Garden flowers effectively decorated the receiving rooms of the home. A buffet luncheon was served and four small tables were appointed for guests. Mrs. William Brooks Owens assisted Mrs. Jacobs.

At the conclusion of the games high score award went to Mrs. Robert E. Wyser and floating prize to Mrs. R. C. Adair. Mrs. Anderson was remembered by the hostess with a guest prize.

Mrs. McSween Has Dessert Bridge

Mrs. Harry McSween entertained the Wednesday club and a number of additional guests with a dessert bridge the past week.

Larkspur, pinks, roses and forget-me-not were prettily arranged in the card rooms where three tables were laid.

After a sweet course several progressions were enjoyed. Top honors went to Mrs. Kitt R. McMaster, Jr., a club guest.

Miss Ruth Curry Honored With Shower

Miss Ruth Curry, bride-elect of the month, was complimented recently with a miscellaneous shower given at the home of Mrs. Louie Webb on the airport road.

The honoree was given a corsage of sweetpeas with white ribbon streamers which were passed for each guest to autograph.

A number of games were enjoyed with prizes awarded the winners. Afterwards the hostess, assisted by Miss Polly Brazil, Mrs. Katé Riddle and Mrs. Durell Fickler, served sandwiches, punch and minis. Miss Curry received a number of gifts, including silver and crystal in her chosen patterns.

Claire and Gloria Roberts Celebrate Birthdays

Claire and Gloria Roberts, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Roberts, recently observed their 7th and 6th birthdays. In celebration of the occasion they invited 50 friends for a party at their home Tuesday afternoon.

Decorating the lawn and playhouse were balloons and crepe paper streamers carrying out a pink and blue color scheme. After games refreshments were enjoyed. Pastel cut flowers and the decorated birthday cake adorned the refreshment table.

Shower Fetes June Bride-Elect

Members of the choir of Broad Street Methodist church, their wives and husbands complimented Miss Mary Shedd on last Wednesday evening.

The group gathered at the home of Mrs. James Pitts and a picnic supper was served on the back lawn. Later, music and singing were enjoyed in the home. During the evening Jackie and Sara Pitts presided the shower of miscellaneous gifts in a decorated wagon.

Miss Harris Honored At Gray Court Party

Mrs. Workman Hostess To 'Odds and Ends' Club

Mrs. Charles R. Workman and Mrs. F. M. Boland, Sr., entertained the Odds and Ends Book club Thursday evening at the Workman home near Kinards.

A delightful hot supper was served buffet style and guests found their places at small tables. Throughout the home a variety of spring flowers were combined for decoration and each table held small colorful bouquets.

Mrs. J. Reid Todd and Mrs. Frank Miller were guests of the club for the meeting.

Mrs. Marshall Brown Hostess At Tea

Faculty wives and members of the staff of Presbyterian college were entertained at a seated tea Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Marshall Brown.

Thirty guests enjoyed the delightful informal gathering. Assisting Mrs. Brown were Mrs. H. E. Sturgeon, Mrs. Kenneth N. Baker, Mrs. Walter A. Johnson, and Mrs. John W. Harris. During the afternoon the guests were invited into the dining room where refreshments were served buffet style from a beautifully appointed tea table.

A variety of spring flowers in attractive combinations adorned the receiving rooms.

Seated Tea Honors Miss Mary Shedd

Among lovely parties of the week was the seated tea given for Miss Mary Shedd, June bride-elect, Thursday afternoon by Mrs. W. H. Simpson and Mrs. Kitt R. McMaster, Jr.

Pastel spring flowers beautifully decorated the living room where twenty friends of the honoree gathered. During the afternoon guests were invited into the dining room where refreshments carrying out the pastel motif were served buffet style. On the table an arrangement of sweetpeas flanked by green tapers was effective.

The hostesses' gift to the bride-elect was a crystal tea bell. Mrs. W. Roy Pitts assisted in entertaining and serving.

Anne Baker Observes Birthday

Anne Baker entertained her classmates of the third grade at Florida Street school Monday afternoon, the occasion being her ninth birthday. The party was given at Lakeside Country club and the group enjoyed outdoor games. Later they were invited inside for refreshments. The prettily-decorated cake glowing with lighted candles and encircled with greenery centered the table. Ice cream and popcorn were served and each guest given a favor of the occasion.

Mrs. Haynie G. Prince and Miss Nancy Owens assisted Ann's mother, Mrs. Kenneth Baker, in entertaining and serving.

Tea Compliments Two Brides-Elect

A lovely seated tea was given Friday afternoon for Miss Marian Pitts and Miss Mary Shedd at the home of Mrs. John W. Finney, Sr. Hostesses with Mrs. Finney were her daughters-in-law, Mrs. John W. Finney, Jr., and Mrs. McMillan Finney.

Roses, snapdragons and Admiral Byrd daisies beautifully decorated the living rooms. In the dining room where a pink motif was effective, roses and larkspur were used. The dining table from which refreshments were served was graced with a low bowl of pink magnolia complimented by lighted pink tapers. A decorative salad plate added to the table appointments.

Corsages of red roses were presented—the honorees and each was remembered with a piece of silver in her chosen pattern.

Mrs. W. S. Horne and Mrs. Fran-dis Blalock assisted the hostesses in the courtesies of entertaining.

Little Boy Has Birthday Party

Bunkie Blalock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Blalock, observed his fourth birthday Thursday afternoon, May 20. In celebration of the occasion he invited about forty little friends to his home for a party.

A number of games, directed by Mrs. B. B. Ballard, were enjoyed and punch served on the lawn.

Later, the group was invited to the back lawn where the refreshment table was prettily appointed. At intervals bouquets of pastel-tinted flowers were used and centering the table was the birthday cake iced in pale green and decorated in pink, bearing four lighted candles. Encircling the cake were pink rosebuds. Ice cream and iced cake squares were served while the favors, horns in rainbow colors, adorned the plates. Mrs. Eugene Johnson and son, Johnny, of Greenville, were here for the party.

Informal Tea For Charlotte Visitor

Mrs. Rebecca C. Anderson, of Charlotte, N. C., a visitor here, was paid a charming compliment Saturday afternoon when Mrs. John W. Finney, Sr., and Mrs. William Bailey Owens were hostesses.

About thirty-five friends were invited to call at the Finney home to meet the honor guest.

In the receiving rooms floral arrangements of roses, larkspur, snapdragons and Admiral Byrd daisies were used at vantage points.

Refreshments were served buffet style from the candlelight tea table which was beautifully appointed and bore a central bouquet of pink magnolia.

Mrs. Henderson Pitts Heads Garden Club

At a business meeting Monday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church parlors the following officers were elected to serve for the coming year: President, Mrs. Henderson Pitts; vice-president, Mrs. Robert E. Wyser; secretary, Mrs. Wilmot Shealy; treasurer, Mrs. H. E. Sturgeon.
