Seven Big Games To Be Featured On Station WLBG

Highlighting the world of sports throughout this area this football season will be a series of seven outstanding football games through a special live-to-air sports network with radio station WLBG as a local outlet. October 2nd will open WLBG's broadcast season with the University of North Carolina Tar Heels from the University of Georgia Bulldogs in Athens.

Wally Austin, WSB sports commentator, will give the play-by-play description of the Georgia-North Carolina game and will be broadcasted from Tar Heel Sports stadium, which covers 14 stations in North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia.

Other games of the season will also come through WLBG by special sports network with Jim Fennell, at WCOB, Atlanta, Ga., bringing the play-by-play description of the outstanding games in the Big Ten series for the last two years and has been secured especially for the game. It can be heard over WLBG and the two radio networks.

Outstanding sports to these games will be handled by Fennell, at WCOB, Atlanta, Ga., bringing the play-by-play description of the outstanding games in the Big Ten series for the last two years and has been secured especially for the game. It can be heard over WLBG and the two radio networks.

Through interest of local business men in Laurens and Clinton these games are made possible. Starting times will be announced in advance of the games over station WLBG. The schedule is as follows: Oct. 2, 11:30, South Carolina vs. Clemson; Oct. 9, 11:30, Wake Forest vs. Wake Forest; Oct. 16, 11:30, Wake Forest vs. Wake Forest; Oct. 23, Wake Forest vs. Wake Forest; Oct. 30, 11:30, Wake Forest vs. Wake Forest.

Dr. Hunter Blakely Guest Speaker At Presbyterian Church Next Week

Dr. Hunter B. Blakely, president of Queens college, Charlotte, N. C., will be the guest speaker at the First Presbyterian church during the city-wide evangelistic campaign beginning October 3 and closing October 16. Dr. Blakely is a native South Carolinian and received his A. B. degree from Kraine college, Charlotte, N. C., in 1920. He received his M. A. degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1922. He has studied abroad at the University of Edinburgh, Oxford, and the University of Berlin. He came to his present post at Queens with a background rich in experience in the pastorate and as a professor.

Blakely is the author of "With Christ Into Tomorrow," "Defending the Believers," and "Facing Life's Questions," are a few of the books of Dr. Blakely in the author's series. Following is the schedule of Dr. Blakely's addresses to be given next week, together with his sermon topics:

- Monday, 11 a.m.—"God's Everlasting Message to Men, John 1:16; evening—"Men's Fruitage of the Word Beneficial Purpose" or "The Parable of the Quarreling Children, Matthew 18:21-35."
- Tuesday, 11 a.m.—"The Road of the Great Adventure" or "The Parable of the Good Samaritan," Luke 10:25-37; 7:30—"Men Whom God Can Help" or "The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector," Luke 18:9-14.
- Wednesday, 7:30—"Forgiveness as Related to God and Men" or "The Parable of the Unmerciful Servant," Matthew 18:21-35.
- Thursday, 7:30—"Every Life a Trust from God" or "The Parable of the Talents," Matthew 25:14-30.
- Friday, 7:30—"Living for the World" or "The Parable of the Rich Fool," Luke 12:16-21.
- Sunday, 11 a.m.—"The Church for Such a Day as This," Ephesians 1:22-23; evening—"The Greatest Story Ever Told" or "The Parable of the Prodigal Son," Luke 15:11-32.

Services At Lutheran Church Next Week

In cooperation with the other churches of the city in the week of simultaneous evangelistic services, the Rev. James C. Burt, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, announces the following sermon topics, under the general theme, "Great Christian Truths": Monday, "The Problem of Sin." Tuesday, "The World's Saviour." Wednesday, "The Meaning of Baptism and Faith." Thursday, "The Holy Christian Church." Friday, "The Christian's Mission." Friday, this service is cordially invited to attend these services, at 7:30 each evening.

On next Sunday morning rally day and promotion day will be held in the Sunday school, with an address by Dr. Paul H. Moore, of the department of religious education at North Carolina State University. Holy Communion will be administered at the worship service at 11 o'clock.

SIX-INCH SERMON

By Rev. Robert H. Warner

A LIBRARY OF BIBLE'S LITERATURE. Lesson for October 3, Psalm 119: 9-16, John 20:31-32, II Timothy 2, 16:17.

Memory Selection: Isaiah 48: 8, 9.

The fourth quarter we study the Bible. It is not one book, but many, with different subjects and all forms of literature. It is indeed a library of religious literature. In the Bible, we learn that God gave man's feet in three ways: first, to walk away from every evil way; second, to walk in the word of God; and third, to walk in the light and in the path of God. The Bible is a book that distinguishes it from all other books—it is a revelation of the Spirit of God. The Bible tells us how the Son of God came to earth to save the world, which tells us how the Son of God came to earth to save the world, which tells us how the Son of God came to earth to save the world.

The two verses from II Timothy make the claim of inspiration for the great book. It is unlike all other books in the authority it demands from the heart and conscience, because it is the word of God. It is the record of God's revelation to men, and of his will for men. It is therefore profitable unto teaching, reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, and that the man of God may be complete, furnished completely unto every good work. May the reader find God for himself in the great book.
