District Baptist Brotherhood Meeting Here Monday Night

The Baptist Brotherhood of the Clinton-Greenwood district will meet in the First Baptist church of Clinton Monday night, March 7, for a program of instruction, inspiration and fellowship.

Highlights of this District Brotherhood meeting will include a period of instruction and information by Mr. L. H. Tapscott, of Dallas, Texas, who is the Baptist Brotherhood secretary for Texas. Mr. Tapscott is one of the pioneers of Baptist Brotherhood work in the Southern Baptist Convention and is quite an authority on Brotherhood work. Featured in this meeting will be an address by Rev. Edward L. Byrd, pastor of the Highland Baptist Church, Meridian, Mississippi, who is one of the south's outstanding young preachers.

Other program personnel will include J. Paul Beam of Gaffney, president of the South Carolina Baptist Brotherhood, and T. E. Jones, of Fountain Inn, president of the Baptist Brotherhood in the Piedmont district. Conference Director is John A. Farmer of Columbia, State Baptist Brotherhood Director. The program will begin at 7:30 and close at 9:15. Refreshments will be served by the host church.
