

The WOMAN'S PAGE

SOCIETY EVENTS, CLUB AND CHURCH NEWS OF INTEREST TELEPHONE 74 or 495

Young-Reeder Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Mason Young, of near Clinton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn Shannon, of Johnston, and Jack Amick Reeder, of Laurens and Columbia. The wedding will take place June 21 at Hurricane Baptist church.

Watts-Simpson Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. L. Troy Watts, of Mountville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie Ann, to Frank Hunter Simpson, Jr., of Clinton and Clemson college, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Simpson of this city. The wedding will take place June 15 at Mountville Baptist church.

Bridge Club Enjoys Meeting

Thursday afternoon Mrs. I. Mac Adair gave a dessert bridge for members of her card club. Two tables were appointed for refreshments and a sweet course served before cards. At the conclusion of the progression Mrs. Carlisle Neely and Mrs. James Addison were presented score prizes.

'Idle Moments' Club Entertained At Luncheon

At noon on Wednesday, Mrs. F. C. Pinson was hostess to members of the "Idle Moments" club for a lovely luncheon at the R. G. Murphy home. Iris, snowballs, and roses in pretty combinations adorned the home for the occasion. Covers were laid for ten at the dining table and a three-course luncheon served. Gracing the table was a beautiful low bowl of blue iris and pink thrift.

Mrs. Dunlap Hostess To Laurens Club

Mrs. Thornwell Dunlap was hostess to the Laurens Wednesday club at a delightful meeting last Wednesday afternoon at her home near Clinton. The program consisted of a review of "Pilgrims' Inn" by Elizabeth Goudge, given by Mrs. E. J. Collier. Mrs. Dwight F. Patterson, chairman of the program committee, read an outline of the program for the coming year which will be a study of biographies. Miss Beaufort Copeland, club president, presided. Mrs. J. H. Teague, associate member of the club, was a special guest. During the social hour, refreshments were served. Mrs. Dunlap was assisted by Mrs. D. O. Rhame and Mrs. Lawrence Davis, of Clinton, and Mrs. J. B. Hart, of Joanna.

Wednesday Club Meets With Mrs. Shields

The Wednesday bridge club and several additional guests were entertained last week by Mrs. W. M. Shields. Three tables were laid for refreshments in a setting of lavender, yellow and green with Dutch iris predominating in the floral arrangements. Canapes, petit fours, tea and nuts were enjoyed. High score was won by Mrs. William P. Jacobs, III. Mrs. Herbert Lindsay, a bride, the former Miss Hazelhurst Herron, was a special guest and was remembered with a gift.

Joint Hostesses Give Bridge Party

Mrs. Thomas Baldwin, Mrs. Harry Baldwin and Mrs. C. E. King entertained at bridge on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the former, assembling players for three tables. Purple and yellow iris in the card rooms formed a pretty background for the games. High score prize was awarded Mrs. Morris Crump of Laurens, and floating prize went to Mrs. Henry M. Young, Jr. When cards were laid aside the hostesses served a salad course.

Mrs. A. M. Knight and Mrs. Jack Agee of Belton, were out-of-town guests for the party.

Greenville Tea For Clinton Bride-Elect

Miss Joy Godfrey, bride-elect of June, was paid a charming compliment on Saturday when Mrs. Moore Bradley entertained with a seated tea at her home in Greenville.

At vantage points throughout the receiving rooms were a variety of spring flowers in pastel tints. Tulips were used for floral decorations in the dining room, carrying out a yellow motif. Assorted sandwiches, cookies and coffee were served.

About twenty-five guests enjoyed the afternoon affair which assembled a number of Greenville and Clinton friends of the honoree.

Wadsworth Club Has Meeting

Mrs. Carol Devore and Mrs. Claude Monroe were co-hostesses to the Wadsworth Home Demonstration club Thursday, April 21.

Mrs. Ben Workman presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. T. R. Davis. After the singing of a hymn, Mrs. Downes Monroe conducted the devotional, Mrs. L. L. Young called the roll and each member answered by giving her favorite recipe.

