

South Clinton News For the Week . . .

MRS. MART SATTERFIELD,
Correspondent and Representative

Mrs. S. W. Prather, accompanied by Miss Kathryn Eichelberger and Mrs. Nancy Hughes, was a visitor in Columbia Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hughes and Mrs. Luther Hughes visited Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hughes at Owings Saturday.

Mrs. Essie Crowe of Cross Hill, and Mrs. Sarah Buzhardt of Clinton, visited Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bailard and family recently.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Green of Ninety-Six, were week-end guests of Mrs. Jessie Mills.

Mrs. Matt Davis spent Saturday with Mrs. Addie B. Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Robbins spent the week-end in Greenwood and Ninety-Six with relatives.

Dewey Darby, 52c, of Norfolk, Va., spent the week-end with Mrs. Darby. Mrs. Rose Morris spent the week-end in Chester with her daughter, Mrs. Corrie Gaddy, and family.

Mrs. Lois Webb and children were guests of Mrs. Betty Webb in Joanna for the week-end.

Mrs. Mart Satterfield and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Woodell King in West Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Casey Abercrombie had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Mack Eargle and Mrs. Fred Steen of Newberry.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Marler spent the week-end in Greenwood as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sexton.

Miss Lucille Gilbert of Whitmire, spent the week-end with Mrs. Virginia Wilson and daughter.

Mrs. Minnie Thackston and son of Simpsonville, visited Miss Annie Mae Crawford Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Crawford spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Grady Crawford in Williamston.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Banks had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. John Tucker, Mrs. Mabel Tucker and Loree Tucker of Laurens.

Mrs. Ethel Painter of Gaffney, is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Pearson.

W. M. S. Will Meet Tonight

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. Henry Abercrombie on Pine street at 7:30. This will be the annual Christmas meeting and each member is to bring a gift to be exchanged.

With The Sick

Little Shirley Ann Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Smith, is ill at her home on Magnolia street. Mrs. K. F. Johns remains ill at her home on Peachtree street. Mrs. Homer Richey has been ill the past few days.

Birthdays and Anniversaries

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cato will celebrate a wedding anniversary December 25.

Little Linda Jo Harris will be 2 years old December 22.

Christmas Program

The annual Christmas program and tree will be held at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. The public is invited.

Girl Scouts To Help Santa Claus

At the meeting of the Intermediate girl scouts Monday afternoon it was voted to adopt two underprivileged children for Christmas. The scouts will assist Santa Claus by selecting gifts, trimming trees, etc., for the children adopted.

Boy Scouts Meet

Thursday evening the Boy Scouts met with their leader, Jot Abercrombie, in the scout room on Poplar street. A large number of boys were present. All boys 12 years old and above are invited to join the troop. Ike McCarley is the assistant leader.

Woman's Club To Sponsor a Community-Wide Home Decoration Project for December

At a business meeting of the Woman's club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clyde Trammell, the president, plans for a community-wide home decoration project were drawn up. All residents of Lydia Mill are asked to cooperate with the club in making the village beautiful during the Christmas season and help send out a message of cheer and goodwill by decorating doors and windows with lights, Christmas trees and evergreens visible from the street. Prizes donated by Lydia Mill, will be awarded the owner of the home on each street in the opinion of the judges, that is most beautifully decorated. Out of town judges will be selected. The club slogan for the project is "A Light in Every Window and a Tree in Every Home."

Juanita Fuller Honored On Birthday

Honoring their daughter, Juanita, on her fourteenth birthday, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Fuller entertained with a party in the Scout room Friday evening. A buffet supper was served from a beautifully appointed table, lighted with green tapers in crystal holders. Twenty-six guests were present. The honoree was showered with an array of lovely and useful gifts. Juanita, who is a student of the eighth grade, at Clinton high school, is treasurer of her class and a patrol leader in the intermediate girl scouts at Lydia.

Assisting in entertaining were Miss Kathryn Eichelberger and Mrs. Luther Hughes.

