Stewart, Ga. Later promoted to tech sergeant, he attended Enemy Aircraft OCS at Camp Davis, N. C., and graduated as a 2nd Lt. in September, 1942. His first assignment took him to Fort Eustice, Va., as an anti-aircraft instructor. While there he was promoted to 1st Lt. Receiving his overseas orders on February 8, 1945, he shipped to Italy and served with the 10th Mountain Division for eight months in the North Apennines and the Po Valley campaigns. He returned to the states in September, 1945, and was discharged the following November.

After trying his hand at farming for nearly 20 months, Mr. Spires reenlisted as a staff sergeant in July, 1947, and was assigned to the 38th F. A. at Camp Carson. Later he became operations sergeant for the 3rd Battalion, 14th Inf., where he remained until he was notified of his warrant last month. He will be on detached service with Headquarters Co., 14th Inf., until the 3rd Battalion returns.

Mr. Spires is entitled to wear the Bronze Star, the American Defense, Victory, American Theater, Occupation and EAME Ribbons, and Combat Badge.

Sexton-Reece Wedding

In a wedding marked by beauty and simplicity Miss Mildred Sexton, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Sexton, and Talmadge Reece, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Reece, of Langley, were united in marriage at 4 o'clock at the Pentecostal Holiness church Sunday afternoon, October 30.

Rev. James H. Taylor of Pelzer, assisted by Rev. Reece, father of the bridegroom, conducted the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Cleve Jennings, pianist, and Bobby Reece, brother of the bridegroom, soloist. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white taffeta dress with the veil lying in folds to the waist. She carried a draped prayer book topped with a lavender orchid. Her maid of honor and only attendant was Miss Betty Smith of this city, who wore a royal blue dress with a headpiece of gold chrysanthemums and carried a matching nose-gay.

Ushers were Charles Sexton of Anderson, and Carl Sexton of this city, brothers of the bride. Serving as best man was Hampton Atkinson of Shawville, Va.

The vows were spoken before a white covered altar with hanging ivy and branched ivy forming a background with two candelabras and baskets of white gladioli. The Lord's prayer was sung as the couple knelt at the altar.

Immediately following the ceremony the young couple left for Florida for a wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside in Langley.

Hallowe'en Social Given Young People

The junior missionary society of Bailey Memorial church together with other members of the church, sponsored a Hallowe'en social on October 31 at 7:30 in the basement of the church for the boys and girls of the community.

The adults and children had been asked to come masked for the occasion.

The basemen was decorated in the Hallowe'en motif and one room was decorated as the chamber of horrors. The guests were invited to visit this room of which many shrieking things could be seen and heard. After much merriment of the many masked parties, the "devil" then appeared on the scene dressed in a bright red costume and mask carrying his pitchfork.

Some of the children told him they had done nothing wrong but almost unmasked him. He then unmasked and many were very much surprised to find it was the pastor, Rev. John H. Holland, who gave a very short talk bringing out the moral of how the children had gotten rid of the devil in the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Freet had been invited to help plan for the social. Refreshments of doughnuts, popcorn and drinks were served by the junior girls to the group.

Junior Society Meets

The junior missionary society of Bailey Memorial church met on Tuesday afternoon at the Lydia community center with Mrs. David Word as hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Linda Dunaway.

The devotional was given by Florence Saville, and prayer was offered by Mrs. Word.

Mrs. Ione Wallace and Mrs. Art Freet led the group in a number of Hallowe'en games which were enjoyed by all present.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting is to be in the home of Patsy Cunningham.

Charles E. Lowery Passes

Funeral services for Charlie E. Lowery, 45, who died Friday afternoon at the Veteran's hospital at Swannanoa, N. C., after several months of illness, were conducted Sunday afternoon at 4:30 at Calvary Baptist church by the Rev. J. W. Spillers and the Rev. John R. Holland. Interment followed in Rosemont cemetery.

Pallbearers were Ralph Riddle, Elmer Queen, James B. Meadors, Woodell King, Berry Trammell and Roy Ginn.

The honorary escort was composed of members of the local American Legion post.

Mr. Lowery is survived by his wife, one son and two daughters, two brothers and one sister.

Two glasses which have stuck together can easily be separated without breaking the glasses if you will fill the inner glass with cold water and run hot water over the outer glass.

When you need kindling in an emergency, roll several sheets of newspaper together and tie a knot in them.

If the fat in a broiling pan catches fire, turn off the flame or the heat immediately. Throw salt on the fire until the fat stops burning. Never use water.

Soft hairbrushes may be stiffened if they are dipped in a mixture of equal parts of water and milk. Dry the brushes before an open fire.

Separate stamps which have stuck together by placing a thin sheet of paper over the stamps and running a warm iron over them.

Glass decanters are easily cleaned by placing crushed egg shells in them with strong soap suds. Shake well, then rinse.

If your thimble is too large to stay on finger, wet finger before inserting into the thimble.

When suede shoes become scuffed in spots, rub gently with an emery board to help bring up the nap of the suede. Brush with a stiff-bristled brush.

Some stains can be removed from marble if you apply salt which has been moistened with lemon juice. Let the salt remain on the stain for an hour.

Patent leather shoes can be cleaned with vaseline jelly and a soft flannel cloth. This treatment also prevents the leather from cracking.

RECIPE FOR THE WEEK

Fluffy Potato Pancakes

(Serves 4)
2 cups grated potatoes
4 eggs, separated
1/4 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon flour
To prepare potatoes, pare and soak in cold water for 12 hours. Grate and drain thoroughly. Add egg yolks, salt baking powder and flour. Beat well. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Drop by spoonfuls on to a well-greased skillet which has been heated. Brown on both sides. Serve with applesauce.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Crisp Oatmeal Cookies

(Makes 60)
1 cup shortening
1 cup brown sugar
1 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs, beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 cups quick-cooking oats
1/2 cup chopped nuts
Cream together sugars and shortening; add eggs and vanilla. Add sifted dry ingredients, then oats and nuts. Shape into rolls and wrap in waxed paper. Chill thoroughly, then slice one-fourth inch thick and bake on an ungreased cookie sheet in a moderate (350 degrees F.) oven for 10 minutes.
