

WHAT could say better how glad you are to see your guests than a delicious baked ham, sliced for help-yourself portions, and shining with a handsome yet easy-to-do glaze? Traditionally started with spicy cloves, juicy and meltingly tender, this is a meat course for buffet parties that's perfect. Serve accompaniments as you please. Potato salad or a casserole of baked beans is simple-to-make yet effective fare. A green salad, some piping hot biscuits or oven-warmed rolls and your main course is complete. Now comes spring, the time when the delicately pink slices of ham seem particularly appropriate to the season. Follow directions on the wrapper for cooking your ham and salute the spring with a party all your guests will enjoy.

The Clinton Cavaliers proved to be a different and improved ball club upon their emersion from the cellar spot where they were stationed in the standing of the Central Carolina League during the first part of the season.

After leaving the cellar Clinton has humbled the league-leading Watts Warriors for three games and have knocked off the second place Ware Shoals Riegels once.

Last Friday night the Cavaliers hopped on three Watts pitchers for 23 runs on an 18-hit merry-go-round. Charlie Gaffney led Clinton's bats-go-round with a perfect night of four hits for four trips to the plate. Two of these were doubles. There were eight home runs hit in the track meet. McWhorter collected two circuit trips in one inning while "Blackie" Blackstock tapped a circuit blow in the first and collected another in the eighth. Crocker and McWhorter did mound duties for Clinton. The "comedy of errors" totaled up a 23-9 victory for the Cavaliers.

Clinton went to Watts Saturday night and lost a tough 5-3 decision. Whit Bowie, Clinton manager, is protesting the game on the grounds that the umpire changed an important decision in favor of Watts.

Monday night the Cavaliers edged Ware Shoals 1-0 in a well played game before approximately 2000 fans. Charlie Gaffney accounted for Clinton's run when he clouted a homer into the pines behind the right field wall. Wayne Johnson, making his debut with the Cavaliers, pitched fine six hit ball and received exceptional support from his team mates.

The game Tuesday night with Riverdale was called off because of the clashing of clouds and the rains that followed.

In the Mid-State League Lydia's Lions strengthened their hold on the first place standing in the league statistics by trimming Monarch.

William Rowland threw a two hitter at the men from Monarch. This was Rowland's second two hitter of the season. Lydia's power lies in the sturdy right arms of Rowland and Jimmy Hairston and also in the power-laden bats swung by the rest of the smooth working ball club.

Joanna dropped a close 6-2 decision to Matthews in a King Cotton League game played last Saturday night.

Although inhabiting the cellar spot in the King Cotton League, Joanna has displayed a good bit of up-and-coming talent—referring to "Boo" O'Shields, handy man around the infield, and T. Abrams, hefty chunker.

Challenging Speech Made By Hoover

That was a bold and challenging speech which former President Herbert Hoover made at Ohio Wesleyan university during the week-end, when he took a vigorous dig at the brand of "New Era" thinking which substitutes security for self-reliance.

Certainly the topic is timely, for there are few corners of the world where it isn't being discussed and in many cases experimented with. Even John Bull, who through the generations has stood for solid conservatism, now is up to his neck in Socialism.

eliminates the risks of life, it "also kills the joy that lies in competition, in individual adventure, new undertakings and new achievements. These contain moral and intellectual impulses more vital than even profits, for from them alone comes national progress."

This is from a man whose life is a romance of American success. He was orphaned at 10 and was self-supporting by 15. He rose to the top as a mining engineer, working in many parts of the world. Fame came to him for his relief administration work in Europe during World War I, and finally he was elected to the presidency. Previously he had served eight year as secretary of commerce. And it is recorded that Hoover gave every dollar from his public salaries to help the needy.

"At all times in history there have been many who sought escape into 'security' from self-reliance," said the ex-president. "And, if you will look over the workings of these newest eras throughout the world, you may notice that the judgment of the Lord on Adam has not been entirely reversed, even by the supreme court of the United States."

"Moreover, governments have not been able to fix the wages of sin. Nor have they found a substitute for profit and other personal stimulants."
