men on the council, but they are always voted against by the other members, and the greatest majority is in favor of politics smooth, or rather to vote and knock a tie.

At this meeting, Mayor was nominated to run in the coming election, and they will try to pick good aldermen to serve with him, and not against him. Our town must make progress from here on. Our credit is weak and it is growing weak. We are invited to the outside of town, but they are not invited to the outside of town. The new motto is: "Bastie around or bustie off."
