Graham-Edwards Engagement

Mrs. John H. Graham announces the engagement of her daughter, Martha Kate, to Joseph Vernon Edwards, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Edwards of this city. The wedding will take place in the early fall.

Thomason-Winslow Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton T. Thomason, of this city, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Frances Doyle Thomason, of Atlanta, Ga., to Donald Rexford Winslow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rexford R. Winslow of Sanford, Maine. The wedding will take place September 4 in Pisgah church, Fountain Inn.

Dessert Bridge Given for Club

Mrs. Carroll White Copeland was hostess to members of her card club for dessert bridge Thursday afternoon.

Two tables were arranged for refreshments in a setting of roses and zinnias and a sweet course was enjoyed before the games. When scores were counted Mrs. W. A. Danhoff and Mrs. Hubert Boyd were presented awards.

Methodist Circles, Society To Meet

The Circles and Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet jointly Monday afternoon, July 11, at 4 o'clock at Broad Street Methodist church.

The Sara Glenn circle will meet at 8 o'clock in the evening with Mrs. Lewis Pitts. Assistant hostesses will be Mrs. C. H. McCrary, Miss Maud Geer and Miss Kate Milam.

Methodist Women Plan Picnic

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Broad Street Methodist church is planning an old-fashioned family picnic Wednesday afternoon, July 13, at 5:30 at Happy Acres. All members with their families are invited to attend and bring a picnic basket with tea.

Miss Cleo Bane and Miss Ruby Shaw, of Epworth orphanage, Columbia, who are visiting members of the society here this week, will be guests for the outing.

Mrs. J. P. Rowland Hostess At Bridge

Mrs. Jasper P. Rowland entertained members of her bridge club and several additional guests at her home on Thursday afternoon.

Colorful flowers of the season were arrayed to form a setting for the three tables in play during the afternoon. Score prizes were presented Mrs. R. C. Adair and Mrs. H. L. Eichelberger, while floating prize went to Mrs. Harry McSween.

Late in the afternoon salad and sweet courses were served with tea, with a number of guests calling after cards. Two out-of-town visitors here, Mrs. S. N. Connolly of Miami, Fla., and Mrs. E. R. Dailey of Junction City, Kansas, were guests for the occasion.

Sara Ray Has Birthday Party

Sara Ray, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Ray, was hostess at a colorful party given at her home Thursday afternoon, June 30, in honor of her seventh birthday.

About thirty-five little friends enjoyed the festivities in a setting of decorations with pink as the prevailing theme. A number of outdoor games were directed by Miss Jane Ray, after which the honoree opened her gifts.

In the center of the refreshment table around which the group gathered to sing "Happy Birthday" was the prettily decorated cake. Ice cream, individual cakes and candies were served.

Books and gaily colored balloons were given the children as favors. Assisting Mrs. Ray in serving were Miss Leone Crosby of Union, Mrs. B. B. Ballard, Miss Lily Yarborough, and Mrs. R. P. Wilder.

Announcement Party For Miss Neighbors

A lovely announcement party was given on Wednesday for Miss Elsie Neighbors, who will be married in August to Paul M. Stanley of Hartsville.

Mrs. Fred Oxley, Mrs. Billy Pitts and Miss Florence Adair entertained at luncheon at the R. G. Murphy home, assembling twelve friends of the honoree.

The luncheon table presented a pretty picture, appointed in a green and yellow motif. A corsage marked the place of the bride-elect. A hand-made lace cover over yellow was used and at one end was a silver bowl of gladioli and daisies. Green and yellow ribbon with daisies ran diagonally to the opposite corner, where a nest of yellow maline between two love birds held a heart announcing "Paul-Elsie — August 1949." Yellow tapers in silver lace holders flanked this arrangement. A delightful three-course luncheon was served.

In the living room, gladioli, daisies and nasturtiums were attractive. The hostesses' gift to Miss Neighbors was crystal in her chosen pattern.

Atlanta Visitors Are Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Owens, of Atlanta, Ga., who have been visiting the former's mother, Mrs. William Bailey Owens, were widely entertained during their stay here.

On Saturday evening, June 25, Mrs. Owens gave a dessert bridge for her guests.

Mrs. C. W. Stone was hostess at a bridge-luncheon Monday for Mrs. Owens.

Mrs. Pringle Copeland entertained with a morning bridge party followed by a luncheon on Tuesday.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. K. R. McMaster was hostess for a dessert bridge complimenting the visitor.

Mrs. Owens was honored guest for bridge at the home of Mrs. R. C. Adair on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ferguson invited guests for three tables of bridge Wednesday evening.

