Kindergarten Mothers Meet

Thursday morning the Kindergarten mothers club held its regular meeting with the president, Mrs. Carl Johnson, presiding. The secretary, Mrs. David Word, called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting. In the business meeting plans were made to enter a float for the Kindergarten in the Christmas parade and sponsor a Christmas party for the pupils.

Christmas Program at School

The boys and girls of the Kindergarten with their teacher, Mrs. Wallace, presented the chapel program Friday morning at the Providence school.
The scripture, John 3:16, was read by Harriett Wilson and Ronnie Boyce. Jimmy Johnson and Meda Satterfield led in singing the morning hymn. The play, "The Big, Big Turnip," was given and several nursery rhymes were sung. The Kindergarten mothers assisted with the program and made several pictures of the group.

Birthday Party for Elaine Crocker

Mrs. Bill Crocker was hostess to a group of teen-agers Friday night at the community center celebrating the birthday of her daughter, Elaine. The lounge was decorated with huge bowls of white chrysanthemums. A color scheme of white and green was used throughout the rooms.
In the game of the original turkey the prize was won by Adger Crawford, and the Thanksgiving menu was made by Margaret Smith. The game of Thankful Thoughts, a magic trick, was enjoyed by the guests.
Elaine's friends helped her make best wishes for her birthday by blowing out the decorated cake. After singing happy birthday refreshments of cake, potato-chips, candies and cold drinks were served by Mrs. Crocker, Mrs. Wallace, Margaret Smith and Myra Robinson.
Those enjoying the occasion were Donarve Cauble, Ruby Thomas, Shirley Mathis, Margaret Smith, Myra Robinson, Patsy Fuller, Ruby Hughes, Martha Jane Reeder, Sherrill Humphries, Sharon O'Shields, Betty Sanders, Al Williams, Adger Crawford, Rock Bailey, Jerold Satterfield, Bunky Blalock, Grady Fuller, Myra Franklin and Jimmy Reeder.

Miscellaneous Shower

Friday night, Nov. 11, the community center was the scene of a party and miscellaneous shower honoring Mrs. Floyd Poole.
The lounge was decorated in colors of yellow and green with yellow chrysanthemums flanked by tall yellow candles gracing the antique mantel. In the reception room vases of vari-colored chrysanthemums were used. In the contest prizes were won by Mrs. Clarence Oakley, Mrs. Mary Martin and Mrs. Houston Ellis. Mrs. Poole received many beautiful gifts which were opened and passed.
Refreshments of congealed cranberry salad, sandwiches, individual cakes and cold drinks were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Henry Abercrombie, Mrs. Cecil McLendon, Mrs. Clyde Trammell, Mrs. Grover McInaville, Mrs. M. C. McCauley, Mrs. J. P. Abercrombie and Mrs. Ione Wallace.

Hobby Club Names Officers

Friday at 1 o'clock the Luncheon club met in the lounge of the community center. The president, Mrs. Lee Sumerel, presided. In the business meeting dues were discussed and the club decided to change its name to The Hobby club. A home-making unit was adopted and plans were made for the group to go to Laurens Tuesday afternoon to a cloth shop to make a study of fabrics and their uses.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: president, Mrs. Lee Sumerel; vice-president, Mrs. Jackie Williams; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Ethel Cauble; program director, Mrs. Elizabeth McLendon. Mrs. Carl Johnson was appointed member-at-large to serve with the executive members on the planning board.

Woman's Club Enjoys Dinner

The Woman's club enjoyed a Thanksgiving dinner Thursday evening at Providence school. The dining hall was decorated in colors of green, yellow and white. Tall white tapers with fall leaves adorned the tables, with the horn of plenty on the speakers' table. A bountiful turkey dinner was served to 50 club members and their guests.
Mrs. Clyde Trammell, president of the club, welcomed the members and guests. Rev. J. H. Holland returned thanks. Mr. H. G. Prince was the guest speaker for the occasion. He was thanked for his timely talk on "This Country of Ours," and was presented a gift by Mrs. Ione Wallace. Several games and songs were enjoyed. In closing, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" was sung.
Guests other than husbands of members were Mrs. R. W. Wade, Miss Katherine Crawford, Miss Katherine Blakely, George H. Cornelson, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Bailey.
Serving were Misses Pat Davenport, Frances Wray and Carol Mills.

What is it worth...

When you want to:

- Contact customers in a hurry
- Close an important contract
- Follow up new prospects
- Speed up deliveries

It would be difficult to reckon the full value of the telephone to your business. A single call may close a deal worth hundreds of dollars—save an expensive trip—sign up a new account—or make a friend for your firm. Your telephone is a means of doing more business and doing it faster, better, more economically.

When you consider the many different ways it serves you, in comparison to the price you pay, telephone service stands out as a real Bargain in your Business.

And its value keeps increasing as service becomes faster and better and the number of customers and prospects you can call grows day by day.
