Mr. and Mrs. Chaney Entertain Employees

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Chaney entertained the employees of their Laurens and Clinton stores and their wives and husbands at their home.

Throughout the home Christmas decorations in white, red and green with tall tapers were attractive. A miniature Christmas tree encircled with magnolia leaves and sprinkled with snow adorned the dining table while magnolias banked the mantels.

A turkey dinner was served buffet style to eighteen guests. In addition to the store employees Miss Agnes Burdshaw and Lynn Ledford of Laurens were invited for the occasion.

Miss Strunk Weds Benjamin R. Moyer At Presbyterian Church

The First Presbyterian Church was the scene of the lovely morning wedding of Miss Anna Louise Strunk of Brooklyn, Conn., and Benjamin Russell Moyer of Augusta and Clinton December 20. The ceremony was performed by Dr. W. R. Turner amid handsome decorations of yellow and white gladioli. Dr. Edouard Patte of Presbyterian College played the bridal music.

Almon C. Spencer was the bridegroom's best man.

The lovely bride, who entered with her matron of honor, Mrs. Spencer, wore a becoming suit of forest green gabardine. Her blouse of white crepe was fashioned with a high Chinese neckline which was embroidered in shades of brown and green. Her hat of brown felt was trimmed with a plume and short veil in the same shade, her shoes and bag were of brown reptile. A corsage of white rosebuds completed her costume.

Mrs. Spencer wore a brown gabardine suit and a green blouse. Her hat was of brown felt and her corsage of talisman roses.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Moyer left for a tour of Florida. Upon their return they will live here where their new home is now under construction on Cedar street.

Mrs. Moyer is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Strunk of Brooklyn, Conn.

Mr. Moyer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lee Moyer of Augusta, Ga., and is a member of the coaching staff at Presbyterian college.

Miss Virginia Henry Weds William Paul McKinnon In Lovely Church Rites

Miss Virginia Lue Henry became the bride of William Paul McKinnon at the First Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, December 28.

Dr. W. R. Turner, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony. For the wedding scene the church was lighted by candles in seven-branched candelabra near the altar and in holders in the choir loft. Floor baskets of Woodwardia fern and white gladioli stood beside the altar, and Southern simlax was entwined around the altar candles and used throughout the chancel.

Mrs. Isabelle Pitts furnished organ music, playing "Always" among the prenuptial music and "To A Wild Rose" during the ceremony. Traditional processional and recessional wedding music was played. Miss Anne Pitts sang "Because" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction.

Usher-groomsman were Raymond Crowson of Cramerton, N. C.; Robert Grube of St. Augustine, Fla.; Paul Martin of Seneca; and Karl Gredrickson of Charleston. Leslie Butler of Jacksonville, Fla., was best man.

Mrs. Raymond Crowson of Cramerton, N. C., only sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her dress of ivory lace over blue was fashioned with long sleeves, full skirt, and tiny self-covered buttons ornamenting the bodice. She carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Misses Carolyn Pitts and Fay Pitts served as bridesmaids. Their floor-length dresses of ice-blue satin were made with wide yokes and hip paniers and they wore long gloves of matching material. They carried arm bouquets of yellow roses and yellow snapdragons.

The bride entered the church with her father, William J. Henry, Jr., who gave her in marriage. She wore the ivory satin wedding gown that her sister wore at her marriage in March. It is made with a scalloped bodice and scalloped hip paniers extending to a short train, and with long sleeves ending in lily points at the wrists. Her fingertip veil of Chantilly lace and illusion sprinkled with seed pearls was caught in off-the-face fashion to her hair and she held a prayerbook topped with a white orchid.

For the wedding Mrs. Henry, mother of the bride, wore an aqua suit, black accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. J. R. McKinnon, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy suit with navy and pink accessories and an orchid corsage.

After a short wedding trip the couple will return to the city and be at home on Woodrow street. For traveling the bride wore a suit of green with brown accessories and the green-throated orchid from her prayerbook. Mrs. McKinnon, who will graduate from Presbyterian college in January, attended Winthrop college two years after graduating from Clinton high school. She is studying for her major subjects English and education.

Mr. McKinnon, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McKinnon of Jacksonville, Fla., is a ministerial student at Presbyterian college and a member of the junior class.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. R. R. Phillips of Seneca, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Henry and family of Leesville, and Lt. and Mrs. A. D. Saker of Columbia.

After the rehearsal on Monday evening the bridal party was entertained at a cake-cutting given by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Crowson and the bride's parents at their home on Musgrove road. The hostesses were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. R. R. Phillips and Mrs. Hubert Pitts.

Church Rites Unite Miss Shirley Dawkins And Robert Guy Hughes

A wedding of beauty and simplicity was solemnized Sunday afternoon at four o'clock at Broad Street Methodist church when Miss Shirley Harriett Dawkins became the bride of Robert Guy Hughes of Canton, Ga. The bride's pastor, the Rev. P. L. Bauknight, performed the ceremony.

Ushers were Richard Bell, Decatur, Ga., and Howie Dawkins, brother of the bride.

Baskets of white gladioli and seven branched candelabra holding white lighted tapers outlined the wedding scene. Tracerics of ivy were used on the candelabra stands and altar.

The candles were lighted by Dick Edgeworth of Hartsville, cousin of the bride and Mr. Bell.

A program of wedding music was rendered by Mrs. James Pitts, organist and Miss Ann Pitts, soloist. Miss Pitts sang "O Promise Me" and as a benediction "The Lord's Prayer". Organ selections included Liebestraum, Andantino and the traditional wedding marches.

The groom had as his best man John Gibson of Valdosta, Ga., and Wake Forest college.

Mrs. Bobby Johnson of Hartsville, cousin of the bride was matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a beige suit with matching accessories and carried a nosegay of carnations.

The lovely blonde bride, given in marriage by her brother, Scott Dawkins, Jr., wore a gray suit with gray and moss pink accessories. She carried a white prayer book topped with a purple orchid.

Mrs. S. D. Dawkins, mother of the bride wore a fuschia dress with black accessories and a corsage of lavender gladioli and American beauty roses.

Mrs. E. M. Hughes, mother of the groom wore grey with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott D. Dawkins of this city. She was graduated from Clinton high school and at present is a member of the senior class at Presbyterian college. Mrs. Hughes is a member of Alpha Psi Delta sorority of which she is vice president and is co-ed representative on the student council.

The groom, a native of Canton, Ga., is the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hughes. He was graduated from Canton High school and served three years in the Marine Corps. At present he is a member of the senior class at Presbyterian college where he is class president. He is a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity, The Blue Key National Honorary Society and The Block P Club.
