Perma-Lift is the bra for you. No artist can capture the natural beauty that a Perma-Lift bra will give your figure. Its unique construction assures a permanently youthful bustline. At the base of the bra, cup an exclusive cushion inset gently lifts your bosom, holds it round and firm. The comfortable support from below the bust never becomes limp or lax from countless washings or wear. Ask for Perma-Lift. Price

Perma-lift BRASSIERES
THE LIFT THAT NEVER LETS YOU DOWN
Another fine Hickory product