Pastries and cookies were demonstrated by Miss Susan Hall, county demonstration agent, assisted by Mrs. Ben Workman and Mrs. C. R. Workman, local leaders.

For recreation, Mrs. Charles Workman conducted a guessing contest. The hostesses, local leaders and Miss Hall served refreshments.

Co-Hostesses For 'Odds and Ends' Club

Mrs. Roy Gasque and Mrs. Frank Boland were co-hostesses for a meeting of the "Odds and Ends" club on Friday evening at the Gasque home.

Covers were laid for eleven guests at the prettily appointed dining table and a hot supper was served. A mixed bouquet of garden flowers made an attractive centerpiece for the table and varied arrangements of the same flowers were used elsewhere in the home.

Books were exchanged and informal discussions were enjoyed during the evening.

Music Club To Meet Next Wednesday

The Music club will meet Wednesday, May 4, in the high school auditorium.

Samuel Woodruff, pianist of Spartanburg, and guest artist, will present the major part of the program. Mr. Woodruff is a graduate of Converse college and has studied a year in New York.

Mr. Woodruff's brother, David Woodruff, flutist, also of Spartanburg, will accompany him here and will play several numbers.

Each club member may invite a guets for the meeting.

Mrs. John W. Little Honors Miss Godfrey

Mrs. John W. Little entertained with a seated tea on Saturday afternoon, April 16, complimenting Miss Joy Godfrey, whose engagement was recently announced.

Thirty friends of the young bride-elect were invited for the tea hours, 4 to 6. Throughout the receiving rooms spring flowers were combined for decoration and the beautifully appointed refreshment table bore an arrangement of water lilies. Mrs. Robert S. Owens and Mrs. Robert E. Wysor poured tea which was served with fancy sandwiches and cakes iced in pastel colors. Also assisting in entertaining was Miss Ella Little McCrary.

The honoree was presented a gift of silver in her chosen pattern by the hostess.

Mrs. Bonner Harvley and daughter, Miss Martha Harvley of Greenwood, were out-of-town guests for the delightful afternoon affair.

Long Branch Club Holds Meeting

The Long Branch Home Demonstration club met at the home of Mrs. Claud Madden Monday afternoon, with Mrs. Bennie Sinclair as assistant hostess. The president, Mrs. Roy Harris, called the meeting to order.

After singing the song of the month, Mrs. T. B. Sumerel gave the devotion.

Following a business session, Mrs. Adeline V. Long demonstrated making and cooking of meringue shells and cheese wafers.

A picture of the group was taken by Mrs. Long for the county home demonstration annual.

After a short contest, the hostesses served refreshments.

Mrs. R. T. Dunlap Hostess At Brdige

Mrs. Thornwell Dunlap entertained two tables of bridge on Thursday, guests being members of her card club.

Spring flowers formed a colorful background for the afternoon games. At the conclusion of the progressions awards went to Mrs. Horace Payne and Mrs. D. O. Rhame. Later the hostess served a salad course.

Garden Club Tour Conducted Tuesday

The Clinton Garden club tour was held on Tuesday afternoon from 3:30 until 5:30 with the following gardens visited: Mrs. R. E. Ferguson, Sr., Mrs. L. S. Bishop, Mrs. Dennis Sowers, Mrs. Frank Kellers, Mrs. L. Russell Gray and Mrs. William J. Henry, Jr.

Each member a guest and refreshments of punch and cookies were served at the Henry home. Mrs. Ferguson also served punch to the visitors at her garden.

The committee in charge of the tour was composed of Mrs. Frank Miller, chairman, Mrs. C. W. Cooper and Mrs. W. P. Jacobs, Sr.

Roberts Children Observe Birthdays

Claire and Gloria Roberts, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Roberts, celebrated their eighth and seventh birthdays Thursday afternoon, April 14, from four until six o'clock with a party.

Forty little girls were invited for an afternoon of fun and games and contests were enjoyed on the lawn, with prizes awarded the winners, and an egg hunt held. Later the group was invited inside for refreshments. In the dining and living room were several arrangements of narcissus, snapdragons, sweetpeas and carnations in pastel colors. The refreshments table, overlaid with a pink linen cutwork cloth, was centered with a beautiful two-tiered birthday cake iced in pink and white and bearing seven and eight candles. The cake was placed on a reflector and surrounded with rabbits and colored eggs, carrying out the Easter motif. Ice cream, cake, rabbit cookies, candy eggs and rabbits were served.

