Book Club Meets With Mrs. Finney

The Thursday Book club met the past week at the home of Mrs. John W. Finney with ten members attending.

For the occasion, roses and Admiral Byrd daisies were used at vantage points in the hostess' home. Books were exchanged and current literature was discussed, after which sandwiches, cold drinks and do-nuts were served.

Mrs. Gasque Has Dessert Bridge

Mrs. Roy Gasque was hostess to her club and several additional guests Thursday afternoon for a dessert bridge.

A sweet course was served, after which two tables of bridge and one of rummy were in play. Mrs. Jasper Rowland won top honors in bridge and rummy prize went to Mrs. L. S. McMillan. Daisies were combined with other garden flowers to form a background for the afternoon games.

Mrs. T. C. Johnson, Jr., Hostess At Bridge

Thursday Mrs. T. C. Johnson, Jr., entertained members of her bridge club for several afternoon games.

Two tables were in play, with Mrs. William W. Johnson, a club visitor, winning high score award. During the afternoon the hostess served apple pie a la mode, punch, candies and salted nuts.

Daisies were prettily arranged in colorful pottery and bowls of petunias and sweetpeas added attractiveness to the home.

Dickie Gasque Observes Birthday

In celebration of his seventh birthday, Dickie Gasque, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gasque, entertained a group of friends at his home last Wednesday afternoon.

About twenty children enjoyed games on the lawn, after which they were invited into the dining room for refreshments. Centering the table was a handsomely decorated birthday cake with seven lighted candles. Ice cream, cake and candies were served.

with magnolia blossoms and foliage. Elsewhere in the receiving rooms colorful garden flowers were used in decoration.

Five tables were in play, with Mrs. C. W. Stone being presented high score award. Other prizes were won by Mrs. W. A. Johnson and Mrs. Julian Coleman.

Shouse-Pitts Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Newman A. Shouse, of Whitmire, announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Anne, to Sterling Adair Pitts, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pitts of this city. The wedding will take place in July.

Mrs. Hall Hostess To Actaeon Book Club

Friday at 12:30 Mrs. E. H. Hall entertained the Actaeon Book club at luncheon.

The guests were invited to assemble at the Presbyterian college dining hall where luncheon was served at a prettily appointed table adorned with pink roses.

Afterwards the guests went to Mrs. Hall's home on Hickory street.

Colorful roses and Admiral Byrd daisies were placed about the home.

Clinton Bride-Elect Feted In Orangeburg

Honoring Miss Frances Speake of this city and Miss Lois Shuler of Holly Hill, both brides-elect of June, Misses Becky Deschamps, Margaret Hicklin, Theo Wells, Emmie Lee Hair and Martha McLeod, all of Orangeburg, were hostesses Tuesday evening, May 25, at a bridge party given at the home of Mrs. Fred Bozard in Orangeburg.

There were six tables of bridge. Each guest was presented a corsage, the brides-elects corsages being made up of pink roses. Mixed spring flowers adorned the Bozard home.

During the evening the hostesses served a salad course with punch.

Miss Speake and Miss Shuler were remembered with a gift of silver.

Bridge Club Meets With Mrs. Blalock

Mrs. George R. Blalock was hostess to her bridge club Thursday afternoon assembling players for two tables.

Roses and gladioli made a pretty setting for the gathering. After a number of progressions high score and floating prizes were presented Mrs. C. W. Copeland, and Mrs. I. M. Adair.

Late in the afternoon sandwiches and cold drinks were enjoyed.

Mrs. Dan B. Dachstader was a club guest for the games.

Ella Riddell Circle Meeting Held Tuesday

The Ella Riddell circle of Thornwell Memorial church met Tuesday morning at Florida cottage with Mrs. Hattie Blankenship, hostess.

Mrs. George A. Black, chairman, called the meeting to order followed by a prayer and informative talk on Brazil by Mrs. A. S. Maxwell. Minutes were read and approved and roll called.

After a short session Miss Gladys McPherson led an interesting program on "Origin and Authenticity of the Pentateuch." She was assisted by Mrs. Lois Jordan, Mrs. Maud Hollis and Mrs. J. K. Brown. Mrs. Julian Parker gave an article from The Survey on "Who Can Compete with California?" The meeting was closed with the Mispah.

