Woman's Club Meets
The Joanna Woman's club combined their monthly meeting and the annual Christmas party last Thursday evening. About 90 members enjoyed the gala affair.

After the business session, Mrs. R. L. Francis, program chairman, presented a lovely Christmas program with traditional music.

The members of the executive board served chicken salad, and jelly roll with whipped cream, and coffee.

A huge Christmas tree, loaded with attractively wrapped packages was the feature of the evening. Joanna sisters were remembered with gifts.

Mrs. G. N. Foy, president of the club, was presented a gift for her untiring and faithful work of the year.

Rehearsal Party
Immediately following the rehearsal of the McBurnette-Ross wedding, Mrs. Lavinia Cooley and Mrs. Sigsbee Hair entertained at the home of their parents on Taylor street for the wedding party and invited guests.

In the living room the bride's gifts were displayed from a white draped table with ivy intertwined.

The Ross home was attractively decorated with white gladioli, chrysanthemums, fern and ivy. In the dining room the lace covered table was centered with white gladioli and tall burning tapers in silver candle holders on either side. Ham, stuffed apples, sandwiches, nuts and coffee were served buffet style.

Miss McBurnette presented her attendants with dainty-wrapped gifts.

2. Mrs. Whitley will be remembered as Miss Sara Osborne of Joanna.

McBurnette-Ross Wedding Lovely Church Event
In a candlelight ceremony on December 4th at 8 o'clock, Miss Eva Jeanette McBurnette became the bride of Charles Thomas Ross at Epworth Methodist church in Joanna. Rev. H. Felder Bauknight officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken before an altar overlaid with white, with a tracery of ivy and fern, forming a background for white gladioli interspersed with candelabra holding tall white tapers.

Mrs. Carson Nabors, organist, played "Liebestraum" and Schubert's "Serenade," and during the ceremony "Traumerel" was played softly. Mrs. Caldwell Henderson, violinist, played "Indian Love Call" and "Ave Maria." A. B. Galloway, vocalist, sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Henry Wesley McBurnette. The bridegroom's brother, Capt. Fred L. Ross, of Marion, was best man. Ushers were Raymond P. McBurnette of Abbeville, brother of the bride, John Earl Willingham, Wallace G. Carr, of Joanna, and Fred Verner, cousin of the bridegroom, of Greenville.

Mrs. Sigsbee L. Hair, of Columbia, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Miss Jewel McBurnette, of Hiram, Ga., sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Catherine Hendrid of Charlotte, N. C., and Mrs. Lavinia Cooley, of Joanna, sister of the bridegroom.

They wore identical dresses of light blue taffeta styled like that of the bride, and carried nosegays of red carnations with matching satin ribbons. Rose Ann Little of Charlotte, was the flower girl and wore a dress of light blue taffeta styled like the other attendants, and carried a basket of rose petals. Alfred Little was ring bearer.

The bride wore a wedding gown of ivory satin fashioned with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending in calla lily points over the wrists. A full skirt was caught to the bodice with a satin cord. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Immediately following the ceremony the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Ross entertained with a reception at Joanna club. Greeting the guests at the door were Mrs. James Simpson and Mrs. Cecil O'Dell. Mrs. D. M. Carr introduced the guests to the receiving line, consisting of the bride and groom, their parents and members of the wedding party. Presiding at the bride's book was Mrs. Bryce Little. The bride's table was overlaid with a lovely handmade lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake flanked by crystal candelabra holding burning tapers. Serving bride's cakes and punch were Mrs. J. J. Abrams, Mrs. E. H. Hunnicutt, and Mrs. W. W. Hair. Serving mints were Miss Betty Douglas Ross and Miss Barbara McBurnette. Others assisting were: Mrs. Cecil Farmer, Miss Ruth Hair, Mrs. Rudolph Prater, Mrs. Louis Murphy, Mrs. Eddy Price, Mrs. Guy Prater, Mrs. Jack Goodlin and Miss Hilda Oxner.

Later in the evening the bride changed into a navy blue suit for travel. Her accessories were black, and she wore the white orchid from her prayer book as a corsage. After a trip to Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Ross will be at home at 1300 East Seventh street, Charlotte, N. C.

Mrs. Ross is the daughter of Henry Wesley McBurnette and the late Mrs. McBurnette of Hiram, Ga. She is a graduate of Clinton high school and Greenwood College of Commerce. At present she holds a secretarial position in Charlotte.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mallory Ross of Joanna. He attended Clinton high school and North Carolina State college, Raleigh, where he was a member of Phi Epsilon fraternity. He was in the national service for two and a half years and is now employed in Charlotte.