Thursday at noon Mrs. John W. Finney, Sr., was hostess at luncheon at Happy Acres.

Assembling members of the families and a number of friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jacobs were host and hostess on Thursday evening for a picnic. An outdoor supper was enjoyed at the Cornwall place on Duncan creek.

A bridge party was given by Mrs. Pringle Copeland, Jr., on Friday afternoon complimenting the Atlanta visitor.

Honoring both Mr. and Mrs. Owens, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Shields entertained with a dinner party on Friday evening.

Mrs. R. E. Sadler gave a delightfully informal drop-in party on Saturday afternoon for Mr. and Mrs. Owens.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Jacobs entertained guests for six tables of bridge for the visitors.

Miss Rose Watson Weds Mr. Carmical In Church Rites

The Red Springs, N. C., Presbyterian church was the scene of a lovely candlelight wedding on Thursday afternoon at five-thirty, when Miss Bessie Rose Watson became the bride of William Newton Carmical. The vows were spoken before the Rev. Thomas A. Fry, pastor of the bride.

Preceding the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was presented by Henry Hodgkin, Jr., organist, and Miss Carolina Buie, soprano, of Richmond, Va., soloist.

The bride entered with her brother, N. P. Watson, Jr., by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a wedding gown of white marquisette with fitted bodice, long full sleeves, and full skirt. The square neckline was outlined with imported lace. Her full length veil of bridal illusion was caught at the hair with a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white satin prayer book, topped with a white orchid, and showered with stephanotis.

Miss Gay Watson, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor, and Miss Frances Leonard, of Woodruff, S. C., her only bridesmaid. They wore dresses of orchid marquisette, and carried nosegays of summer flowers. Little Linda Candy of Four Oaks, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Earl Watson, of Red Springs, attended the groom as best man. Groomsmen were Donald and David Watson, Douglas McPhaul, and Archibald Lovin, all of Red Springs.

The mother of the bride wore navy sheer with white accessories, and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's sister, Miss Anne Carmical of Newnan, Ga., wore an afternoon dress of soft green with black accessories. Her corsage was mixed flowers.

Following the ceremony, the bride and groom left for a wedding trip to the mountains of North Carolina. For going away, the bride wore a two-piece suit of lime green Sacany with white accessories, and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Carmical is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neill Pat Watson of Red Springs. She was graduated from Flora MacDonald college, and taught for three years in the Thornwell orphanage high school, resigning the position last year.

Mr. Carmical is the son of W. N. Carmical and the late Mrs. Carmical, of Newnan, Ga. He is a graduate of the University of Georgia, and was with the armed forces for five years, serving two years overseas. He is connected with the Pate Supply company in Pembroke, where the couple will make their home.

SIX-INCH SERMON

By Rev. Robert H. Harper

PILGRIM MARCHING SONGS

Lesson for July 10: Psalms 122: 134.

Memory Selection: Psalms 122: 1.

It appears that Psalms 120 through 134 were used by pilgrims going yearly to the Passover. Especially in the later period, when Jews were scattered afar, these songs were in wide use.

Other things made them eager, but the desire to visit the grand and glorious temple was the chief thing that inspired the pilgrims. Christians should be glad when the opportunity comes to go into the house of the Lord. They should lay aside the many distracting things and devote the Sabbath to worship. Certainly a better observance of the Lord's Day is a pressing need.

It is evident the people had a great pride in Jerusalem and the temple. They sang in their marching songs of their glory and prayed for the prosperity of both. Thus did the pilgrims pray for the benedictions of God upon the loved places whither they traveled.

The last Marching Song, one of three verses, is believed to have been used when the pilgrims reached the gates of Jerusalem. The words, "that by night," would indicate that the night had come. It is supposed that priests from within answered with the words: "Jehovah bless thee out of Zion."

The picture of these ancient pilgrims should stir us to greater concern for the present church and the worship of the sanctuary. Let us learn to love the church more and give ourselves with warmer zeal and larger consecration to its work.

Shealy Reunion Set For August 21

The officers and committees for the Shealy Reunion held a meeting

Sunday, June 19 at Grace Lutheran Church, Prosperity. Plans were made for the forthcoming Reunion to be held August 21, 1949 at the old Shealy homestead, Pine Ridge, five miles south of Chapin. This reunion for all the Shealy generations is held every year so let's make our plans to go this year as we are working hard to make this the biggest and best one held yet.

There will be plenty of music, speeches, laughter and delicious food from all those wonderful picnic baskets. Don't forget August 21st, so make a date to meet all your Shealy relatives and friends there.