Betrothed Couple Honored At Dinner

Honoring Miss Marian Pitts and Frank Ramage, whose wedding will take place June 9, Mrs. Pringle Copeland entertained at dinner Saturday evening.

A lovely centerpiece for the dining table was fashioned of gardenias and similar arrangements were repeated for the smaller tables. Covers were laid for sixteen with place cards in keeping with the bridal theme. Magnolias adorned the living room mantel.

After dinner bingo was enjoyed. Miss Betty Jo Eason of Whitmire, was an out-of-town guest for the party.

Assisting Mrs. Copeland were Mrs. J. F. Jacobs and Mrs. William Bailey Owens.

Mrs. Hollingsworth Hostess At Teas

On Friday and Saturday afternoons Mrs. G. W. Hollingsworth entertained a group of friends and neighbors informally at tea.

The receiving rooms of the home were beautifully decorated with flowers of the season. Jardeniers of day lilies were on the porch and in the living room vases of Admiral Byrd daisies, roses, Queen Anne's lace and blue hydrangeas were used at vantage points. Particularly lovely was an antique dome holding Easter lilies, pink carnations and lavender scabiosa.

The tea table covered with a cut-work linen cloth, more a central arrangement of lilies and yellow snapdragons. Elsewhere in the room the yellow motif was accentuated in floral decoration complemented by lighted tapers. Refreshments of punch, sandwiches, assorted dainties and iced cakes also carried out the chosen color note.

Mrs. George Young, of Whitmire, and Mrs. Nene D. Workman, assisted the hostess in the courtesies of entertaining.

Luncheon For Miss Pitts, Bride-Elect

To honor Miss Marfan Pitts, popular bride-elect, Miss Fay Pitts entertained at luncheon at one o'clock on last Wednesday.

Throughout the Pitts home a profusion of colorful spring flowers were used in decoration. Blue hydrangeas, roses in shades of pink and Admiral Byrd daisies were placed on the console. A low bowl of gardenias adorned the coffee table.

Especially effective was the exquisitely appointed luncheon table, carrying out a yellow, green and white color motif, where covers were laid for twelve guests. A wide satin ribbon placed diagonally across the table was caught at either end with lilies, gardenias and silver wedding bells. Regal lilies, yellow snapdragons and fern were arranged on one corner of the table, while diagonally opposite three low silver holders held yellow tapers tied with silver bells.

An old fashioned bride's bouquet of yellow and white carnations marked the bride-elect's place while mirrored place cards were at the other guests' places. On the buffet table, yellow and white Queen Anne's lace were arranged.

Miss Pitts was remembered with a gift.

Miss Mary Shedd, bride-elect, was a special guest of the occasion and was also presented a gift.

Miss Ruth Curry Weds James Alvin Bagwell In Church Ceremony

Miss Ruth Curry became the bride of James Alvin Bagwell in a ceremony taking place Sunday, May 30, at high noon at Calvary Baptist church, with the Rev. J. W. Spillers, pastor, officiating.

The church was decorated with palms, ferns and floor baskets of white gladioli and gypsophila. An arrangement of white carnations was used on the piano.

The wedding music was furnished by Miss Polly Davenport, pianist and Miss Martha Galloway, soloist. Miss Galloway sang "O Promise Me" and as the benediction, "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride chose for her wedding a street-length dress of white faille crepe trimmed with imported point de esprit lace. She wore a white lace picture hat and carried a showered bride's nosegay of gardenias and white carnations tied with rainbow satin, with detachable corsage, which the bride wore with her going-away suit.

Ushers were W. Thornton Curry, brother of the bride, and Lewis Bagwell, Jr., brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Lewis H. Bagwell, mother of the groom, wore a dress of navy crepe with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

After the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a palm beach suit with panama hat and brown accessories.

Mrs. Bagwell is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Curry. She was graduated from Greenwood Business college and now holds a position with the Dixie Home stores.

Mr. Bagwell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Bagwell, of this city, is a graduate of Clinton high school and spent two years in the navy. He is now a student at Presbyterian college, where he is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

After a wedding trip, the couple will be at home to their friends at 602 Musgrove street where they have an apartment.

Out-of-town guests here for the rites were: Mr. and Mrs. Horace Owings, Greenville; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Carter, Betty and Linda Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Woodrow
