To The Citizens Of Laurens County:

I am deeply grateful to each of you for allowing me to proceed with-out opposition for re-election to the office of Sheriff in the coming pri-mary elections. I consider this a great honor, for certainly there are many elections. I consider this a great honor, for certainly there are others in our county capable of carrying on the duties of this office. But feel that the experience I have gained as your sheriff for the past eleven and one-half years will enable me to render a better service in discharging the duties of the office. I have already served you longer than any previous Sheriff. To continue without opposition is also a record.

As the chief law enforcement officer of the county, my primary responsibilities are to see that our laws are enforced, that your life and property are protected. Also I consider crime prevention one of the chief property are protected. Also I consider crime prevention one of the cheft responsibilities. I cannot successfully accomplish these ends without your cooperation. I am vitally interested in making this county a better, safer place in which to live. To shis end I pledge to you my untiring efforts and urge the whole-hearted cooperation of every good citizen.

C. W. WIER, Sheriff

We Are Proud of Our New Name

"JOANNA, S. C."-We of Joanna Cotton Mills Company are honored that the people of Goldville chose to rename this thriving little town in honor of the mill about which the town is built. We are proud of the people who work here, those who make this village what it is - a friendly, clean, wholesome place that is really home to all of us.

For these fine people we are delighted to furnish the best possible facilities of all kinds-homes, paved streets, landscaped lawns and parks, scientific sewage disposal plant, community centers, schools - and to help build and support churches and other necessities of a well-rounded happy community life. Plans are being made for still further progress.

For the fine cooperation among our employees and between employees and managment we are most grateful. This wonderful spirit and the wholehearted loyalty of our employees have enabled our company to force steadily ahead and have indeed built up this ideal village where friendliness and mutual helpfulness are a part of our way of life.

To our employees we give our hearefelt thanks for making the village such a fine place and for naming it for the mill. To newcomers and visitors we extend a hearty welcome.