Fashions at Home and Abroad Discussed at "Club 16" Meeting

A very informative and entertaining program was given by the "Club 16" on November 26 at the community center with Mrs. Virginia Rowe program chairman. The program, called "Around the World Fashion-Wise," took members on a mythical air tour of several foreign countries pointing out women's interests and fashions in these countries.

Of particular interest was a fashion show, each member modeling the garment she had made. Special emphasis was made on accessories. The judges were Misses Susan Hall and Adeline Vaughn of Laurens, and Miss Margaret Blakely. George Cornelson presented prizes to Mrs. Devola Hellams, Mrs. Sarah Danhoff and Mrs. Meda Williams.

The members gave an interesting skit, "To Glove or Not to Glove." The guests were invited into the dining room and the following foreign dishes were served: Swedish Smorgasbord, English Tea Cakes, French Petit Fours, Chinese Tea and Brazilian coffee.

Mrs. Rowe states that a description of this program will be entered by the club in the new "Program of the Year" club contest sponsored among clubs throughout the country by Julius Kayser & Co., to encourage the development of interesting, well-rounded programs. Two first prizes of $50 each are being offered to clubs, as well as two second prizes of $25.

Bailey Addresses Woman's Club

P. S. Bailey was guest speaker at the meeting of the Woman's club Thursday evening. Mr. Bailey spoke on the overall value of an organized group of women in the community. Other speakers included Rev. J. H. Walker, Walter Danhoff, W. R. Anderson, who spoke on the possibilities of usefulness of an organization of women. Rev. Walker represented the church, Mr. Danhoff the mills, Mr. Anderson the schools. Miss Margaret Blakely, representing the club, spoke on what membership in a club has meant to me. Mrs. Clyde Trammell, president of the sandwiches, potato chips, cup cakes, club, presided. Refreshments of coffee, cold drinks were served by the hostesses, Mrs. W. A. Parrish and Mrs. Clyde Smith, assisted by Mrs. Meda-Williams, Mrs. T. D. Douglas, Mrs. Mary Parrish, Mrs. Virginia-Rowe, officers of Club 16. The teachers of Providence school were guests of the club. Mrs. J. E.

Wray had charge of the recreation. Officers of the club, introduced by Mrs. Trammell, included: Mrs. W. A. Parrish, vice-president; Mrs. Theodore Queen, secretary; Mrs. Luther Hughes, treasurer; Mrs. J. E. Wray, chairman of program committee. J. C. Boyce, superintendent of Clinton Cotton Mills, was also a special guest of the club.

THE CHRONICLE
Completely Covers Clinton's Trade
Area for Advertisers
There Is No Substitute for Newspaper Advertising

A FRIENDLY WARNING

Building and replacement costs have increased more than 30 per cent. If you haven't increased your Fire Insurance on building and contents to make up for this difference, you stand to lose — heavily. Can we be of help?

S. W. SUMEREL, Agent
CLINTON, S. C.

Jacobs Building—Tele. 80
Representing The Etna Casualty and Surety Company of Hartford, Conn.

OFFICE BOOKS—Ledgers, all kinds, Ledger Sheets, Loose Leaf Binders, Cash Books, Journals, Day Books, Sales Books, Columnar Pads. Call 74. Chronicle Publishing Co.

You'll have to get used to the noise dear, All of Mary's friends want to come here since we bought the FURNITURE from

Prather-Simpson Furniture Co.

So Nice To Come Home To YOUR OWN HOME

The joy and pride that comes with home ownership can be yours — and easily — when you finance with us. Come in and ask about our budget-fitted home loan plan today — to build or to buy.

ALL ACCOUNTS INSURED UP TO $5,000

Current Dividend Rate 3%

Telephone No. 6

A Clinton Institution—Serving Clinton People Since 1909

WATCH GIFT
WITH THE NEW MIRACLE DuraPower Mainspring

ELGIN

Prices Include Federal Tax

CONVENIENT TERMS AT NO EXTRA COST

HAMILTON'S JEWELERS
"A Credit To All South Carolina"