Leaman-Petit Wedding at Cross Hill Lovely Church Event

Cross Hill, Aug. 30.—Centering wide social interest was the lovely wedding of Miss Helen Miller Leaman of Cross Hill and Edward LeRoy Petit of Hendersonville, N. C., which was solemnized Sunday, August 21, at five-thirty in the Liberty Springs Presbyterian Church. The Rev. W. D. Ratchford of Glenn Springs, assisted by the bride's pastor, the Rev. W. G. Somerville officiated. The double ring ceremony was used.

The marriage vows were spoken in a beautiful setting of natural palms as a background. In the center was large arrangement of white gladioli. Seven tall standards with burning tapers were used and across the chancel were other white gladioli and fern, arranged on a white background.

Mrs. S. L. Major organist and Mrs. G. F. Williams and Miss Marjorie Smith vocal soloist furnished the wedding music. Mrs. Major played Angela Serenade, "O Perfect Love" and "Claire de Lune." Miss Smith sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction. Mrs. Williams sang "Because."

The bride was given in marriage by her father S. M. Leaman and the bridegroom had his father, E. E. Petit of Hendersonville, as best man. Usher groomsmen were Ralph Petit of Hendersonville, brother of the bridegroom, Paul Guerry of St. Charles and Roswell Wilson of Rock Hill.

Miss Josephine Leaman, sister of the bride was maid of honor and Mrs. Stathy Verenes, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Davis of Augusta, Ga., Miss Miona Kearse of Bamberg and Miss Margaret Page of Nichols.

The bride's attendants were identically gowned in blue morre taffeta styled with tight bodices with double bertha and full skirts. They wore blue net mitts and blue picture hats fashioned of net, with designs of hearts and love knots in the brim with bands of blue ribbon hand embroidered in pink roses. Their bouquets were pink gladioli and blue delphinium tied with pink satin streamers.

The bride wore a white slipper satin bridal gown fashioned with a yoke of marquisette outlined with chantilly lace and seed pearls. The sleeves were long, ending in calla points and her veil was French illusion and she wore a Juliet cap. The full skirt ended in a court train and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and tuberoses.

Mrs. S. M. Leaman, mother of the bride wore an afternoon dress of toast brown crepe trimmed in brown lace, a brown felt hat feather trimmed and her corsage was an orchid.

Mrs. Petit, mother of the bridegroom, wore rose crepe with a white felt hat and an orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pinson were at the front door. Mrs. Major and Hugh Leaman received in the living room and introduced to the wedding party.

In the gift room were Mr. and Mrs. Marion McMillan, Mrs. Mary White, Miss Agnes Leaman and Mr. and Mrs. James Leaman. In the dining room were Mr. and Mrs. Furman Griffin, Miss Lizzie Carter and Mrs. Blanche Rasor.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Williams presided over the register and goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Albert McMeekin.

Block ice cream, bridal cakes in valley lily design and mints were served by Miss Sara Chapman, Bettie Leaman, Martha Joe McMeekin and Jocelyn Hollingsworth.

Mrs. Petit was graduated from Winthrop college and was a member of the Aiken school faculty for the past year.

The bridegroom attended The Citadel and graduated at the University of South Carolina. He was a first lieutenant in the Army Air Corps and was overseas 18 months. Mr. and Mrs. Petit will both teach in the schools of Hendersonville this session where they will make their home.