The little honorees were presented many gifts and each guest was given favors of balloons; blow gum and an egg from the hunt.

Assisting Mrs. Roberts in serving and entertaining were Mrs. Bill League, Mrs. Claude Trammell and Mrs. R. W. Phillips.

Garden Club Units Have April Meetings

The Camellia group of the Clinton Garden club met on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. B. Hart at Joanna.

Mrs. H. M. Wise discussed "Summer Gardening". Later refreshments of short cae and coffee were served by the hostess committee. Twenty members attended the meeting.

Mrs. C. E. Galloway with several members assisting was hostess to the Daffodil group.

The program consisting of a round table discussion on "Gardening Problems" was led by Mrs. Robert S. Owens with members exchanging experiences. After refreshments of sandwiches, punch, cookies and mints, the guests were invited to view the hostess garden.

Members of the Iris unit were entertained at the home of Mrs. John W. Finney, Sr.

Mrs. S. C. Hays gave an interesting and informative paper prepared by Dr. Hays on fertilizing and mitching shrubs, roses and other plants. Later in the afternoon guests were invited into the dining room where refreshments of pressed chicken, assorted sandwiches, pastel iced cakes and other dainties with Russian tea were served by the hostess committee.

Nineteen members of the Gardenia division met with Mrs. J. F. Jacobs and several assisting hostesses.

J. S. Boozer, agriculture teacher at the high school was the guest speaker for the afternoon and made a talk on fertilizers and mulches.

During a business hour the group conducted a plant exchange. A salad course and punch were enjoyed after the program. Mrs. Fred Wakarley of New York who is visiting (Continued on page two)

Certified Cold Fur Storage

YOUR FURS CLEANED, GLAZED, STORED. All furs insured while in our care.

