FASTER GROWTH! LESS WASTE!

The new particle form of Spartan's nutritious Chick Starter and Spartan Broiler Ration is aptly named

SPARTICLES

This eagerly-eaten granular form has the same nutritious ingredients as Spartan Mash. Easy-to-see, it encourages extra eating, faster growth and greater poultry profits.

tertained E. J. Grace with a birthday dinner at their home on Pine street. Dinner was served to 22 guests.

Out of town guests were Miss Ethel Grace, Andrew Grace and Carlton Robertson of Pineville, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Nelson and family of Bath; W. E. McGinnis and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Alexander and children of Piedmont.

Birthday Party for Roger Whitmire
Saturday afternoon the community center was the scene of a birthday party when Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Whitmire entertained for their young son, Roger, who was celebrating his sixth birthday. The lounge was decorated to represent a circus. The table with its blue cloth, was centered with a circus wagon drawn by china elephants and camels topped with colorful balloons. Large balloons and many circus animals throughout the rooms helped to further create the circus atmosphere.

The guests on arrival were given orange and blue caps and posed for pictures. Numerous games were played and later the young guests were served refreshments of ice cream, animal crackers, peanuts, pink lemonade. Balloons were distributed as souvenirs to the children. Roger was remembered with many gifts from his little guests. Assisting the Whitmires in the courtesies of the evening were Mrs. Clyde Trammell and Miss Kathryn Eichelberger.

Luncheon Club To Meet
Today at 1 o'clock the Luncheon club will hold its regular meeting in the lounge of the community center. At a business meeting held Monday at the home of Mrs. Rosa Cole, the club selected as its color green and gold. The slogan, "Each for the other and All for Lydia Mills," was also adopted. The club is open to all women of the community and every interested person is cordially invited to attend today's luncheon.

First Aid Course
Carl Johnson is teaching a First Aid course at the community center Monday through Friday from 1 to 3 o'clock. The course, sponsored by Lydia Mills, is one of several to be offered, according to Walter Danhoff, mill superintendent.

Employees are urged to avail themselves of this opportunity of learning what to do, when to do and how, in case of accidents. A number are already enrolled in Carl's class.

Club 16 Meets
"Club 16" held its regular meeting Tuesday night. This was the second in a series of culinary arts the club is studying. Pies, making the main dish of meats, and meat substitutes were demonstrated and served the members.

Mothers Hold Meeting
Thursday morning the Kindergarten mothers held their meeting. Mrs. James Huntley was elected chairman of the club, and Mrs. Carl Johnson director of recreation. Plans were made to entertain the members of the Kindergarten at an Easter party.

Patrol Members Entertained
Saturday morning the community center was the scene of a lovely party when Barbara Ann Whitmire and Barbara Sharpton entertained honoring the members of their patrol, each of whom had the privilege of inviting a special guest. Games, square dancing and singing featured the evening's entertainment. The girls were assisted by their troop leader, Miss Eichelberger, and William Patterson.

Story Hour
Fifty-two boys and girls attended Mrs. Hugh Eichelberger's story hour on Wednesday. She retold the stories of "Abraham and Lot," Isaac and Abraham; and Little Tom Thumb. Many attended the recreation program.

Woman's Club Meeting
Thursday evening the Woman's club held its regular meeting in the lounge of the community center with forty-eight members present. Mrs. W. E. Parrish, vice-president of the club, presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Clyde Trammell. Mrs. W. T. Queen gave the devotional, using 13th chapter of 1st Corinthians. Following a brief business session Misses Ann Pitts and Barbara Workman sang a duet, accompanied by Mrs. James Pitts at the piano.

Continuing the topic, "In the Know," Mrs. Bessie Owens discussed salad making, giving recipes and displaying the Tuna loaf; fruit salad, and a vegetable salad. The salads were served as part of the evening's refreshments.

The club hostesses included Mrs. Clyde Trammell, Mrs. Davenport, Miss Mary Johnson, Mrs. Henry Abercrombie and Mrs. Robbins. Miss Kathryn Blakely, guest of the club, was presented a piece of lingerie, a gift from club members, in appreciation of the help given in typing the club's yearbook. Miss Blakely was also given a standing vote of thanks from the members present.

The club closed its meeting by singing "Blest Be The Tie That Binds."

Brownies Meet
Monday afternoon the Brownies met at the community center with their leader, Miss Eichelberger, and assistant leaders, Gladys McCravy and Dorothy Burnett. Twenty-six little girls were present. Dramatization of the poem, "Golden Keys," highlighted the program. Games led by Gladys McCravy were a feature of the evening's entertainment. The group closed their meeting by using the friendship circle and the prayer, "Three Things I Ask of Thee, Dear Lord," followed by taps.
