SOCIETY

seven-branched candelabra holding lighted tapers forming a setting for the guests. Lighed tapers outlined the altar.
A program of wedding music was rendered by Mrs. James Pitts, organist, and Deary Organ, vocalists. Mr. Martin sang "O Promise Me" and Mrs. Pitts sang "The Wedding Song." Organ selections included "Moonlight and Roses" prior to the ceremony and the traditional wedding marches.
The bride and groom entered to the strains of "The Wedding March" and were greeted by the bridesmaid. The bride, an attractive brunette, wore a sage aqua-trimmed gown with brown accessories and carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid which she later used as a corsage for going away.
C. H. McCarty, mother of the groom, wore black with red carnations.

An informal reception was given for the wedding guests immediately following the ceremony at the McCarty home.

Throughout the home beautiful arrangements of chrysanthemums and other fall flowers in the front and white breads moist with butter in decoration. Cake and coffee were served.

During the evening the bride couple left for a wedding trip and upon their return will reside with the groom's home.

Mrs. McCarty attended the schools Southwestern and Clinton being graduated from the latter. She holds a position as cashier with the J. C. Pusney company. She is daughter of W. H. McCarty of Akron, Ohio, and the late Mrs. McCarty.
Mrs. McCarty and the late Mr. McCarty, is a graduate of Clinton high school. He served several years in the army during World War II, being overseas for two years. At present he is connected in business with his brothers here.
