Dinner Party Fetes Betrothed Couple

Miss Blanche McClure and Mabry McCrary, whose wedding will take place November 6, were complimented with a dinner party on Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Edgar C. Taylor, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Causey, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hardin, Jr.

Throughout the Taylor home fall flowers were attractively combined with pyracantha berries for decoration. The table where covers were laid for twelve was centered with a low bowl of chrysanthemums in keeping with the bridal green and white motif observed for the dining room. A three-course dinner was served.

The bride-elect was presented a corsage and the hosts and hostesses remembered the couple with gifts of crystal.

Miss Evelyn Lankford, of Spartanburg, was an out-of-town guest for the party.

Buffet Supper Honors Mrs. Frank Fishman

Among lovely social affairs of the fall season was the buffet supper Mrs. R. E. Jones gave on Sunday evening at her home on Broad street honoring Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fishman, who were recently married in Korea, and are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie S. McMillian, en route to Washington, where they will make their home. Mrs. Fishman is Mrs. Jones' granddaughter and namesake, the former Miss Byrd McMillian of this city.

Throughout the Jones home a profusion of yellow chrysanthemums were used in decoration. In the dining room the beautifully appointed table was centered with an arrangement of chrysanthemums and fern. Elsewhere in the room chrysanthemums and decorations arranged in the Hallowe'en motif were effective.

Supper was served in buffet style to forty-five guests which included the immediate family.

Special guests of the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. James Conway Todd of Laurens, and Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Dailey of this city. Both couples were recently married.

Study Club Meets With Mrs. Brown

Mrs. Marshall Brown was hostess to the Wednesday Study club last week for their bi-monthly meeting.

An interesting program on "Gypsies" was given, with Mrs. George W. Taylor as leader.

During the afternoon the guests were ushered into the dining room where refreshments were served in buffet style. The Hallowe'en motif was attractively carried out in the decorative appointments, with the table centered with yellow-shaded chrysanthemums and black tapers. On the sideboard pine cone goblins and other figures carried out the chosen motif. A salad course and coffee were served.

Pink and white chrysanthemums were arranged in the drawing room and an arrangement of cones and vari-colored gourds was used in the den.

Mrs. John B. Ricketts, of Greenville, was a guest.

Florida Street P.T.A. Host To Faculty

The Florida Street school Parent-Teacher association held "open house" for the city schools faculty at the regular meeting Tuesday evening.

Mrs. John T. Young, president, presided over the business session, and extended a welcome to the visitors. The membership committee reported a total of 248 members enrolled and Miss Sara Gary's third grade section won the prize for having the largest number of parents to attend. W. R. Anderson, superintendent of schools, spoke briefly of the work and accomplishments of the organization. A number of vocal selections were rendered by a quartet from Presbyterian college.

Later, guests were introduced to the faculty members and a social hour was enjoyed in the dining room. Fruitcake, coffee and nuts were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs Entertain At Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Jacobs, III, entertained Mrs. Jacobs bridge club members, their husbands and several additional guests Saturday evening.

Floral arrangements were of yellow chrysanthemums to accentuate the Hallowe'en motif used in decoration.

A dessert course of pie, coffee and Hallowe'en candies was served before cards.

Four tables were in play during the evening, with score prizes being won by Mrs. Gordon Goodale, John William King, Mrs. Robert Black and Hugh Jacobs.

Bridge Club Enjoys Meeting

Thursday afternoon Mrs. J. B. Arnold was hostess to members of her bridge club, assembling players for two tables.

Pink roses and white pom-pom chrysanthemums with ageratum were arranged in the living room and vari-colored chrysanthemums adorned the dining room.

At the conclusion of the progressions high and second score awards were presented Mrs. John W. Finney, Jr., and Mrs. Francis Blalock.

During the afternoon a salad, macaroons, salted nuts and iced drinks were served.

Divorce Referendum Carries Successfully

Columbia.—South Carolina yesterday apparently had become the 48th state to legalize divorce.

But not by any landslide vote in Tuesday's referendum. A sizable mass of voters, many of them encouraged by their churches, clung to the clause in the 1895 constitution that said bonds of matrimony in South Carolina "shall be a lifetime lock on subscribers."

With nearly 1,000 of the state's 1,296 precincts reporting, 35,508 persons had voted in favor of allowing divorce, and 21,231 had voted no.
