U. D. C. Meets With Mrs. Yarborough

Thursday evening Mrs. Dan Yarborough was hostess to the Stephen D. Lee chapter U. D. C. for the October meeting.

Red roses were effective against the turquoise blue mantel in the living room and pink carnations were arranged on the coffee table.

Mrs. Yarborough, president, presided over the business session. She urged members to attend the state convention in Florence October 20-22.

The chapter had as its guest speaker Mrs. A. S. Maxwell of the Thornwell orphanage, staff and a former missionary to Brazil. She spoke of her work and experiences in that country.

During the social hour the hostess served a salad course, Russian tea and cake.

Music Club Holds First Fall Meeting

The first meeting of the fall for the Clinton Music club was held Wednesday afternoon of the past week at the home of Mrs. Harry McSweeney. Assistant hostesses were B. B. Ballard, Mrs. Caldwell Henderson, Mrs. Jasper Rowland and Mrs. R. S. Truluck.

Mrs. Ed Sadler, vice-president, presided over the meeting.

Mrs. Frank Fowler had arranged the afternoon program on Chopin in Commemoration of the 100th anniversary of his death. Mrs. Henderson Pitts gave an interesting sketch of the composer's life and work. Three of his piano compositions were played by Miss Martha Washington, Miss Luva McDonald and Ferdinand Jacobs, Jr.

Later the hostesses served Russian tea, sandwiches and cookies. For the occasion the hostess home was attractive with autumn arrangements including roses, dahlias, zinnias and marigolds.

Miss Moore Bride of B. C. Williamson, Jr.

Miss Dorothy Harriett Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Nash Moore, of this city, and Benjamin Cabe Williamson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Williamson, of Washington, Ga., were quietly united in marriage on Friday afternoon, September 30, at four o'clock at the home of Mrs. John B. Ferguson on Maple street, with Dr. R. K. Timmons, officiating.

A program of nuptial music preceded the ceremony and at the close of the rites Joe Beale, of Atlanta, Ga., student at Presbyterian college, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The attractive brunette bride was becomingly attired in a brown suit with brown accessories. She carried a white bible topped with red roses.

Miss Roslyn Cason, of this city, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a lime green suit with a corsage of pink carnations. Clarence Roberts, of Laurens, was the groom's best man.

Mrs. Williamson holds a position as bookkeeper at Scott's Store. She is a graduate of Clinton high school and attended the Virginia Intermont Business college in Bristol, Va.

Mr. Williamson is a graduate of Washington high school, Washington, Ga. and is a member of the junior class at Presbyterian college. During World War II he served with the 2nd Marine Division for thirty-three months, nineteen months being spent in the Pacific theatre of operations.

Following a wedding trip to Augusta and Washington, Ga., the young couple are residing in an apartment at 110 Hickory street.

County Drive For Physically Handicapped

J. Hewlette Wasson of Laurens, county chairman for Vocational Rehabilitation Services, states that a drive will be made October 13-15 to secure memberships for the organization. The object of the effort is to get the public acquainted with the work of the organization. Laurens county was ahead in the campaign last year and hopes to make a good showing again this year Mr. Wasson said. In the state last year 1,742 physically handicapped people were trained for service by this non-profit organization. The membership fee will be only for the literature purchased during the year. Lawrence Curry will be at the local employment office to give information pertaining to the work and need, and Boy Scouts will also help with the drive, it is stated.
