Surprise Birthday Party

On last Saturday several friends of Mrs. Maggie Marshall pleasantly surprised her with a party in honor of her birthday. About 25 guests were present. The place of merriment was the home of Mrs. Van Prater. Mrs. Prater served cake and ice cream. The honored guest received many gifts.

With The Sick

Grover C. Nabors has returned to his home after an operation at a hospital in Winston-Salem, N. C. Grandpa Turner of Fort Mill, formerly of Goldville, suffered injuries in a fall several days ago. He is ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Floyd Osborne, at Fort Mill. Mrs. Sallie Ann Finney is ill at Hays hospital.

Mrs. Sallie Finney Passes

Mrs. Sallie Ann Furr Finney, 56, died Tuesday afternoon at Hays hospital in Clinton following a lingering illness. She was a native of North Carolina but had made her home here for 38 years. She was a member of the Goldville Baptist church. She is survived by two sons, R. C. Lunsford of Clinton, and H. F. Finney of Charleston; two daughters, Mrs. W. N. Brazel and Mrs. R. C. Craven, both of Goldville; three brothers, J. L. of Clinton, W. T. of Goldville, and P. C. Furr of Greenwood; two sisters, Mrs. M. E. Smith of Goldville, and Mrs. T. M. Smith of Newberry, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Goldville Baptist church, conducted by Rev. M. A. Bryant, assisted by Rev. James C. Dickert. Interment followed in Rosemont cemetery at Clinton.

Wesley Chambers Pupils Give Dance

The ballroom class of Le Wesley Chambers' Ecole des Ballets held their final formal dance on Saturday in the ballroom at the Clinton Hotel. The dining room was decorated in spring flowers with greens and pastel streamers along the walls and on the lighting fixtures. The center of the decoration was the punch table decorated in red rosebuds and ivy with a large crystal bowl in the center. Punch was served by Mrs. M. A. Macdonald, Mrs. Layton Frazer, and Mrs. J. Leland Young, mothers of the members of the refreshment committee for the dance.

During the evening dancing was enjoyed with dancing games at intervals. A grand march and a conga line were part of the program for the evening.

Committees for the dance were: Chairman, Carroll Hart. Decoration, Catherine Eichelberger. Refreshments, Patsy Macdonald and Ellen Frazer. Invitations, Chris Patte and Kenneth Baker, Jr.

Wesley Chambers, instructor of the school, announces that with the ballet recital on Tuesday evening, May 11, the dancing school would be closed for the season.

Rites For Former P. C. Student Held Tuesday

The body of Second Lieut. Roddy Ansel Martin arrived Tuesday at his home town in Mullins.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from Cox Funeral home in Mullins with interment following at Cedar-dale.

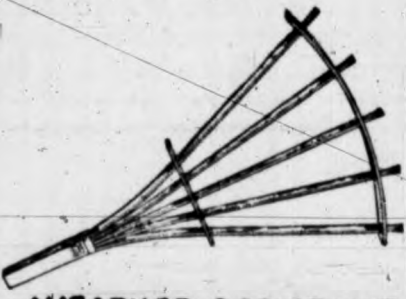

Lt. Martin, 21, was a native of Mullins and a graduate of Mullins high school. He was a prominent football player and attended Presbyterian college where he was an outstanding athlete. He entered the army in his junior year at college and trained at Camp Wheeler, Ga. He was sent overseas in 1944 and while crossing the English channel the transport on which he was a passenger was sunk by a torpedo. He received the Purple Heart and the Presidential Unit citation.

Lt. Martin had a pleasing disposition and made many friends while he was in Clinton.
