

CITATION FOR LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION
 The State of South Carolina, County of Laurens.
 By J. H. Wasson, Probate Judge:
 Whereas, L. Russell Gray made suit to me to grant Isabella Fuller Letters of Administration of the Estate and effects of Frank H. Williams.
 These are, therefore, to cite and admonish all and singular the Kindred and Creditors of the said Frank H. Williams, deceased, that they be and appear before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at Laurens Court House, Laurens, S. C., on January 31, 1949, next, after publication hereof at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said Administration should not be granted.
 Given under my hand this 17th day of January, A. D., 1949.
 J. HEWLETTE WASSON,
 Probate Judge.

Bond, Mrs. John T. Little, Mrs. B. M. Dutton, Sr., and Mrs. G. R. Milam. Appropriate music and prayer by Mrs. S. W. Sumerel concluded the impressive memorial service.

Musgrove Club Meets With Mrs. Anderson

The January meeting of the Musgrove Home Demonstration club was held at the home of Mrs. E. F. Anderson.

The project song, "There's A Song In the Air," was followed by a devotional by Mrs. W. R. Anderson, and the Lord's Prayer was repeated. Each member answered the roll call with the name of a book which they had read during the year.

A business session was held and the minutes read by the secretary. Announcements were made concerning the outlook meeting on January 10 and the floor sanding demonstration on January 12. The club voted to change the meeting date to the first Wednesday of each month.

Miss Susan Hall, home demonstration agent, gave illustrations on the selection of furniture for various types of homes.

Later in the afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Harris Honors Miss Florence DuRant

Miss Jean Harris was hostess to a small group of friends for a drop-in honoring Miss Florence DuRant, bride-elect, on Friday afternoon, January 7, at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. John W. Harris.

During the afternoon guests were invited into the dining room where a salad course and other party dainties were served. Centering the refreshment table was a low bowl of early spring flowers combined with greenery and lighted tapers. Similar floral arrangements were used elsewhere in the home for the occasion.

Assisting the hostess and her mother were the bride-elect's grandmother, Mrs. George H. Ellis, Mrs. Gary Dillard and Mrs. E. H. Hall.

The honoree was presented a gift of silver in her chosen pattern, and Mrs. Jerome Norton and Mrs. Robert Hughes, brides of recent date, were also remembered with silver.

Miss Doris Suber Feted On Birthday

Miss Doris Suber, who was celebrating a birthday, was given a surprise dinner Thursday at Blalock clinic by Dr. and Mrs. George R. Blalock and the nurses' staff.

A lovely arrangement of camellias holding a single candle entwined with ivy fashioned a centerpiece for the table. Table appointments and the menu carried out the birthday theme.

A neighborhood drop-in was given on Thursday evening for Miss Suber at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Suber, on Florida street. After a delightfully informal hour, guests were invited into the dining room where refreshments were served buffet style.

Miss Dorothy Liles Weds Lieut. William A. Dicus

In an impressive ceremony, solemnized on Sunday afternoon, January 9, at 4:30 o'clock in the First Methodist church in Bennettsville Miss Dorothy Liles became the bride of Lieutenant William A. Dicus of this city. The Rev. R. C. Griffith performed the ceremony.

The church was decorated with native greenery and baskets of pom-pom chrysanthemums forming a lovely bridal setting. Floor candelabra held cathedral tapers and these were lighted by Tommy Liles brother-in-law of the bride and Colin Davis, brother-in-law of the groom.

A program of nuptial music was rendered prior to the ceremony by Mrs. John Lindsay Hargrave organist, and Miss Wakefield Goodson, vocalist.

Mrs. Grady Hubbard was the bride's matron of honor. She wore a pale pink suit, black accessories and a corsage of blue carnations.

The groom had as his best man, Browning Dicus. The bride was attired in a beige wool suit, with which she used brown accessories. She carried a prayer book with a bronze orchids and showered. Her only ornament was a pin of sapphire and pearls, given by the groom's father to the groom's mother on their wedding day.

Mrs. Liles, mother of the bride, wore a dress of lavender and a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Dicus, mother of the groom wore a dress of grey crepe and her corsage was also of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given for the immediate families and out-of-town guests at the home of the bride's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Colin Davis.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Liles, graduated from Bennettsville High school and Marlboro Business college. For the past four years she has been connected with the Tidewater company in Wilmington, N. C.

Lieut. Dicus, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dicus of this city attended The Citadel and University of North Carolina. At present he is serving with the Marines, stationed at Camp Lejeune, N. C. They are making their home at 111 Church street, Wilmington, N. C.
