County Gas Tax Higher Each Month

Columbia, Oct. 19 — (Special to The Chronicle)—State Treasurer J. D. Bates is distributing among the counties of the state their share of the gasoline tax for October. The total distribution is among the highest to date, with the counties receiving $323,762 as their share of the gas intake for September. This total is well above the $297,683 which was distributed among the counties last October.

Laurens county is receiving $5,902 this month, as compared to the $3,396 received by the county in October of 1947.

The counties receive one cent of the six cent state tax on gasoline, distributed monthly on the basis of licenses sold in the counties. The other five cents of the tax is retained by the state highway department.