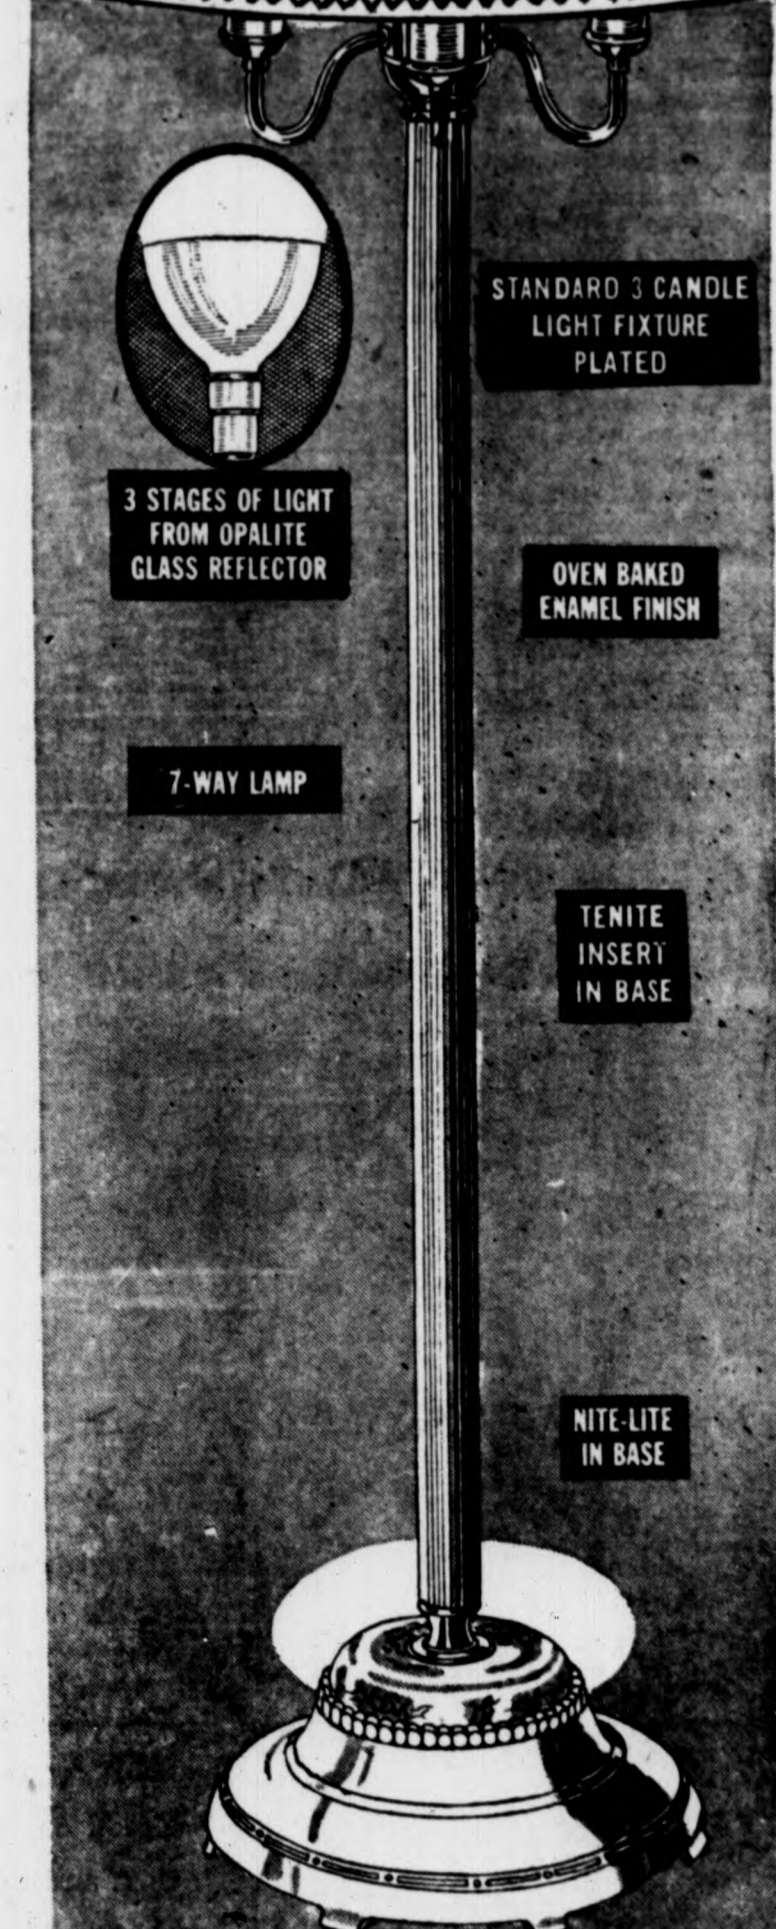

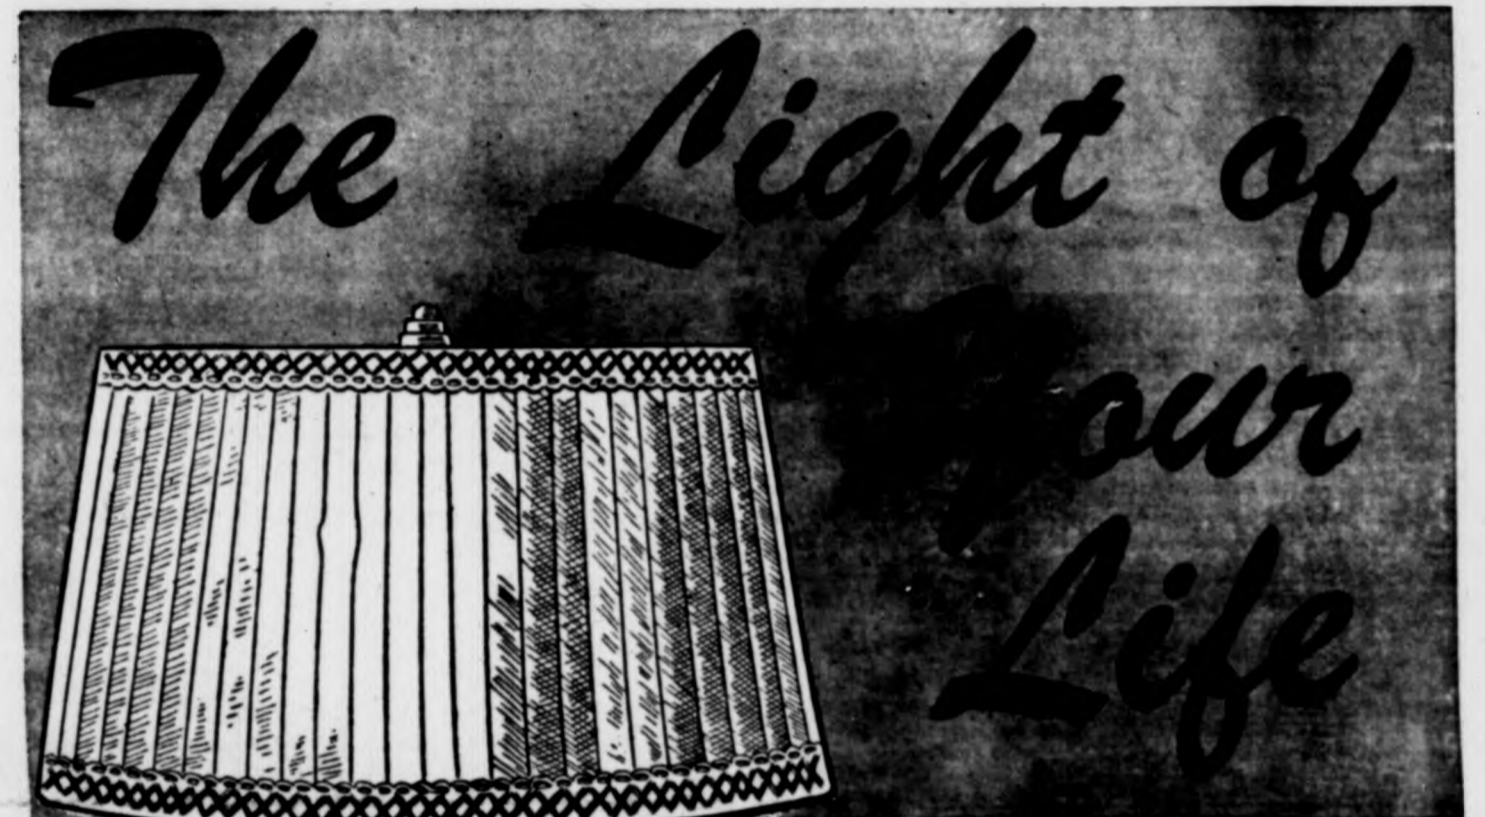

CALL 436

FOR PROMPT AND COURTEOUS PICK-UP AND DELIVERY SERVICE

Sunshine Cleaners

PITTS STREET

PHONE 436

7 WAY FLOOR LAMP
WITH NITE LITE IN BASE

and Outstanding
Pleated Plasti-Silk Shade
Beautifully Trimmed

for only

7 95
COMPLETE

95c DOWN
$1.00 WEEKLY

A $14.95 VALUE

YOU WILL NOT BELIEVE
IT POSSIBLE TO OFFER
THIS GREAT VALUE

SEE IT TODAY!

"A Credit to All South Carolina"
Corner Broad and Main

PENNEY'S Come take the Bargain Ride of Your Life!

47th ANNIVERSARY

VALUES BUILT FOR YOU!

EVERY ONE LACE-TRIMMED!
ANNIVERSARY-PRICED!

1.29

RAYON SLIPS

Another 47th ANNIVERSARY highlight! Soft, soft crepe finish rayon raffeta slips cut to fit everywhere without bunching, wrinkling. Each slip is trimmed ever so daintily with sheer nets, laces . . . and some even have ribbon-run beadings! You'll wonder how Penney's can price them so low! Choice of white or pink in sizes 32 to 42.

C&C MEANS SAVINGS FOR YOU!