Joanna School Has Closing Exercises; 3 Teachers Honored

Closing exercises for Joanna school were held last Wednesday evening in the school auditorium, which was filled to capacity. The program was in two parts. An operetta, "Why the Garden Quarrelled," was presented by 81 pupils of grades 1 to 6 inclusive in full costume, and certificates were awarded to those finishing all junior high school requirements.

The invocation was offered by the Rev. James B. Mitchell, followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. Frances Giles, accompanied by Mrs. Gladys Nabors, both of the music department.

As it has been the custom for the Cotton Mills company to recognize long service by its employes, it was thought fitting at this time to make awards for faithful service to teachers in the schools of the community.
