The market on grid victories in Clinton particularly went during this week when the forward marching Presbyterian Blue Host topped through Erskine's Flying Fleet the Clinton high Red Devils defeated a heavily undefeated Belton team and the Thornwell Golden Gobblers ran rough shod over a weaker Connie Maxwell team.

Presbyterian Sinks Fleet
The PC Blue Host completely outclassed Erskine's Flying Fleet and sent them to a defeat with a 39-13 victory.

Paul Martin topped through Erskine's Flying Fleet and played a standout ball the entire game. Walter Brown, Ken McMillan, George Fleming and Elmer Watts made line madmen as they sprang over the Fleetmen.

PC will meet a tough job Friday night when they tangle with Furman's Hurricanes.

Both teams have one upset to their credit as the Hurricane swept over South Carolina's rocky Gamecock and Presbyterian did the unexpected by lowering Davidson's standing with a 27 to 6 victory.

Walter Johnson might will be observed that night on the football field in Greenville.

Red Devils Romp Over Belton
Red Devils hung a 20 to 0 victory over the heads of the Belton Warriors and thus dropped them from the ranks of undefeated and unscathed upon.

Richard Hampton charged two of the Devil's tackles while Alvin Nabors roared across the twin stripes for the other dividend.

Clinton proved from the first to be the better team as they took the ball on their own three-yard line and turned on a sensational march for 77 yards to score in the first period.

Jimmy Few, Devil end, helped Clinton keep up the pace by snagging several long passes.

On defense, Eugene Simmon and Herbert Fallow reeled and rocked at the outstanding linemen of the night.

Clinton Plays Laurents
The undefeated Clinton Red Devils will meet their greatest threat to undefeaten tonight as they bump heads with a strong Laurents Tiger eleven.

Laurents had been undefeated until last week when they lost out to the powerful Greer grid gladiators. Greer downed Laurents with a 13 to 12 score and was considered lucky to get by the Tigers with a victory.

Laurents is in perfect shape for the game and will be expected to throw the book at Clinton in order to redden themselves for the linking they received from Greer.

Clinton will go on the field with practically all the starting linemen present with the exception, maybe, of Marvin Manley, tackle, who may be forced to sit this one out because of knee injuries. Earl McElhannon is another question mark in the Clinton starters since he has been troubled with knee injuries also. Through of people are expected to turn out for the big battle of the season.

Both teams have so much to lose by losing so both squads should be out for blood and blood alone.
