

Training School 4-H Club Gives Contest Winners

The State Training school 4-H club achievement program was held last Friday night with the club president, Ruby Darr, presiding. The program featured a dress revue in which 34 4-H girls participated, exhibits and displays of clothing achievement, needlework, food preparation, and canning. The winners in the club will be invited to compete in the county achievement program to be held in July.

In the dress revue six girls placed in the blue ribbon group: Mildred Lovett, Grace Darr, Meadow Wooten, Della McAbee, Virginia Roberts, and Nannie Lou Fowler.

Winners in the junior achievement contest were: Doris Mathis, 1st place; Kathern Lanford, 2nd place; and Irene Stevens, 3rd place. Senior clothing achievement winners were: Ruby Darr, 1st place; Betty Elrod, 2nd place; Lillie Mae Silvers, 3rd place. In the needlework class those receiving ribbons were: Irene Stevens, blue; Nannie Lou Fowler, red; and Frances Fuller, white. Bertha Cook, Lillie Mae Silvers and Jessie Ball received ribbons on pajamas they displayed. Margaret Callahan, Lizzie Mae Anderson, and Valtie Martin received 1st, 2nd and 3rd places, respectively, for aprons. Mattie Lee Wylie, Margaret Upchurch, and Bobbie Jean Mathis received ribbons for housecoats.

In the food preparation contest, Edith Turner and Doris Smith received blue ribbons on their cakes. Mary Catherine Ellis received a blue ribbon on breads. Martharee Silvers placed second.

Anita Silvers received a blue ribbon on her room improvement project.

The 4-H club chorus, directed by Jo Shay, sang "Song of Peace" and "A Song of the Open Country."

Judges were Miss Eloise Johnson, state girls 4-H club leader from Winthrop; Miss Jane Winn, assistant home demonstration agent from Newberry; Miss Susan Hall, county demonstration agent, Miss Adeline V. Long, assistant home demonstration agent, of Laurens.

Club officers are: Ruby Darr, president; Edith Turner, vice-president; Meadow Wooten, secretary, and Bobby Jean Mathis, music chairman. Mrs. Beatrice Sloan has served as local leader of the club for 12 years.
