To Our Friends And Customers...

WE WISH TO TAKE THIS METHOD OF THANKING YOU, THE PUBLIC, FOR YOUR GENEROUS RESPONSE IN HELPING MAKE OUR FASHION SHOP THE LARGEST WE HAVE EVER HAD.

You came, you saw lovely models showing you the latest clothes for the winter and holidays. Some were advanced spring styles. All the merchandise you saw modeled you will find in our Showers.

The models, to whom we are very grateful, were cooperative and willing to do any work we asked them to do. Although a grand prize could not be given to each one, we selected judges with care so they could not be unfair to any model. Two were selected for the best — Mrs. Rae Paluch was the winner of the grand prize, and Miss Sara Lee was the winner of the junior prize. They are both from Laurens. Miss Carolyn Pitts, of Clinton, came in for a tie, but since only one prize was given for this group, Miss Pitts was eliminated after the second showing of these models.

Mrs. Dyke Trakas of Milton's in Laurens, and Miss Betty Ann Campbell of Chazy's in Clinton, were also eliminated—they being employees of the Laurens and Clinton stores.

The latest in hair styling was done through the courtesy of the Laurens Beauty Shoppes and Dell's of Clinton.

The following girls were models for us:

From Clinton—Miss Betty Ann Campbell, Mrs. Charles Galloway, Miss Shirley Dawkins, Miss Mary Lou Few, Miss Carolyn Pitts.

From Laurens—Miss Naomi Sample and Miss Betty Prater.

From Joanna—Miss Sara Lee, Miss Betty Roberts, Miss Anna Lynch, Miss Roka Mims, Miss Margaret Noff, Miss Shirley Tollison, Miss Gloria Mitchell, Miss Miss Davernport, Mrs. Grace Weir, Miss Edna Hughes, Mrs. Roy Tarrant, Mrs. Betty Nell Curry, Mrs. Dyke Trakas, Mrs. Rae Paluch, Mrs. Tracy Hudson, Miss Ann Hudson, Miss Nancy Nally, Mrs. Bob Wham, and Mrs. Claude Martin.

The children models were Misses Jane Davis, Jackie Francis, Dawn Campbell, and Edna Martin, from Clinton; Nancy Longston, Jean Prince, Lana Chapman, Linda Ezelle, Ann Bay and Cecilia Angelkos, from Laurens.

Through the courtesy of Mr. George Causey, of Bonnie Bros., the four June Arden Dresses were given to the following ladies who had the lucky tickets: Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Prince, Mrs. Setzler and Mrs. Grace Montgomery.

Mrs. Nell McCull and Mrs. H. C. Gentry, of Laurens, were given the two Georgiana Dresses—through the courtesy of Mr. M. H. Evin. These ladies were the first two customers of Chazy's in Laurens in 1940—and are still customers of ours.

We are very proud of the fact that you people have confidence enough in us to come out to our shows—and each year by your attendance we know that you enjoy them. We don't claim to be professional—but only amateurs—but next season we hope to give you an even larger and better show.

AGAIN WE SAY, "THANKS"

MRS. ETHEL CHANEY
